

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. III.

AN ACT to amend the Law relating to Public Elementary Education.

[Assented to, 5th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Public Education Act, 1899, and shall be read with the other Acts relating to public education.

Short title and incorporation.

2. THE Act of the Fifty-eighth year of Her now Majesty, numbered thirty, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of 58 Vict., 30.

3. IN this Act, save so far as the context otherwise requires,—

Interpretation.

“Compulsory Officer” means a person employed by the Minister to secure the attendance of children at school.

“Efficient

Public Education.

“Efficient Schools” are schools certified by the Minister to be efficient for the purposes of this Act.

“Government School” means any school established under the Elementary Education Act, 1871, or any Act amending that Act.

“Justice” means a Justice of the Peace.

“Minister” means the member of the Executive Council appointed by the Governor to administer this Act.

“Parent” includes guardian and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of any child.

“Teacher” includes assistant teacher, or any person forming part of the educational staff of a school.

Education gratis to children under 14 years of age.

4. NO fees shall be paid by or for children between six or fourteen years of age attending any Government elementary school.

Scale of fees after 14.

5. THE Minister may authorise and determine a scale of fees to be paid by—

(a.) The parent of any child who has attained the age of fourteen years, and whose parent desires that such child should be instructed in a Government school beyond the compulsory age for such instruction; and (b.) Any person for his or her own instruction in any Government school other than Government elementary school.

Fees, to whom payable, and how recoverable.

57 Vict., 16, s. 17.

All such fees for instruction shall be paid to and received by the several persons authorised in that behalf by the Minister, and may be recovered summarily by the person so authorised, before a Court of summary jurisdiction; and the production of a document, in writing, purporting to be signed by the Minister, authorising any person to collect such fees, or a copy of the Government Gazette containing published therein a notice to that effect, shall be primâ facie proof that such person is so authorised.

Compulsory attendance.

6. UNLESS some reasonable excuse for non-attendance is shown—

(1.) The parent of every child of not less than six nor more than nine years of age shall, if there is a Government or efficient school within two miles of such child's residence

Public Education.

residence measured by the nearest road, cause such child to attend such school on such days as the school shall be open ;

- (2.) The parent of every child of, not less than nine nor more than fourteen years of age shall, if there is a Government or efficient school within three miles of such child's residence measured by the nearest road, cause such child to attend such school on the days on which the school is open ;

Provided always, that a continuous attendance of two hours for secular instruction by any such child shall count as half-a-day's attendance.

7. ANY of the following reasons shall be deemed a reasonable excuse :—

Reasonable excuse.

Ibid., s. 5.

- (1.) That the child is under efficient instruction at home or elsewhere ; and whether such instruction is efficient or not shall be a matter for the decision of the Minister, who may require the report of an inspector of schools thereon.
- (2.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, danger of infection, temporary or permanent infirmity, or any unavoidable causes ; but such excuse shall not be entertained unless the parent has given the teacher notice thereof, in writing, within seven days after the occurrence of such prevention. A medical certificate must be produced if required by the Minister.

8. THE Minister may, at his discretion, excuse from attendance children who are required to help in the fields at harvest time, or other special periods of the year.

Minister may excuse certain children at certain times.

9. THE Minister may from time to time appoint officers whose duty it shall be to enforce the attendance required by this Act, and the officers so appointed shall be empowered to accost in the streets or other public places, and obtain the names and addresses of children of school age who are apparently not in attendance at school.

Truant officers may accost children in public places.

10. THE parent of any child of not less than six nor more than fourteen years of age, who, without reasonable excuse, neglects to cause such child to attend a Government or other efficient school, may be summoned, in the name of the Minister, before a Court of summary jurisdiction, and shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, punishable upon conviction before such Court, and shall be liable to pay a penalty not exceeding Five shillings for the first offence, and Penalties for neglect.

58 Vict., 30, s. 6.

Public Education.

and not exceeding Twenty shillings for every subsequent offence: And for the purposes of this section the Minister may be represented in any such Court by a compulsory officer or inspector, without such representative being obliged to produce any special authority therefor further than the prima facie evidence of his appointment to such office.

Onus of proof.

And the allegations that the proceedings are authorised by the Minister, and that a child is not less than six nor more than fourteen years, and that the parent thereof neglects to cause such child to attend such school without reasonable excuse as aforesaid, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the fact until the contrary is proved, and in every case the parents of a child may be witnesses.

Certificate of attendance or non-attendance.

11. A CERTIFICATE purporting to be under the hand of the principal teacher of a Government or efficient school stating that a child is or is not attending such school, or stating the particulars of attendance of a child at such school, shall be evidence of the facts stated in such certificate.

Employment of children of compulsory age.

12. A PERSON shall not, after the commencement of this Act, take into his employment during school hours any child who by reason of his age is not exempt from school attendance. Every person who takes a child into his employment in contravention of this Act shall be liable, on summary conviction before a Court of summary jurisdiction, to a penalty not exceeding Forty shillings. A parent who employs his child in any labour exercised by way of trade or for the purpose of gain is to be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to take the child into his employment.

The Minister may, at his discretion, give special exemption for children between the ages of twelve and fourteen, in case of poverty or sickness of the parents.

Children beyond control of parents.

13. IF a Justice is satisfied by the parent or guardian that he has used all reasonable efforts to cause the child to attend school, but that the child is beyond his control, the Justice may, without inflicting a penalty, order the child to be sent to a certified Industrial School till the age of fourteen. The parent, or other person for the time being legally liable to maintain the child, shall, if of sufficient ability, contribute to his maintenance and training therein a sum not exceeding Ten shillings a week, the exact amount to be assessed by the Justice at the time of the committal of such child: Provided that a Court of summary jurisdiction may from time to time vary the amount in accordance with the means of the person so ordered to contribute, but so as his contribution shall not exceed Ten shillings a week.

After

Public Education.

After a detention of not less than two months children may be given a license to live out of the school, but the license shall be conditional upon the child attending regularly some school named in the license being a Government or efficient school. The license can be revoked by direction of the Minister whenever the child ceases to attend regularly, and the teacher in charge of the school to which the child is licensed shall notify to the Department weekly the attendance of the child.

14. THE Minister may refuse the admission of any child to any Government school if accommodation has been provided for such child in another Government school nearer to his dwelling place, or if there is more suitable accommodation in some other Government school within the prescribed distance.

Minister may refuse admission to Government school in certain cases.

15. THE Minister, from time to time, may cause an educational census to be taken of all children within any area, and upon notice of such census appearing in the Government Gazette the Minister shall appoint some person to call at every house within such area, and every householder shall thereupon give such information to such person as enables him to fill up the form of return in the Schedule hereto; or, if from any cause such information is not then given, such person may thereupon leave at the house of any householder neglecting to give such information a copy of such form of return, and after the expiration of seven days call for the same; and every householder at whose house such form of return has been left shall, within seven days, fill up the same or cause it to be filled up, and return it when called for; and whenever and as often as any householder neglects to fill up such form of return or cause the same to be filled up, and to return the same when called for, or wilfully fills the same up with an untrue statement, or gives false information to such person aforesaid, the householder shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and summarily punishable upon conviction before a Court of summary jurisdiction and shall be liable to pay a sum not exceeding Five pounds for every such offence, and in default of the payment thereof he shall be liable to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one month.

Census may be taken.

Schedule.

16. THE proprietor, headmaster, or principal teacher of any school, not being a Government school, may apply to the Minister, in writing, to have such his school found "efficient" for the purposes of this Act; and upon such application being made, the Minister shall forthwith cause such school to be inspected by an inspector of schools; and if, upon inspection, such school is found to be efficient as to the instruction given in reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, and geography as required by this Act or the Regulations, the Minister shall cause such school to be included in a list of schools which

All schools other than a Government school may be found efficient.

Public Education.

which have been inspected and found efficient, or certified to be efficient as hereinafter mentioned, for the purposes of this Act; and the Minister shall cause a copy of such list, with the names of the proprietors, headmasters, or principal teachers of all schools therein included, to be published from time to time, at intervals of not more than twelve months, in the Government Gazette; and the Minister may from time to time cause any school included in such list to be inspected by an inspector of schools, and remove from the list any school that at any time is found on inspection not to be efficient as aforesaid; and any school so removed from the list shall thereupon cease to be efficient for the purposes of this Act: Provided always, that the Minister may, if he is satisfied that any school is efficient as aforesaid, certify that such school is efficient without inspection, and upon any school being so certified the Minister shall include such certified school in the list.

Schools other than Government to keep registers of attendance and supply information.

17. THE proprietor, headmaster, or principal teacher of any school not being a Government school established under an Act relating to public education, shall keep a register or list of attendances of all scholars attending his school, in a form approved by the Minister of Education, which shall be open to inspection at such times in every year as may be mutually agreed upon by an inspector of schools, compulsory officer, or other person duly authorised by the Minister, and such proprietor, headmaster, or principal teacher shall furnish, when required, to an inspector of schools, compulsory officer, or other person duly authorised by the Minister, either in writing or verbally, any information concerning the attendance of any scholar entered on the roll of his school, and shall allow the said inspector of schools, compulsory officer, or other person duly authorised by the Minister, to inspect and make copies from the said register.

Penalty for disturbance.

18. ANY person who wilfully disturbs any State or other school established under any of the Acts relating to public education, or who upbraids, insults, or abuses any teacher in the presence or hearing of the pupils assembled in such school, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, summarily punishable upon conviction before a Court of summary jurisdiction, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Forty shillings and not less than Ten shillings.

Regulations as to examinations for certain bursaries and scholarships.

19. ALL bursaries and scholarships granted by the Governor out of the public funds shall be open for competition among children being educated at any Government or other efficient school; and the Governor may, from time to time, make regulations for the conduct of, and subjects for, the examinations for such bursaries and scholarships.

Public Education.

20. SECTIONS A, C, F, G, and H of the Second Schedule to the Interpretation Act, 1898, are incorporated with this Act.

Sections of Schedule
2 of Interpretation
Act incorporated.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

AN ACT to amend the Sale of Liquors Amendment Act, 1897, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, 5th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Sale of Liquors Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be incorporated with and form part of the said Act. Short title.

2. THE eighth section of the Sale of Liquors Amendment Act, 1897, is hereby amended by inserting, after the word "Peace," in the first line thereof, the words "Inspector appointed under this Act." Amendment of 61
Vict., No. 25, s. 8.

3. THE eleventh section of the Act mentioned in the last preceding section is hereby amended by inserting after the word
"Peace," in the second and fourth lines, the words "Inspector appointed under this Act." Amendment of 61
Vict., No. 25, Sec. 11.

4.

Sale of Liquors Amendment.

Certain persons obtaining liquor not to be regarded as accomplices.

4. NOTWITHSTANDING any rule of law to the contrary, the evidence of an officer or constable of police, or officer of excise, on any proceeding before any Court of Law, against a person charged with a breach of Section Thirty-nine of the Wines, Beer, and Spirit Sale Act, 1880, shall not be deemed to be, nor treated as, the evidence of an accomplice or accessory, so as to require corroboration, by reason only of the fact that such police officer or constable, or officer of excise, purchased or obtained the liquor, the subject of the prosecution, from the person charged.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

No. V.

AN ACT to amend the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, and to validate certain Municipal Loans.

[Assented to, 5th October, 1899.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to validate certain Municipal Loans contracted in good faith on a misapprehension of the meaning of section two of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, Amendment Act, 1898, and to repeal the said section and make other provision in lieu thereof: Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Municipal Loans Validation Act, 1899.

Short title.

2. SECTION two of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, Amendment Act, 1898, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of 62 Vict.,
26, s. 2.

3.

Municipal Loans Validation.

Amendment of 59
Vict., 10, s. 185.

3. SECTION one hundred and eighty-five of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, hereinafter called the principal Act, is hereby amended by adding the words following:—"Provided that, in the case of any new municipality, money may be borrowed by the Council for the purposes aforesaid at any time during the two years terminating with the balancing of the second year's accounts, to an amount not exceeding the net income of the municipality for the said two years as estimated by the Council."

Amendment to be retrospective.

4. THE said section one hundred and eighty-five of the principal Act shall be read as if originally enacted with the words hereinbefore by this Act added thereto.

Validation of loan to Municipality of Victoria Park.

5. NOTWITHSTANDING anything in the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, the loan of Three thousand five hundred pounds proposed to be contracted by the Municipality of Victoria Park, notice whereof was published in the Government Gazette of the Twenty-third day of June last, shall, when effected, be lawful and be binding on the said municipality.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

No. VI.

AN ACT to impose Duties in respect of Dividends or Profits of Incorporated Companies.

[Assented to, 5th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Companies Duty Act, 1899.

Short title.

2. IN this Act, and in any Regulations made under it, unless the context otherwise indicates—

Interpretation.

“Company” means and includes—

Every incorporated company or association, where-soever and howsoever incorporated, associated, or formed, and whether under the laws of Western Australia or under the laws of any other country, and whether under a statute, letters patent, charter, or otherwise, which carries on

Companies Duty.

on business in Western Australia, and is not a brewery company or a company paying duties of excise, and is not a Friendly Society registered under the Friendly Societies Act, 1894, or a Life Assurance Company ;

“ Dividend ” means and includes every sum of money intended to be paid or credited to or distributed among any members of or in any company, whether the same is derived from income or from capital, and whether it is called by the name of dividend, bonus, profits, interest, or any other name ;

“ Officer ” includes public officer, director, manager, and secretary, and the person whose appointment as attorney of the company is registered as required by the Companies Act, 1893 ;

“ Prescribed ” means prescribed by the Regulations.

Duties on dividends under direction of Colonial Treasurer.

3. FROM the commencement of this Act there shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the use of Her Majesty the duties hereinafter provided. Such duties shall be under the direction of the Colonial Treasurer, and he, with the aid of the officers of his department and such other persons as the Governor may appoint, shall raise, levy, collect, receive, and account for such duties, and put this Act in execution, and do all such things as are necessary or expedient for that purpose, but subject, in all matters not specially provided for in this Act or the Regulations, to the approval of the Governor.

Returns to be made of dividends declared and of duty payable thereon.

4. WHEN and so often as any dividend is declared payable to any shareholders in a company carrying on business in Western Australia, and not elsewhere, and not being a mining company or a company which carries on insurance business only, such company shall, within seven days from the time when such dividend has been declared, forward to the Colonial Treasurer a return in the prescribed form, containing the prescribed particulars, and verified by a statutory declaration under the hand of and made by an officer of the company, stating the amount of such dividend, the date when it was declared, and such further particulars as may be prescribed.

Every such company shall, at the time of making such return, pay to the Colonial Treasurer a duty equal to One shilling for every Twenty shillings of the amount of such dividend.

Provided that the duty payable in respect of the first dividend declared by any company after the coming into operation of this Act shall only be in proportion to the time that has elapsed after that day up to the day on which the dividend is declared as compared with the whole period that has elapsed since the last preceding dividend was declared by the company.

Companies Duty.

5. EVERY mining company, and every company which carries on business within and also beyond Western Australia, shall, on or before the first day of April in every year, forward to the Colonial Treasurer a return in the prescribed form containing the prescribed particulars, and verified by a statutory declaration under the hand of and made by an officer of the company, stating the amount of profits made by the company in Western Australia during the year ending the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the return: Provided that companies which balance their accounts on other days than the thirty-first day of December shall, within three months after each balancing day, make a return verified as aforesaid, showing the profits made between the last balancing day and the balancing day immediately preceding the last balancing day.

Mining companies and companies carrying on business beyond Western Australia.

Every such company shall, at the time of making such return, pay to the Colonial Treasurer a duty equal to One shilling for every Twenty shillings of such profits.

Provided that mining companies, if they declare any dividend during the year for which such return is made, shall, before paying such dividend, forward to the Colonial Treasurer a return in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars, and verified by a statutory declaration, stating the amount of such dividend, the date when it was declared, and such further particulars as may be prescribed, and shall at the time of making such return pay to the Colonial Treasurer a duty of One shilling for every Twenty shillings of such dividend; and such payment shall be taken as a payment on account of the duty payable on the profits for the year, and the company, on making the yearly return, shall have credit for such payment, and a return of any amount overpaid.

Provided that the duty payable for the year One thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine shall only be in proportion to the unexpired portion of the year after the coming into operation of this Act as compared with the whole year.

Provided, also, that this clause shall not apply to any company which carries on insurance business only.

6. EVERY company which carries on in Western Australia any fire, fidelity, guarantee, or marine insurance, or any other insurance or assurance business whatever, except life assurance, shall, on or before the first day of March in every year, forward to the Colonial Treasurer a return in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars, and verified by statutory declaration, under the hand of and made by the manager or public officer or a director of such company, or, in the case of companies which have not their head office or chief place of business in Western Australia, Returns in case of insurance companies duty to be paid on premiums.

Companies Duty.

Australia, by the company's manager, stating the amount of the premiums received or in any manner charged in account by such company, or by its agent or agents in Western Australia, during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December.

Such premiums shall be the net premiums, and shall exclude any portion of such net premiums actually paid away by way of re-insurance effected in Western Australia with any other company.

The company shall at the same time pay to the Colonial Treasurer, in lieu of the duty and sums of money payable under the preceding sections of this Act, a sum equal to Twenty shillings for every One hundred pounds, and a proportionate sum for every part of One hundred pounds, of such premiums:

Provided that the duty payable in respect of the premiums received during the year One thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine shall only be in proportion to the unexpired portion of the year after the coming into operation of this Act as compared with the whole year.

Case of companies carrying on business by trustees or agents.

7. WHEN any person carries on business in Western Australia as trustee or agent for a company, then that person and the company shall each be liable to pay the duties and discharge the obligations which the company, if it carried on business in Western Australia, would be liable under this Act to pay and discharge; and all property in Western Australia held by the trustee or agent on behalf of the company shall be liable to be taken in execution or otherwise made available for the discharge and satisfaction of such obligations.

In case of winding up.

8. IN the event of the winding up of any company, duty shall only be payable on any moneys distributed among the shareholders in excess of the amounts actually paid up on the shares.

When payable.

9. THE duties imposed by this Act are debts due to Her Majesty from the companies by which and the persons by whom they are respectively payable, and shall become due and payable at the times when the returns required by this Act to be made ought respectively to be made.

Duty to be paid
paid.

10. IT shall not be lawful for a company, or for any person on behalf of the company, to distribute any dividend or profits chargeable with duty until the duty payable in respect thereof has been paid.

To be deducted from dividends.

11. EVERY officer of any company who pays the duty under this Act in respect of a dividend shall be entitled to deduct and retain for the use of such company, from the dividend payable to any person entitled thereto, a sum bearing the same proportion to to the total duty payable by the company upon the dividend as the amount payable to such person bears to the total dividend upon which such duty has been paid.

12. WHEN a dividend is distributed amongst any persons entitled thereto without the duty payable in respect thereof having been first deducted and paid to the Colonial Treasurer, the duty payable in respect of the amount of dividend received by any such person shall be a debt due by such person to Her Majesty.

Remedy against persons receiving dividends when duty is unpaid.

13. EVERY person acting as trustee, agent, receiver, guardian, or committee, or otherwise in a fiduciary capacity, who receives in that capacity dividends on which a duty is imposed by this Act, shall be personally liable to pay such duty, and may, out of the moneys so coming into his hands, retain so much from time to time as shall amount to the duty so paid, and is hereby indemnified against all persons in respect of such payment.

Indemnity to persons in a fiduciary capacity.

14. EVERY company shall, when required thereto in writing by the Colonial Treasurer, permit any person authorised by him in writing under his hand to inspect and take copies of its minute books and all other books containing any entries relating to any dividends declared by the company, or relating to any other matter with respect to which the company is required by this Act to forward returns to the Colonial Treasurer, and, in the case of a company which carries on in Western Australia any insurance business, to inspect and take a copy of any of the books of the company containing any entries relating to any premiums received or charged in account by the company.

Inspection of books.

15. IF any company, or the manager, trustee, or agent of any company, makes default in transmitting to the Colonial Treasurer any return required by this Act, or makes a false declaration in verification of any such return, or contrary to this Act distributes any dividend before the duty payable in respect thereof has been paid, the company shall be liable to pay to Her Majesty treble the amount of duty which is payable under this Act in respect of the matters concerning which such return is required to be made, or in respect of dividends distributed in contravention of this Act.

Penalty for omission to make true returns.

16. IF any company, or any officer, trustee, or agent of any company, makes default in complying with any other provisions of this Act, such company shall incur a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for every day during which such default continues; and every officer of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default shall incur the like penalty.

Penalty for default.

Companies Duty.

Punishment for false declaration.

17. IF any statement, declaration, or other document required by this Act is false in any particular to the knowledge of the person who signs the same, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to a penalty not exceeding Five hundred pounds, and to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years.

Trustees, etc., receiving dividends for persons under disability to be personally liable for duty.

18. EVERY person who, as trustee of property held in trust for the separate use of any married woman, or as trustee, receiver, guardian, or committee for any person of unsound mind or under legal disability, receives in Western Australia any dividend on behalf of such married woman or other person, whether such married woman or other person resides in Western Australia or not, shall be liable to pay the duties imposed by this Act in like manner and to the same amount as the married woman would be liable if she were a feme sole, or if the property were not held for her separate use, and as such other persons would be liable if not under disability.

The principal, whether married or under disability or not, is also liable if the trustee, agent, etc., does not pay.

19. EVERY person, whether a married woman or not, and whether under disability or not, and whether residing in Western Australia or not, who, through a trustee, agent, receiver, guardian, or committee, receives any dividend on which duty is imposed by this Act, shall be liable to pay the duty through the trustee or other person as aforesaid through whom the dividend is received.

Married women.

20. EVERY married woman having any separate property, or being entitled to any property or profits to her separate use, shall be chargeable with and liable to pay the like duties and in like manner as if she were unmarried.

Discovery to be given.

21. NO company or person shall be entitled to refuse to make any discovery sought to be obtained in any action brought under this Act on the ground that the discovery would entail a forfeiture.

Any returns made by or on behalf of a company under any other Act shall be admissible in evidence in any action brought against the company under this Act.

Secrecy.

22. EVERY officer or other person engaged in the execution of this Act shall maintain the secrecy of all matters that may come to his knowledge in the course of his duty or employment, and shall not, directly or indirectly, communicate any such matter to any person or reveal the same in any way, except for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act; and on any default in the premises shall, on conviction, be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years.

23.

Companies' Duty.

23. THE Governor may from time to time make such Regulations as may be necessary for prescribing the particulars to be given in any returns required to be made under this Act, and otherwise for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Regulations.

24. THE duties imposed by this Act shall be paid, collected, and recovered, and payments in respect thereof may be repaid and adjusted as if this Act had been passed and had come into operation on the eleventh day of July, 1899. Duties to be retrospective.

25. THIS Act shall only remain in force until December 31st, 1902. Duration of Act.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

No. VIII.

AN ACT to amend the Law of Evidence in Criminal Cases.

[Assented to, 9th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Criminal Evidence Act, 1899, and shall come into operation on the expiration of two months from the passing thereof.

Short title.

2. THE Act of the sixtieth year of Her now Majesty, numbered thirty-one, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of 60 Vict.
No. 31.

3. EVERY person charged with an offence, and the wife or husband, as the case may be, of the person so charged, shall be a competent witness for the defence at every stage of the proceedings, whether whether the person so charged is charged solely or jointly with any other person: Provided as follows:—

Criminal Evidence
Act, 1898 (Imp.) s. 1.

- (a.) A person so charged shall not be called as a witness in pursuance of this Act except on his own application ;
- (b.) The failure of any person charged with an offence, or of the wife or husband, as the case may be, of the person so charged to give evidence shall not be made the subject of any comment by the prosecution ;
- (c.) The wife or husband of the person charged shall not, save as in this Act mentioned, be called as a witness in pursuance of this Act except upon the application of the person so charged ;
- (d.) Nothing in this Act shall make a husband compellable to disclose any communication made to him by his wife during the marriage, or a wife compellable to disclose any communication made to her by her husband during the marriage ;
- (e.) A person charged and being a witness in pursuance of this Act may be asked any question in cross-examination, notwithstanding that it would tend to criminate him as to the offence charged ;
- (f.) A person charged and called as a witness in pursuance of this Act shall not be asked, and if asked, shall not be required to answer, any question tending to show that he has committed or been convicted of or been charged with any offence other than that wherewith he is then charged, or is of bad character, unless—
 - (i.) The proof that he has committed or been convicted of such other offence is admissible in evidence to show that he is guilty of the offence wherewith he is then charged ; or
 - (ii.) He has personally, or by his advocate, asked questions of the witnesses for the prosecution with a view to establish his own good character, or has given evidence of his good character, or the nature or conduct of the defence is such as to involve imputations on the character of the prosecutor or the witnesses for the prosecution ; or
 - (iii.) He has given evidence against any other person charged with the same offence ;

(g.)

Criminal Evidence.

(g.) Every person called as a witness in pursuance of this Act shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, give his evidence from the witness box or other place from which the other witnesses give their evidence;

(h.) Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of Section Ten of the Act of the fourteenth year of Her now Majesty, numbered four.

Saving of 14 Vict., No. 4, s. 10.

4. WHERE the only witness to the facts of the case called by the defence is the person charged, he shall be called as a witness immediately after the close of the evidence for the prosecution.

Evidence of defendant, when to be given. Ibid., s. 2.

5. IN cases where the right of reply depends upon the question whether evidence has been called for the defence, the fact that the person charged has been called as a witness shall not of itself confer on the prosecution the right of reply.

Right of reply. Ibid., s. 3.

6. (1.) THE wife or husband of a person charged with an offence under any enactment mentioned in the Schedule to this Act may be called as a witness either for the prosecution or defence, and without the consent of the person charged.

Calling of wife or husband in certain cases. Ibid., s. 4.

(2.) Nothing in this Act shall affect a case where the wife or husband of a person charged with an offence may, at common law, be called as a witness without the consent of that person.

7. THIS Act shall apply to all criminal proceedings, notwithstanding any enactment in force at the commencement of this Act, except that on the trial of any indictment or other proceeding for the non-repair of any public highway or bridge, or for a nuisance to any public highway, river, or bridge, and of any other indictment or proceeding instituted for the purpose of trying or enforcing a civil right only, every defendant to such indictment or proceeding, and the wife or husband of any such defendant, shall be admissible witnesses and compellable to give evidence.

To apply to all criminal proceedings, except such as are instituted to enforce a civil right. Ibid., s. 6. See 40 Vict., c. 14, (Imp.) Evidence Act, 1877.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

No. IX.

AN ACT to facilitate the Proof of Acts of the Parliaments of Australasian Colonies and of Judicial and Official Documents, Seals, and Signatures, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, 9th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may for all purposes be cited as the Evidence Act, 1899.

Short title and construction.

2. IN this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a.) The expression "Act of Parliament" includes any Act of Council and Ordinance of the Legislature of any Australasian Colony;

Interpretation of terms.

Evidence—Proof of Acts of Parliament, etc.

- (b.) The expression “Australasian Colony” means and includes the Colonies (including their respective dependencies) of Fiji, New South Wales, New Zealand, Queensland, South Australia, Tasmania, and Victoria, and any British possession which may at any time be created within Her Majesty’s possessions in Australasia, and the said expression shall also be deemed to include any part of New Zealand during such time as such part constituted a separate Colony;
- (c.) The expression “Colony” includes province;
- (d.) The expression “Government Gazette” means the Government Gazette, Royal Gazette, or other official gazette of any Australasian Colony;
- (e.) The expression “Government Printer” means and includes any printer purporting to be the printer authorised to print the Statutes, Ordinances, Acts of State, or other public Acts of the Legislature of any Australasian Colony, or otherwise to be the Government Printer of such Colony;
- (f.) The expression “Governor” means the person for the time being administering the Government of any Australasian Colony; and
- (g.) The expression “Votes and Proceedings” shall be deemed to include any papers printed or purporting to be printed by the authority of and laid before or purporting to be laid before any House or Houses of Legislature of any Australasian Colony.

Australasian
Colonies and their Acts to be judicially noticed.

3. (1.) ALL courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia shall take judicial notice of every Australasian Colony and the extent of its territories, and also of all Acts of Parliament of any Australasian Colony, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act.

Government
Printer’s copies to be deemed prima facie correct for certain purposes.

(2.) Any paper purporting to be a copy of any Act of Parliament of any Australasian Colony, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, and purporting to be printed by the Government Printer of such Colony, or as a supplement to the Government Gazette of such Colony, shall, prima facie, be deemed to be a correct copy of such Act without any further proof thereof. The date which appears on any such copy purporting to be the day on which such Act received the Royal Assent shall be received for all purposes as evidence of the date of such assent.

Evidence—Proof of Acts of Parliament, etc.

4. ALL courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia shall take judicial notice of the impression of the public seal of Western Australia and of the public seal of any Australasian Colony without evidence of such seal having been impressed or any other evidence relating thereto.

Public seals of Colonies.

5. PRIMA facie evidence of any Royal Proclamation, Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, order, regulation, despatch, or any instrument whatsoever made or issued before or after the commencement of this Act by Her Majesty or by Her Majesty's Privy Council, or by or under the authority of any of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, or of any Department of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom may be given before all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia by the production of a copy of the London Gazette or of the Government Gazette purporting to contain a reprint of such Proclamation, Order of the Privy Council, order, regulation, despatch, or other instrument as an extract from the London Gazette.

Mode of proving Royal Proclamations, Orders of Privy Council or Rules, etc., of Her Majesty's Imperial Government.

6. PRIMA facie evidence of any Proclamation, Order in Council, order, regulation, or other instrument whatsoever made or issued before or after the commencement of this Act by the Governor or by the Governor in Council of any Australasian Colony; also of any order, regulation, or instrument whatsoever made or issued before or after the commencement of this Act by or under the authority of any responsible Minister of the Crown in any such Colony, or of any public commission or Board, may be given before all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia in all or any of the modes hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

Mode of proving Proclamations, Orders in Council, Rules, etc., of Governor or Ministers of the Crown of Australasian Colony.

- (a.) By the production of a copy of the Government Gazette of such Colony purporting to contain such Proclamation, Order in Council, order, regulation, or other instrument;
- (b.) By the production of a copy of such Proclamation, Order in Council, order, regulation, or instrument purporting to be printed by the Government Printer of such Colony;
- (c.) By the production in the case of any Proclamation, Order in Council, order, regulation, or instrument whatsoever made or issued by the Governor, or by the Governor in Council of any Australasian Colony, of a written copy or extract purporting to be certified to by the Clerk of the Executive Council of such Colony, and in the case of any order, regulation, or instrument whatsoever made or issued by or under the authority of any responsible Minister of the Crown by the production of a copy or extract purporting to Evidence—Proof of Acts of Parliament, etc.

to be certified to be true by the aforesaid Minister or any other responsible Minister of the Crown in such Colony.

No proof shall be required of the handwriting or official position of any person certifying in pursuance of this section to the truth of any copy of or extract from any Proclamation, Order in Council, order, regulation, or instrument.

Documents admissible in Australasian Colonies without proof to be equally admissible in Western Australia.

7. EVERY document which by any law now in force or hereafter to be in force in any Australasian Colony is or shall be admissible in evidence of any particular in any court of justice in such Colony without proof of the seal, or stamp, or signature authenticating the same, or of the judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same, shall be admitted in evidence to the same extent and for the same purposes before all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia without proof of the seal, or stamp, or signature authenticating the same, or of the judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same.

Documents of Australasian Colony which, if Western Australian, admissible on mere production provable by certified copy.

8. WHENEVER any book or other document of any Australasian Colony is of such a public nature as would, if it were a Western Australian book or document, be admissible in evidence in Western Australia on its mere production from the proper custody, any copy thereof or extract therefrom shall be admissible in evidence before all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia, provided it be proved to be an examined copy or extract, or provided it purport to be signed and certified as a true copy or extract by some officer of the Colony in question, who shall further certify thereto that he is the officer to whose custody the original is entrusted.

Votes and proceedings of Legislature of any Australasian Colony proved by copy.

9. ALL copies, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, of the Votes and Proceedings of any House of the Legislature of any Australasian Colony, and of Royal Proclamations if purporting to be printed by the Government Printer of the Colony to which they belong or relate shall, on the mere production of the same, be admitted as evidence thereof by all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia without any proof being given that such copies were so printed.

Certain signatures to be judicially noticed.

10. ALL courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia shall take judicial notice of the signature of every person who is for the time being and of every person who has at any time been Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Prothonotary, Master, Registrar, or Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court, Commissioner of Titles,

11. WHENEVER by any Act of any Australasian Colony now or hereafter to be in force—

Proof of certain public or corporation documents by a sealed copy.

- (a.) Any certificate, official or public document ; or
- (b.) Any document or proceeding of any corporation or company ; or
- (c.) Any certified copy of any document or by-law, or entry in any register or other book, or any other proceeding shall be receivable in evidence of any particular under such Act in the particular Colony, the same shall respectively be admitted in evidence before all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia, provided they respectively purport to be sealed or impressed with a stamp, or sealed and signed, or signed alone, as required, or impressed with a stamp and signed, as directed by such Act of the particular Australasian Colony, without any proof of the seal or stamp where a seal or stamp is necessary, or of the signature, or of the official character of the person appearing to have signed the same, and without any further proof thereof in every case in which the original record or document could have been received in evidence.

12. BOOKS purporting to have been printed or published, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, under the authority of the Government of any Australasian Colony or by the Government Printer of such Colony, and purporting to contain statutes, ordinances, or other written laws in force in such Colony shall, on production, be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of such laws by all courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia.

Books of Statutes of any Australasian Colony published under authority of Government thereof admissible in evidence.

Evidence—Proof of Acts of Parliament, etc.

Incorporation of any company how authenticated.

13. ALL courts and persons acting judicially within Western Australia shall admit and receive as prima facie evidence of the incorporation of a company incorporated or registered in any Australasian Colony, either before or after the commencement of this Act, a certificate of the incorporation or registration thereof which purports to have been signed by a person whose authority to give the same shall be verified by a statutory declaration made before any judge or justice of the peace of such Colony, of whose signature such courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice, and the date of incorporation or registration mentioned in such certificate shall be deemed to be the date on which the company was incorporated or registered.

Powers under this Act not to be in derogation of existing law.

14. THE provisions of this Act shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any powers existing at common law or given by any law now in force in Western Australia.

What documents may be given in evidence.

15. NOTWITHSTANDING anything in this Act contained to the contrary, it shall not be lawful to give in evidence before any court any of the documents or papers mentioned in Sections seven and eight unless and until the party intending so to do shall have, seven days at least before tendering the same in evidence,—

- (a.) Given to the opposite party or his solicitor notice of such intention.
- (b.) Appointed a place in the town where the court before which the evidence is to be tendered is held, where, at any reasonable time within two days after the giving of such notice, such documents or papers may be inspected or copied by the opposite party or his solicitor.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

Provided that nothing contained in this Act shall affect the measurement of land. See ibid., ss. 1 and 2.

10. ALL weights and measures provided as standard weights and measures after the passing of this Act shall be stamped or marked; and the stamp or mark shall consist of the imperial crown with the word "STANDARD" underneath and a figure or fractional figure to indicate the denomination or contents of such weight or measure: And such weights and measures shall be deposited in the offices of the Metropolitan Corporation, and kept by or under the control of the said corporation. Standards to be stamped.
Ibid., s. 12.

11. IF any of the said standard weights or measures be lost, destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured so as to be unfit to be used as standards, the said council shall provide another weight or measure of the like denomination with that so lost, destroyed, defaced, or injured; and such weight or measure so provided shall be adjusted and verified by comparison with the proper standard weight or measure, and when stamped or marked and deposited as hereinbefore mentioned shall become a standard weight or measure. Replacing lost, etc., standards.
Ibid., s. 13.

12. THE said Metropolitan Corporation shall cause to be made, as often as the same may be required, copies of the said standard weights and measures; and such copies when verified and stamped as hereinafter mentioned, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be "authorised copies" of the said standard weights and measures respectively, although such copies be not of the same shape or of the same metal or material as the said standard weights and measures; and such copies shall be accepted as true by all courts and persons. Authorised copies to be provided.
Ibid., s. 15.

13. EVERY authorised copy of the standard weights and measures, before being issued as hereinafter mentioned, shall be compared with the standard weights and measures; and (having been adjusted if necessary) shall be stamped or marked: And the stamp or mark shall consist of the imperial crown with a figure or fractional figure to indicate the denomination or contents of such weight or measure, and a distinguishing mark (to be fixed by the said Metropolitan Corporation) showing the municipality to which the same has been issued and the date of issue. Authorised copies to be marked.
Ibid., s. 16.

14. AT such times as the Governor may direct, all the authorised copies shall be compared with the standard weights and measures, and, if necessary, shall be adjusted. Standards to be tested.
See ibid., s. 14.

Weights and Measures.

Register.
Ibid., s. 17.
 See 5 & 6 Will. IV.,
 c. 63, s. 5.
 Third Schedule.
 Proof of authorised copies.

15. THE said Metropolitan Corporation shall cause to be kept in the said office a register of all authorised copies which shall have been issued under this Act, which said register shall be in the form in the Third Schedule hereto or to the like effect: And proof that any weights or measures in the custody of any inspector of weights and measures bear the said stamp or mark, and the distinguishing mark of the place or district in which they are used corresponding with such register, shall be sufficient evidence that such weights and measures are authorised copies of the standard weights and measures, and that the same have been duly issued under this Act for such place or district.

 copies.
Ibid., s. 18.
 See 5 Geo. IV.,
 c. 74, s. 12.
 Authorised copies to be deposited.

16. UPON application made by any municipal council and upon payment of the price fixed by the Governor in that behalf, the said Metropolitan Corporation shall issue to such council one or more sets of authorised copies of the standard weights and measures; and such authorised copies shall be the property of the council of the municipality for which the same have been issued: And every such council shall cause one set of such authorised copies to be deposited with and safely kept by each of the inspectors hereinafter mentioned at such place and in such building within the limits for which such inspector has been appointed as the council directs.

Ibid., s. 19.
 All copies to be periodically
 re-verified.
 See 5 & 6 Will. IV.,
 c. 63, s. 5.

Re-verified copies to be returned or destroyed.
 Fourth Schedule.

17. EVERY authorised copy of the said standard weights and measures respectively shall, in every fifth year, and at any time when the same are suspected to be defective or required to be repaired, and at such other times as the said Metropolitan Corporation directs, be transmitted by the said council to the said corporation for the purpose of being again compared as aforesaid; and if not so transmitted they shall, upon notice given in that behalf by the said corporation in the Government Gazette, cease to be authorised copies, and the date and cause of their so ceasing shall be entered in the register aforesaid: And every authorised copy so transmitted shall, if found or when made to agree with the standard weight or measure, be re-issued upon payment of the fees specified in the Fourth Schedule hereto by such council, unless the said corporation shall deem such copy unfit to be used for the purposes of this Act, in which case it shall be forthwith destroyed in such a manner as to prevent its being again used, and it shall then be sold, and the proceeds paid to the said council.

Authorised copies
 lost, etc.
Ibid., s. 20.

18. IF any of such authorised copies are lost, destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured, so as to be unfit to be used as authorised copies, the council of the municipality to which the same belong shall forthwith provide in the manner hereinbefore mentioned other authorised copies instead thereof.

19.

Weights and Measures.

19. THE said Metropolitan Corporation shall issue to any such council which applies for the same, upon payment of such fees as shall be fixed in that behalf by the Governor, good and sufficient stamps, brands, beams, scales, and books, for the purposes of this Act, as hereinafter mentioned; and none other shall be used for such purposes.

Stamps and brands, etc.

Ibid., s. 21.

20. EVERY such council shall from time to time appoint at least one inspector of weights and measures for the municipal area of such council; and such council may from time to time remove such inspector and appoint another in the room of any inspector so removed, or who may die, resign, or discontinue his office; and such council may, out of the municipal fund, pay to such inspectors such salary and allowances as such council shall think reasonable.

Inspectors.

Ibid., s. 22.

21. NO maker or seller or adjuster of weights or measures, or person employed in making or selling or adjusting thereof, or in the conveyance, carriage, purchase, or sale of goods by weight or measure, shall be appointed an inspector of weights and measures under this Act; nor shall any inspector be directly or indirectly connected with the business of any adjuster of weights and measures.

Disqualification of inspectors.

Ibid., s. 23.

22. EVERY such inspector as aforesaid, immediately upon his appointment and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, with two sureties approved of by the council, enter into a bond to the council by which such inspector has been appointed, or shall obtain the guaranty of some company or society approved by the said council, in the sum of Two hundred pounds, to secure the due and punctual performance of the duties of his office, and the due and punctual payment, at such times as he may be directed by such council, of all fees received by him under the authority of this Act, and the safe custody, and faithful and lawful use of the weights, measures, stamps, brands, beams, and scales, and all other articles committed to his charge under this Act, and their due restoration and surrender to such person and at such time as may be duly appointed in that behalf by the said council.

Inspectors to give security.

Ibid., s. 24.

Ibid., s. 23.

23. THE council of any municipality may require the inspector of such municipality to take the authorised copies of the weights and measures to any place within the limits for which such inspector is appointed for the purpose of comparing weights and measures within such limits, or to any place beyond such limits, and not being within the limits of any other municipality, for the purpose aforesaid: And it shall be lawful for any such council as aforesaid to fix, by by-laws, the amount of the fees to be paid to such inspector by any person resident or carrying on business in any place to which the inspector may Authorised copies to be accessible for comparison.

Ibid., s. 32.

See ibid., s. 25.

25. ALL persons who are desirous of adjusting any weights, measures, scales, balances, steelyards, beams, or other weighing machines shall have access to the authorised copies deposited as aforesaid for the place within which the same are kept or used, at such times and upon payment of such fees as may be fixed by any by-law to be made in that behalf by the council of the municipality to which such authorised copies belong.

Such by-laws shall and may be made by the councils of such municipalities in accordance with the provisions of the Acts prescribing the manner in which by-laws shall be made by such councils.

Inspector to compare weights, etc., brought to him.

It shall be the duty of the inspector in whose charge the said authorised copies shall be, upon payment as aforesaid, to compare with such authorised copies as aforesaid, and stamp (if found correct) all such weights, measures, scales, balances, steelyards, beams, or other weighing machines as are brought to him for that purpose by any person keeping or using the same within the limits for which such inspector is appointed.

Certain exceptions.

Ibid., s. 33.

See ibid., s. 21.

26. NOTHING hereinbefore contained shall extend to require any single weight or measure exceeding the greatest standard weight or measure deposited as aforesaid to be compared and stamped; or to require any wicker measure or any glass or earthenware jug or drinking cup, though represented as containing the amount of any standard measure, or of any multiple thereof, to be stamped.

Inspectors to make minutes of comparisons.

See ibid., s. 24.

Fifth Schedule.

Sixth Schedule.

27. EVERY such inspector shall keep a book, wherein he shall enter, in the form contained in the Fifth Schedule to this Act, minutes of all such comparisons, together with the several other matters and particulars indicated or required by the said form; and shall, if required, give under his hand a copy of such minute, with a certificate indorsed thereon, in the form or to the effect in the Sixth Schedule hereto.

Standard weights, etc., to be adopted.

Ibid., s. 35.

5 & 6 Geo. IV.,
c. 74, s. 15.

28. ALL contracts, bargains, sales, and dealings, which are made or had, after the passing of this Act, for any work to be done, or for any goods, wares, or merchandise, or other thing to be sold, delivered, done, or agreed for by weight or measure, shall be made, and be deemed, taken, and construed to be made and had according to the standard weights and measures ascertained by this Act or some multiple or part thereof.

Weights and Measures.

29. GOLD, silver, platinum, diamonds, and other precious stones, but no other articles, shall be sold by troy weight.

Troy weight.
Ibid., s. 36.

30. NOTHING herein contained shall prevent the sale of drugs, when sold by retail, by apothecaries' weight; nor the sale of any articles in any vessel where such vessel is not represented as containing any amount of standard weight or measure.

Exceptions.
Ibid., s. 37.
See 5 & 6 Will. IV.,

31. COALS, coke, slack, culm, and cannel of every description shall be sold by weight and not by measure.

Coals, coke, etc., to be sold by weight.
Ibid., s. 38.
See ibid., s. 9.

32. AGRICULTURAL produce mentioned in the Seventh Schedule hereto shall be sold by the bushel standard weight and not by measure, and the weight thereof shall be estimated at the number of standard pounds avoirdupois set against the name thereof in the said Schedule.

Wheat, etc., to be sold by weight.
See Queensland Act,
30 Vict., 18, ss. 1 and
Seventh Schedule.

Provided that the Governor may at any time, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, declare that other agricultural produce specified in such Proclamation, and the weight set against the same respectively, shall be added to the Schedule, and thereupon such additions shall be read as part of the Schedule.

Provided also that nothing in this section shall apply to—

Any contract for the sale of or a lien upon any growing crops or unthreshed grain;

Any sale of less than a bushel; or

The supply by an innkeeper of any article of provender for the animals of his guest, or for animals in his charge as such innkeeper.

33. EXCEPT where it is otherwise allowed by this Act, all dry goods, wares, and merchandise, sold by measure, shall be stricken with a round stick or roller, straight, and of the same diameter from end to end.

Dry goods to be stricken.
Ibid., s. 39.
See 5 Geo. IV.,
c. 74, s. 9.

34. ALL such dry goods, wares, and merchandise, as from their size and shape are incapable of being stricken, and from their nature and quality cannot be conveniently sold by weight, may be sold by a standard bushel measure, made round, containing eight standard gallons, filled in all parts as nearly to the level of the brim as the size, shape, and nature of the article so sold will admit.

How dry goods incapable of being stricken may be sold.
Ibid., s. 40.

35. ALL weights made after the passing of this Act shall have the exact weight contained therein marked on the top or side thereof in legible figures and letters; and all measures of capacity and extension respectively, made after the passing of this Act, shall have their contents marked on the outside of such measures respectively in legible figures and letters.

Weights and measures to have contents marked.

See 5 & 6 Will. IV.
c. 63, s. 12.

Weights and Measures.

Weights and measures to be stamped.

Ibid., s. 42.

36. NO weights and measures whatsoever (except as herein excepted) shall be used, unless they have been compared with one or more (as the case may require) of the said standard weights and measures, or of the authorised copies thereof.

Stamped weights, etc., may be used at any place.

Ibid., s. 43.

See ibid., s. 27.

37. NO weight or measure duly stamped under this Act, or an Act hereby repealed, shall be liable to be re-stamped, although such weight or measure be used in any other place than that at which the same was originally stamped; but such weight or measure shall be considered as a legal weight or measure throughout Western Australia, unless found to be defective or unjust.

Where no inspector appointed.

Ibid., s. 44.

38. ANY person who keeps or uses any weight, measure, beam, scales, balance, steelyard, or other weighing machine in any place, whether there is an inspector for that place or not, and who is desirous of adjusting the same, shall have access to the authorised copies deposited nearest to such place; and it shall be the duty of the inspector in whose charge the said authorised copies shall be to compare and stamp any such weight, measure, beam, scales, balance, steelyard, or other weighing machine, in the same manner, upon the same terms, and subject to the same penalties for failure, neglect, or refusal on the part of such inspector, as if such person kept or used the same within the limits for which such inspector has been appointed.

Lead and pewter
weights prohibited
unless cased, etc.

Ibid., s. 45.

See 5 & 6 Will. IV.,
c. 63, s. 13.

39. NO weight made of lead or pewter or of any mixture thereof respectively shall be stamped or used; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of lead or pewter, or any mixture thereof respectively, in the manufacture of weights, if they be wholly cased with brass, copper, or iron, and legibly stamped or engraved with the word "cased;" or shall prevent the insertion of such a plug of lead or pewter into weights as shall be bonâ fide necessary for adjusting them, or of affixing thereon the stamp or mark required by this Act.

False weights, etc.,
to be forfeited.

Ibid., s. 4, with addition.

40. ALL weights made of lead or pewter or of any mixture thereof, and all weights and measures with forged or counterfeit stamps or marks thereon, shall be seized by any Justice, or by any inspector of weights and measures, and may be forfeited by an order of any Justice, after inspection and comparison with the corresponding standard weight or measure, or an authorised copy thereof.

Buyers by reputed standards may require comparison.

Ibid., s. 47.

41. ANY person buying by any vessel represented as containing the quantity of any standard measure, or of any multiple thereof, is hereby authorised to require the contents of such vessel to be ascertained by comparison with a stamped measure, to be provided by the person who shall sell or attempt to sell by such vessel:

And

Weights and Measures.

And if such person shall refuse to make such comparison, or if upon such comparison being made such vessel shall be found to be deficient in capacity, the person who sells or attempts to sell by the same shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, upon conviction, be subject to the penalties and forfeitures by this Act imposed on persons using light or unjust weights or measures.

42. ANY Justice or any inspector of weights and measures may at all reasonable times enter any shop, store, warehouse, stall, yard, shed, or place whatsoever within his jurisdiction wherein goods are exposed or kept for sale, or are measured or weighed for conveyance or carriage, and may there examine all weights, measures, scales, balances, steelyards, beams, or other weighing machines, and compare and try the same with the authorised copies deposited under this Act or duplicates thereof: And if, upon such examination and comparison with authorised copies, it appears that the said weights or measures are light or otherwise unjust, or that the said scales, balances, steelyards, beams, or other weighing machines are incorrect or imperfect, the same respectively shall be forthwith seized and may be forfeited by the order of any Justice.

Justices and inspectors may search for false weights and measures.

Ibid., s. 48.

See ibid., s. 28.

43. IF any person falsifies or otherwise wilfully or negligently injures any of the said standard weights and measures, or any of the authorised copies thereof, or any stamp or brand or other property issued under this Act, or (without being duly authorised in that behalf) removes any of the same from the buildings where the same are deposited under this Act, such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, upon conviction, pay a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds, in addition to the cost of repairing or replacing such weight, measure, stamp, or brand, which costs shall be assessed by the adjudicating Justices.

Falsifying, etc., weights.

Ibid., s. 49.

44. IF any inspector of weights and measures fails, neglects, or refuses to compare any weights, measures, scales, balances, steelyards, beams, or other weighing machines which are brought to him for that purpose by any person keeping or using the same within the limits for which he is appointed, such inspector shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction, pay a fine not exceeding Ten pounds.

Penalty for not comparing weights, etc.

Ibid., s. 50.

45. IF any inspector of weights and measures makes, adjusts, or sells any weight, measure, scales, balance, steelyard, beam, or other weighing machine, or derives any profit, commission, or other remuneration from the making, adjusting, or selling thereof respectively, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, upon conviction, pay a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds, and shall thenceforward be incapable of holding any office under this Act.

Penalty for inspector's breach of duty.

Ibid., s. 52.

See 5 & 6 Will. IV., c. 63, s. 29.

46. IF any inspector of weights and measures, or any other person legally authorised to stamp any weights or measures, stamps any weight, measure, scales, balance, steelyard, beam, or other weighing machine without duly verifying the same with an authorised copy of the standard weights and measures or with the standard weights and measures, as the case may be, or if he, without the authority of the municipal council, removes any of the authorised copies aforesaid from the building in which the same are by direction of such council deposited, or if he demands or receives for comparing or stamping any weight or measure any other or greater fee than is fixed in that behalf, or is guilty of a breach of any duty imposed by this Act, or otherwise misconducts himself in the execution of his office, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, upon conviction, pay a fine not exceeding Twenty pounds for every such offence.

Inspectors acting outside district.

Ibid., s. 53.

See ibid., s. 25.

47. EVERY inspector who, except as hereinbefore mentioned, compares or stamps any weight or measure of any person who does not keep or use the same in a place to which the inspector is required to take the authorised copy of the weights and measures as aforesaid, or who keeps or uses the same within the limits of any local jurisdiction for which another inspector is legally appointed, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall for every such offence pay a fine not exceeding Ten pounds.

Penalty for false weights, etc.

Ibid., s. 54.

See ibid., s. 21.

48. IF any person uses or has in his possession any weight or measure other than those authorised by this Act, or some aliquot part thereof, or which has not been marked as aforesaid, or which (not being in the possession of a seller of weights and measures for the purpose of sale only) has not been stamped as aforesaid, except as hereinbefore excepted, or which is found to be light or otherwise unjust, or if any person uses or has in his possession any false or imperfect scales, balance, steelyard, beam, or other weighing machine, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction, pay a fine not exceeding Ten pounds: And any contract, bargain, or sale made by any such unstamped weights and measures or such false or imperfect scales, balance, steelyard, beam, or weighing machine shall be wholly null and void: And every such light, unjust, or unstamped weight or measure, or false or imperfect scales, balance, steelyard, beam, or weighing machine shall, on being discovered by any Justice or inspector of weights and measures, be seized, and, on conviction of the person using or possessing the same, shall be forfeited.

Penalty for use of unlawful weights, etc.

Ibid., s. 55.

See 5 & 6 Will. IV., c. 63, s. 21.

49. IF any person sells any goods, wares, merchandises, or other things by heaped measure or by any weight or measure not allowed for that purpose by this Act, or sells any coals, coke, slack, culm, or canal of any description by measure and not by weight, he shall be be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction thereof, pay a fine not exceeding Ten pounds; and any contract, bargain, or sale made contrary hereto shall be wholly null and void.

50. IF any person wilfully obstructs, resists, hinders, or opposes any Justice or any inspector of weights and measures in the execution of his office, or if any person selling, conveying, or carrying by weight or measure refuses to produce and deliver his weights, measures, scales, balances, steelyards, beams, or other weighing machines to such inspector or to any Justice, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction, pay for every such offence a fine not exceeding Ten pounds.

Penalty for obstructing inspector or not producing weights.

Ibid., s. 56.

See ibid., s. 28.

51. IF any person makes, forges, or counterfeits, or causes or procures to be made, forged, or counterfeited, or knowingly acts or assists in the making, forging, or counterfeiting of any stamp, brand, or mark used for the stamping or marking of any weights or measures under this Act, such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction for every such offence, pay a fine not exceeding One hundred pounds: And if any person knowingly sells, utters, disposes of, or exposes for sale any weight or measure with such forged or counterfeit stamp, brand, or mark thereon, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction for every such offence, pay a fine not exceeding Twenty pounds.

Penalty for counterfeiting marks, etc.

Ibid., s. 57.

See ibid., s. 30.

52. ALL weights, measures, balances, steelyards, beams, or scales forfeited under this Act shall be so broken up as to prevent their being again used as such, and shall then be sold.

Weights and measures forfeited to be destroyed.

Ibid., s. 58.

53. ALL prosecutions for offences against this Act, save where otherwise provided, may be heard and determined before two Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions, and shall not be commenced after one month from the commission of the offence; and all penalties and the proceeds of all forfeitures under this part of this Act shall be paid, one-half to the inspector or other person suing for the same, and the other half to the municipality in which such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred.

Appropriation of penalties and fees

Ibid., s. 59.

All fees paid to any inspector shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipality in which he is appointed.

No. XII.

AN ACT to further amend the Dog Act, 1883.

[Assented to, 9th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Dog Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be incorporated with the Dog Act, 1883, hereinafter called the principal Act, and shall come into force on the thirty-first day of December, 1899, hereinafter referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Short title and commencement.

2. IN this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“District” means a municipality or a road board district, as the case may be;

Interpretation.

“Prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made under this Act;

“Registering

Dog Act—Amendment.

“Registering Officer” means and includes every person appointed under the principal Act to enter the registration of dogs in a municipality, and every person appointed under this Act to enter the registration of dogs within the district of a road board.

3. AFTER the commencement of this Act,—

Dogs outside municipality not to be registered as heretofore.

(1.) Dogs required by the principal Act to be registered at a Court of Petty Sessions, or at the residence of a person appointed under that Act to enter the registration of dogs not intended to be kept within a municipality, shall no longer be so registered ;

Justices to make no more appointments of registering officers.

(2.) The Justices of Courts of Petty Sessions shall not make any appointments under the sixth section of the principal Act ;

Road board to appoint registering officers.

(3.) Every road board shall appoint one or more persons to enter the registration of dogs at a place or places within the district of such board, and shall give public notice of the appointments of such persons and places by publication in the Government Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the district, and by posting such notice in some conspicuous place within the district ;

Dogs outside municipalities to be registered with road board's officers.

(4.) As regards dogs which are required by the principal Act to be registered at a place other than the office of a municipality, the registration fee shall be paid to and the entries of registration shall be made by the persons and at the places appointed under this Act by the road board within the district of which the dog is intended to be kept.

47 Vict., 13, to be read as if road boards' officers were substituted for certain persons appointed under that Act.

4. THE principal Act shall be read as if the registering officers to be appointed by road boards under this Act were substituted for the persons appointed under that Act to enter the registration of dogs in places not within a municipality.

Road board or chairman to exercise authority of J.P. under 47 Vict., No. 13, ss. 12 and 15.

5. THE road board, or the chairman thereof, may exercise the authority conferred on a Justice of the Peace by the twelfth and fifteenth sections of the principal Act.

Registration fees to belong to road boards.

6. THE moneys received by the registering officers appointed by a road board under this Act shall belong to the road board, and such board, out of the moneys so received, may, if it thinks fit, give rewards for the destruction of wild dogs.

Dog Act—Amendment.

7. THE registering officers appointed by the road board under this Act shall make monthly returns of all dogs registered as required by the sixteenth section, but need not otherwise comply with that section.

Duty of road board officers to make certain returns.

8. IT shall be the duty of every registering officer, before the thirtieth day of June in every year, to cause inquiries to be made on all the premises occupied by any person within his district for the purpose of ascertaining if any unregistered dogs are kept thereon, and the registering officer, or some person authorised in writing by him, on proof to the satisfaction of any Justice of the Peace that there is reason to suspect that any unregistered dog is kept on any premises, shall apply to such Justice for, and such Justice shall grant, a warrant authorising the registering officer, or person so authorised by him, to search any part of such premises, other than a dwelling-house, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any unregistered dog is kept thereon, and search shall be made accordingly.

Registering officer to make inquiries in his district for unregistered dogs, with power to get search warrant.

9. SECTION five of the Dog Act Amendment Act, 1885, is repealed, and the following provisions are hereby substituted in lieu thereof:—It shall be lawful for any male adult aboriginal native to keep one dog (which shall be registered free of charge); provided always, that such dog shall be kept free from mange or other contagious disease. Upon representation being made by any person to a Justice of the Peace or a Chairman of a Roads Board that such dog is liable to spread disease by reason of its neglected state, such Justice or Chairman, as the case may be, may order the destruction of such dog.

Amendment of Sec. 5 of 49 Vict., No. 10.

10. SECTION thirteen of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the words "not belonging to an aboriginal native," in the second line of the said section.

Amendment of Sec. 13 of Dog Act, 1883.

11. THE Governor may from time to time make, and from time to time alter and repeal, regulations for carrying this and the principal Act into effect in respect of any matters herein referred to as "prescribed," and such regulations shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after such publication, if Parliament be then sitting, and, if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after its next meeting; and all such regulations, when so published, shall have the force of law, and shall continue in force unless repealed or altered as aforesaid, or disallowed by both Houses of Parliament.

Regulations.

Dog Act—Amendment.

Scalp, ears, and tail of wild dogs to be produced.

12. SECTION nineteen of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting immediately before the word "tail," in the second, third, eighth, and tenth lines thereof, the words "scalp, ears, and;" and by substituting for the words "it is," in the second and third lines thereof, the words "they are," and for the word "has," in the tenth and eleventh lines, the word "have."

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

No. XIII.

AN ACT to amend the Customs Consolidation Act, 1892.

[Assented to, 9th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Customs Consolidation Act Amendment Act, 1899.

Short title.

2. PART XVI. of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1892, is hereby amended by adding thereto the three following sections, bearing the numbers set against them respectively, to wit:—

Amendments to Part XVI. of 55 Vict., No 31.

244a. THE Minister may appoint and declare in what ports or places persons acting as agents in the entry or clearance of ships, or of any goods or baggage, or in any business relating thereto, shall be required to be duly licensed for that purpose, and may from time to time revoke such appointments and declarations, and make others in lieu thereof,

Appointment of ports at which Customs agents may be licensed.

Customs Consolidation Act—Amendment.

thereof, as he may see fit, and every such appointment and declaration shall be published in the Government Gazette, the production of a copy whereof containing such publication shall be evidence of the appointment and declaration.

Minister may grant licenses to agents.

244b. (1.) THE Minister may grant licenses in such form and manner and to such persons as he may think fit to act as agents for transacting business relating to the entry or clearance of any ship, or of any goods, or of any baggage in any of the ports or places in respect of which appointments as aforesaid shall be made, and an annual fee of One pound shall be paid into the Treasury for each license.

And may require bond.

(2.) The Minister, on granting such licenses, shall require a bond to be given by every licensee with one sufficient surety in a sum not exceeding Two hundred and fifty pounds conditioned for the faithful and incorrupt conduct of the licensee and his clerks, both as regards the Customs and his employers.

And may revoke for fraud or misconduct.

(3.) In the case of fraud or misconduct on the part of any licensee, the Minister may, by an order, revoke the license so granted, and a copy of such order, stating the cause of such revocation, shall be served on the licensee; but the licensee shall be entitled to have an inquiry held in manner provided by Sections Twenty-four and Twenty-five of this Act for an investigation and reconsideration of the case, and, if such inquiry is not applied for within twenty-one days after service of the copy of the order, or if such order is confirmed after inquiry, the license shall be void. In the meantime the licensee or his clerks cannot act as agents.

Licensee may appoint a clerk for Customs business.

244c. ANY licensee, or any licensees in co-partnership, may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint clerks or servants to transact the business of agency on his or their behalf, and the name, residence, and date of appointment of any such clerk or servant shall thereupon be indorsed on the license, and shall be signed by the licensee or licensees in the presence of and attested by the collector or sub-collector at the port for which such license is granted, and all such appointments shall be recorded in a register to be kept at the Custom House for that purpose, and no person shall act as any such clerk or servant unless he has been so appointed and his name so indorsed and recorded, or act for or on behalf of any other than the person or persons so appointing him, and the Minister may at any time, by an order, revoke any such appointment.

Customs Consolidation Act—Amendment.

3. ANY person feeling aggrieved by any order or conviction made by any Justice of the Peace under the Customs Consolidation Act, 1892, may appeal against such order or conviction under the provisions of the Police Act, 1892, or the law for the time being regulating appeals against orders or convictions made by Justices in Petty Sessions assembled. Right of appeal.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

No. XV.

AN ACT to prohibit the Payment of Wages in Goods or otherwise than in Money.

[Assented to, 9th October, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Truck Act, 1899, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, One thousand nine hundred.

Short title.

2. IN this Act, unless inconsistent with the context,— “Contract” includes any agreement, understanding, device, contrivance, collusion, or arrangement whatsoever on the subject of wages, whether written or oral, direct or indirect, to which the employer and workman are parties, or are assenting, or by which they are mutually bound to each other, or whereby either of them shall have endeavoured to impose an obligation on the other of them :

Interpretation.

N.Z. Truck Act,
1891, s. 2.

“ Employer ”

Truck Act, 1899.

“Employer” includes any master, manager, foreman, clerk, or other person engaged in the hiring, employment, or superintendence of the service, work, or labour of any workman within the meaning of this Act:

“Money” means coin of the realm current in Western Australia, and includes the notes of any banker or banking corporation carrying on business in Western Australia and legally authorised to issue notes there:

“Wages” include any money or thing had or contracted to be paid, delivered, or given as a recompense, reward, or remuneration for any service, work, or labour done or to be done, whether within a certain time or to a certain amount, or for a time or an amount uncertain:

“Workman” means any person in any manner employed for wages in work of any kind or in manual labour, whether under the age of twenty-one years or above that age.

Wages to be payable in money.

Ibid., s. 3.

Truck Amendment Act, 1887 (Imp.), s. 3.
No deduction for interest.

3. (1.) IN every contract hereafter to be made with any workman, the wages of such workman shall be made payable in money only, and not otherwise, and if by agreement, custom, or otherwise a workman is entitled to receive, in anticipation of the regular period of the payment of his wages, an advance as part or on account thereof, it shall not be lawful for the employer to withhold such advance or make any deduction in respect of such advance on account of poundage, discount, or interest, or any similar charge.

Contracts to be void if in contravention of this section.

(2.) If in any such contract the whole or any part of such wages shall be made payable in any manner other than in money, or shall provide for any deduction or charge as aforesaid in respect of any advance of the whole or a part of the wages of such workman, such contract shall be and is hereby declared illegal and void so far as any promise or consideration made or given by or arising out of the same relates to the payment of such wages otherwise than in money, or as to making any such deduction or charge as aforesaid; and such promise or consideration shall be deemed to be severable from the other part of the contract, which shall otherwise be and remain in force.

No contract to stipulate as to mode of spending wages.
Ibid., s. 4.

4. IF an employer shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or his agent, impose as a condition, express or implied, in or for the employment of any workman, any terms as to the place, or the manner in which, or the person with whom any wages or portion of wages paid to the workman are or is to be expended, such condition shall be illegal and void.

Truck Act, 1899.

5. THE entire amount of the wages earned by or payable to any workman shall be actually paid to such workman in money, and not otherwise, except as hereinafter mentioned; and every payment made to any such workman by his employer of or in respect of any such wages by the delivering to him of goods, or otherwise than in money, except as hereinafter mentioned, shall be and is hereby declared illegal and void; and every workman shall be entitled to recover from his employer, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, the whole or so much of the wages earned by such workman as shall not have been actually paid to him by his employer in money.

All wages to be paid in money.

Ibid., s. 5.

See Truck Act, 1831 (Imp.), s. 4.

6. IN any action to be hereafter brought or commenced by any workman against his employer for the recovery of any sum of money due to such workman as his wages,—

No set-off to be allowed for goods supplied to workman by employer.

Ibid., s. 6.

See Truck Act, 1831 (Imp.), s. 5.

(1.) The defendant shall not be allowed to make any set-off or counter-claim, nor to claim any reduction of the plaintiff's demand, by reason or in respect of any goods had or received by the plaintiff as or on account of his wages, or by reason or in respect of any goods sold, delivered, or supplied at any shop, store, house, or premises kept by or belonging to such employer, or in the profits of which such employer shall have any share or interest.

(2.) Nor shall the defendant be entitled to any set-off or counter-claim in respect of any goods supplied to the plaintiff by the defendant or by any person under any order or direction of the defendant or his agent.

7. NO employer, or his partner or agent, shall have or maintain any action in any Court against any workman in respect of any goods sold, delivered, or supplied to any such workman while in such employment as or on account of his wages, and no person shall have or maintain any action against such workman in respect of any goods sold, delivered, or supplied to the workman under any order or direction of such employer, his partner or agent.

No action by employer, etc., for price of goods delivered, or on account of wages, nor by any one supplying under employer's order.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any exceptions expressly provided for by this Act.

8. NO deduction shall be made from a workman's wages for sharpening or repairing tools, except by agreement, not forming part of the condition of hiring; and any deduction contrary to this section shall be illegal and void.

No deduction from wages for sharpening or repairing tools, etc. See Ibid., s. 8, altered. See Truck Act, 1837 (Imp.), s. 8.

9. NOTHING herein shall be construed to prevent or render invalid any contract for the payment, to any workman of the whole or any part of his wages in a cheque, draft, or order in writing for the Payment of wages may be made by cheque.

Truck Act, 1899.

Ibid., s. 9, altered in form.

See Truck Act, 1831 (Imp.), s. 8.

the payment of money to the bearer on demand, drawn upon any person, company, or association carrying on the business of a banker in Western Australia, either generally or with any particular persons or class of persons only, or any payment so made, if such workman shall freely consent to receive such cheque, draft, or order: Provided that no such cheque shall be crossed by the party giving the same in payment:

Remedies of workman.

Provided, further, that if wages shall be paid to any workman by a cheque, draft, or order in writing as aforesaid, and the same shall be dishonoured, such workman shall be entitled to recover from his employer such reasonable damages as he may have sustained in consequence of the dishonour of such cheque, draft, or order in writing, and such damages shall be recoverable in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and in addition to any wages due or payable to such workman.

Service of legal process.

Ibid., s. 10.

See Truck Act, 1831 (Imp.), s. 14.

10. SERVICE of any summons for an offence against this Act or any legal process for or incidental to the recovery of wages or damages for non-payment thereof, or on any cheque, draft, or order given in respect of such wages, may be effected on the employer by leaving such process with, or delivering the same to, the manager or overseer for the time being of the works at or in respect of which such wages shall have been earned. This section shall not affect any other mode of service allowed by law.

Penalties for breaches of Act.

Ibid., s. 11.

See Truck Amendment Act, 1887 (Imp.), part s. 11.

11. IF the employer of any workman shall, by himself or the agency of any other person or persons, directly or indirectly enter into any contract or make any payment or deduction hereby declared to be illegal and void wholly or in part, or if the employer or his agent contravenes or fails to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of this Act, such employer or agent, as the case may be, shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and be liable to the following penalties:—

For the first offence, a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds ;

For the second offence, a penalty not exceeding Twenty-five pounds ;

And for a third or any subsequent offence, a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds.

Penalty on agent of employer.

Ibid., s. 12.

12. (1.) WHERE an offence for which an employer is by virtue of this Act liable to a penalty has, in fact, been committed by some agent of the employer or other person, such agent or other person shall be liable to the same penalty as if he were the employer.

Truck Act, 1899.

(2.) Where an employer is charged with an offence against this Act, he shall be entitled, upon information duly laid by him, to have any other person whom he charges as the actual offender brought before the Court at the time appointed for hearing the charge, and if, after the commission of the offence has been proved, the employer proves to the satisfaction of the Court that he has used due diligence to enforce the execution of this Act, and that the said other person had committed the offence in question without his knowledge, consent, or connivance, the said other person shall be convicted of such offence, and the employer shall be exempt from liability.

If person other than employer guilty of offence, power of employer to exempt himself from penalty on conviction of actual offender.

Ibid., part s. 12.

13. ALL penalties under this Act may be recovered in a summary way before a Court of summary jurisdiction.

Penalties to be recovered summarily.

Ibid., s. 13.

14. (1.) NO person shall be punished as for a second offence under this Act of a like nature with the first offence under this Act unless ten days at the least shall have intervened between the conviction of such person for the first and the commission by such person of the second offence; but each separate offence committed by any such person before the expiration of the said term of ten days shall be punishable by a separate penalty as though the same were a first offence:

Provisions as to second and third offences.

Ibid., s. 14.

Truck Act, 1831 (Imp.), part s. 10.

(2.) And no person shall be punished as for a third offence under this Act of a like nature with the second offence under this Act unless ten days at the least shall have intervened between the conviction of such person for the second and the commission by such person of the third offence; but each separate offence committed by any such person before the expiration of the said term of ten days shall be punishable by a separate penalty as though the same were a second offence.

(3.) For every offence under this Act subsequent to a third conviction the offender shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds.

15. (1.) IF the person or persons preferring any information under this Act shall not be able, or shall not see fit, to produce evidence of any previous conviction or convictions, any such offender shall be punished for each separate offence by him committed against the provisions of this Act by an equal number of distinct and separate penalties as though each of such offences were a first or second offence, as the case may be:

If no evidence of a previous conviction, offence deemed to be separate.

Ibid., s. 15.

Ibid., part s. 10.

Truck Act, 1899.

Limit of time for prosecution.

(2.) And no person shall be proceeded against or punished as for a second or as for a third or subsequent offence at the distance of more than six months from the commission of the next-preceding offence.

Evidence of a previous conviction.

See Ibid., s. 16.

14 & 15 Vict., c. 9
(Imp.), s. 13.

16. IN order to prove the conviction or acquittal, whether summary or on indictment, of any person for an offence against this Act, it shall not be necessary to produce the record or proceedings or a copy thereof, but it shall be sufficient if a certificate signed by the proper officer having the custody of the record of such previous conviction or acquittal, or of the proceedings of the Court in which such conviction or acquittal was obtained, shall be produced to any Court or in any case where it may be necessary to prove such previous conviction or acquittal, in which certificate shall be stated in a compendious form the general nature of the offence for which such previous conviction or acquittal was had, and the date thereof; and it shall not in any case be necessary to prove the signature or official status of the officer signing or giving such certificate, or that a conviction certified therein was not quashed, or reversed on appeal, or otherwise howsoever.

Partner not to be liable in certain cases.

Ibid., s. 17.

Truck Act, 1831
(Imp.), part s. 13.

17. NO person shall be liable to be convicted of any offence against this Act committed by his co-partner in business, and without his knowledge, privity, or consent; but it shall be lawful, when any penalty or sum for wages, or any other sum, is ordered to be paid under the authority of this Act, and the person or persons ordered to pay the same shall neglect or refuse to do so, to levy the same by distress and sale of any goods or chattels belonging to any co-partnership concern or business in the carrying-on of which such wages may have become due or such offence may have been committed.

Judgment and execution against partners.

Ibid., s. 18.

Ibid., part s. 13.

18. IN all proceedings to recover any sum due for wages, it shall be lawful in all cases of co-partnership for the Court, at the hearing of any action for the non-payment thereof, to give judgment against any one or more co-partners for the payment of the sum appearing to be due, and in such case the service of a copy of the summons or other process upon one or more of such co-partners shall be deemed to be service upon all; and any execution or other process may be had and enforced upon any such judgment in accordance with the ordinary law and practice of such Court.

Act not to apply in certain cases.

Ibid., s. 19.

Ibid., part s. 13.

19. THIS Act shall not extend or apply in the following cases:—

(1.) Where a workman engages to work for an employer, and the employer, or his agent, at the written request of the workman, workman, supplies him during the first six weeks of his service, and not beyond that time, with necessaries, to be paid for by deduction from the wages earned by him during that time.

Truck Act, 1899.

- (2.) Where an employer or his agent, supplies or contracts to supply to any workman any medicine or medical attendance, or any fuel, materials, tools, appliances, or implements to be by such workman employed in his trade, labour, or occupation ;
- (3.) Where an employer, or his agent, supplies or contracts to supply to any workman or workmen who have engaged with him to fell bush or timber, or to clear land of bush or timber, with the necessary outfit and means of support, and materials or tools requisite for commencing their engagement, to any amount not exceeding in any case the amount of two months' wages to be earned by such workman or workmen in such engagement ;
- (4.) Where such employer, or his agent, supplies or contracts to supply to any workman any hay, corn, or other provender to be consumed by any horse or other beast of burden employed by any such workman in his trade, labour, or occupation ;
- (5.) Where such employer, or his agent, demises to any workman the whole or any part of any tenement at any rent to be therein reserved, or allows such workman the use of a tenement as part of his wages or in addition to his wages, or any other allowance or privilege in addition to money wages as a remuneration for his services ;
- (6.) Where such employer supplies or contracts to supply to any such workman any victuals dressed or prepared under the roof of such employer, or any drink, not being of an intoxicating nature, and there consumed by such workman ;
- (7.) Nor to prevent such employer from making or contracting to make any deduction or stoppage from the wages of any such workman for or in respect of any such rent, medicine, medical attendance, fuel, materials, tools, implements, hay, corn, provender, victuals, or drink as aforesaid ;
- (8.) Nor shall prevent any employer from advancing to any workman any money to enable the workman to take up his engagement or to be by him contributed to any friendly society, life assurance company or association, savings bank, or other society or association whatever, or from advancing any money for the relief of such workman workman or his wife or family in sickness, or from advancing any money to any member of the workman's family by his order, nor from deducting or contracting to deduct any such sum or sums of money as aforesaid from the wages of such workman ;

- (9.) To seamen or to persons employed in agricultural, fruit-growing, or pastoral pursuits, or engaged on sheep or cattle stations :

Provided that no deduction or stoppage shall exceed the ordinary real and true value of any necessities, fuel, tools, implements, hay, corn, provender, victuals, drink, or materials at the place where they are supplied.

Certain Justices disqualified.

No. XVII.

AN ACT to apply out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds to the Service of the Year ending 30th June, 1900.

[Assented to, 31st October, 1899.]

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,—

WE, Your Majesty's Most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Members of the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in Parliament assembled, towards making good the Supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this Session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum hereinafter mentioned: and do, therefore, most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preamble.

Consolidated Revenue—Application.

Issue and application of £250,000.

1. THERE shall and may be issued and applied for or towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the Service of the year from 1st July, 1899, to 30th June, 1900, the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund; and the Treasurer of Western Australia, is hereby authorised and empowered to issue and apply the moneys authorised to be issued and applied.

Sum available for purposes voted by the Legislative Assembly.

2. THE said sum shall be available to satisfy the Warrants under the hand of the Governor, under the provisions of the law now in force in respect of any Services voted by the Legislative Assembly in this present Session of Parliament.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

Western Australia.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XVIII.

AN ACT to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and from Moneys to Credit of the General Loan Fund to the Services of the Year ending the last day of June, One thousand nine hundred, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,—

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this Session of Parliament have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sums hereinafter mentioned, and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; And be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia,

Preamble.

Appropriation—1899–1900.

Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows (that is to say):—

Application of moneys.

1. THERE shall and may be issued and applied, for or towards making good the Supply granted to Her Majesty for the services of the year ending the last day of June, One thousand nine hundred, the following sums, that is to say:

From the Consolidated Revenue Fund, the sum of One million four hundred and thirty thousand one hundred and eighty pounds eight shillings and ninepence.

From moneys to credit of the General Loan Fund, the sum of One million and five thousand five hundred and eighty-eight pounds fourteen shillings and threepence.

Appropriation of
Schedule A.

2. ALL sums granted by this Act, and the Acts mentioned in Schedule A to this Act, towards making good the Supply granted to Her Majesty, that is to say:

From the Consolidated Revenue Fund, the sum of Two million one hundred and eighty thousand one hundred and eighty pounds eight shillings and ninepence;

From moneys to credit of the General Loan Fund, the sum of One million three hundred and fifty-five thousand five hundred and eighty-eight pounds fourteen shillings and threepence;

Schedules B and C.

are appropriated and shall be deemed to have been appropriated for the purposes and services expressed in Schedules B and C.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XIX.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Constitution Act, 1889, and to amend and consolidate the Acts amending the same.

[Reserved, 16th December, 1899.]

WHEREAS by the Constitution Act, 1889, it is provided that the Legislature of Western Australia shall have full power and authority from time to time to repeal or alter any of the provisions of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act and to amend and consolidate the Acts amending the same: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.

Short title.

2. THE enactments mentioned in the First Schedule hereto are thereby repealed to the extent therein stated.

Repeal.

*Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.Interpretation.

52 Vict., 23, s. 75.

3. FOR the purposes of this Act—

“Her Majesty” means, when not repugnant to the context, Her Majesty, her heirs and successors.

“Governor” means the person for the time being lawfully administering the Government of Western Australia, or the lawfully appointed Deputy of such person.

“Governor in Council” means the Governor acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

“Minister” means the Minister charged with the execution of this Act.

“Treasurer” means the Treasurer of the Colony for the time being.

“Person,” in sections fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, twenty-six, twenty-seven, and twenty-eight, means an individual of either sex.

Division of Act into parts.

52 Vict., 23, s. 1.

4. THIS Act is divided into three Parts, namely:—

PART I.—LEGISLATURE.

PART II.—EXECUTIVE.

PART III.—MISCELLANEOUS.

PART I.—LEGISLATURE.

*Legislative Council.Legislative Council to consist of 30 members.

60 Vict., 18, s. 3.

5. THE Legislative Council shall consist of thirty elected members, who shall be returned and shall sit for Electoral Provinces as hereinafter stated and defined.

Colony divided into 10 Electoral Provinces, each returning three members.

60 Vict., 18, s. 4.

6. THE Colony shall be divided into ten Electoral Provinces, and shall return in all thirty members to serve in the Legislative Council, that is to say:—

The Central Province, comprising Cue, Geraldton, Greenough, Irwin, Mt. Magnet, Murchison, and North Murchison Electoral Districts.

The East Province, comprising Beverley, Moore, Northam, Swan, Toodyay, and York Electoral Districts.

The Metropolitan Province, comprising Perth, East Perth, North Perth, and West Perth Electoral Districts.

The Metropolitan Suburban Province, comprising Claremont, Guildford, South Perth, and Subiaco Electoral Districts.

The

Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.

The North Province, comprising Gascoyne, East Kimberley, West Kimberley, Pilbara, and Roebourne Electoral Districts.

The North-East Province, comprising Boulder, Hannan, Kalgoorlie, Kanowna, Mount Margaret, and Menzie Electoral Districts.

The South Province, comprising Mount Burges, Coolgardie, Dundas, and Yilgarn Electoral Districts.

The South-East Province, comprising Albany, Plantagenet, and Williams Electoral Districts.

The South-West Province, comprising Bunbury, Murray, Nelson, South-West Mining, Sussex, and Wellington Electoral Districts.

The West Province, comprising Cockburn Sound, Fremantle, East Fremantle, North Fremantle, and South Fremantle Electoral Districts.

Each Electoral Province shall return three members.

7. SUBJECT as hereinafter provided, any man who has resided in Western Australia for two years shall be qualified to be elected a member of the Legislative Council, if he be of the full age of thirty years, and not subject to any legal incapacity, and is a natural born subject of Her Majesty the Queen, or if not a natural born subject of the Queen, shall have been naturalised for five years previously to such election, and have resided in Western Australia during that period.

Qualification of members of Legislative Council.

57 Vict., 14, s. 6.

8. (1.) THE senior member of the Legislative Council for each Province, at the passing of this Act, shall vacate his seat on the 21st day of May, 1900, and the member who in turn becomes the senior member shall retire two years after the day when the previous senior member was hereby required to retire, and so on with every member who subsequently in turn becomes senior member. In the case of the first members for the South Province and the Metropolitan Suburban Province, the member who polls the lowest number of votes shall vacate his seat on the twenty-first day of May, 1902, and the member who polls the next lowest number of votes shall vacate his seat on the twenty-first day of May, 1904, and the third member shall vacate his seat on the twenty-first day of May, 1906.

Members to retire periodically.

57 Vict., 14, s. 8.

See 60 Vict., 18, s. 5.

(2.) Every writ for the election of a member of the Legislative Council to fill any seat hereafter vacated under this section shall be issued before the tenth day of April immediately prior to the occurrence of such vacancy, and every such writ shall be returnable not later than the twenty-first day of May following. The member member elected to fill any such vacancy shall not sit or vote until after the said twenty-first day of May, at the close of which day the retiring member shall vacate the seat.

Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.

Seniority, how determined.
57 Vict., 14, s. 8.

(3.) For the purposes of this section the seniority of a member of the Legislative Council for any Province shall be determined by the date of his election, and, in the event of two or more persons being elected for a Province upon the same day, the member who polled the smallest number of votes shall be the member to retire; and, in the event of an equality of votes, or of an unopposed return, the order of retiring shall be according to the alphabetical precedence of their surnames, and, if necessary, of their other names.

60 Vict., 18, pt. s. 5.

(4.) Whenever the seat of the senior member for the time being for any province or in the case of the first member for a new province the seat of a retiring member shall be vacated, otherwise than by effluxion of time, during the period between the twenty-first day of January and twenty-first day of May (both inclusive), in the year in which the same seat would have been vacated under this section, such seat shall be deemed to have been vacated by effluxion of time, and the member elected to fill such vacancy shall be entitled to sit and vote on and after the return of the writ.

Resignation of members.
57 Vict., 14, s. 9, and see 60 Vict., 18, s. 7.

9. ANY member of the Legislative Council may resign his seat therein, by writing under his hand addressed to the President, or if there be no President, or if the President is absent from the Colony, to the Governor, and upon the receipt of such resignation by the President or the Governor, as the case may be, the seat of such member shall become vacant.

Tenure of seat by member filling vacancy.
57 Vict., 14, s. 11.

10. SUBJECT to section eight of this Act the member elected to fill any vacancy arising otherwise than by effluxion of time shall hold the seat during the unexpired portion of the term for which the previous member would have been entitled to hold it, and no longer.

Election of President.

11. WHENEVER the office of President of the Legislative Council becomes vacant, the Council at their first meeting thereafter shall elect one of their members to be President, and the President so elected shall preside at all meetings of the Council.

Absence of President provided for.

12. IN case of the absence of the President upon leave of absence granted to him by the Legislative Council, or by reason of illness or other unavoidable cause, the Council shall thereupon elect some other member to fill the office and perform the duties of the President during such absence.

Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.

13. THE member of the Legislative Council holding office as the President thereof who shall vacate his seat by periodical retirement when the Council is not in session, shall continue in office and be deemed to be the President of the said Council until the next meeting of Parliament, unless he shall not be re-elected a member of the said Council; but nothing in this section shall enable a President hereby continued in office to preside at any meeting of the said Council.

President of Council to hold office in certain cases until meeting of Parliament.

57 Vict., 17, s. 1.

14. THE presence of at least one-third of the members of the Legislative Council, exclusive of the President, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the despatch of business; and all questions which shall arise in the Legislative Council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present, other than the President, and when the votes are equal the President shall have the casting vote: Provided always, that if the whole number of members constituting the Legislative Council shall not be exactly divisible by three, the quorum of the Legislative Council shall consist of such whole number as is next greater than one-third of the members of the Legislative Council.

Quorum—division, casting vote.

57 Vict., 14, s. 7.

15. EVERY person of the age of twenty-one years, being a natural born or naturalised subject of Her Majesty and not subject to any legal incapacity, who shall have resided in Western Australia for six months, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, if qualified as in this section is provided, be entitled to be registered as an elector and when registered for six months to vote for each of any number of candidates not exceeding the number of members to be elected to serve in the Legislative Council for the Electoral Province in respect of which such person is so qualified, that is to say, if such person—

- (6.) The Electoral List of any Road Board District in respect of property within the Province of the annual ratable value of not less than Twenty-five pounds.

Provided that the names of all persons who have been struck off any Municipal or Road Board Electoral List on the ground merely of non-payment of rates, shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be on such lists respectively.

Provided also that—

- (a.) No aboriginal native of Australia, Asia, or Africa, or person of the half-blood, shall be entitled to be registered, except in respect of a freehold qualification;
- (b.) No elector possessing more than one qualification within a Province shall be thereby entitled to be registered more than once for that Province; and
- (c.) A person claiming to be registered as a naturalised subject of Her Majesty must have been so naturalised for the period of twelve months before making the claim.

When joint owners and occupiers shall be entitled to be registered.

See 52 Vict., 23, s. 40.

16. WHERE any premises are jointly owned, occupied, or held on lease or license within the meaning of the last preceding section, by more persons than one, each of such joint owners, occupiers, leaseholders, or licensees, not exceeding four, shall be entitled to be registered as an elector, and subject as aforesaid to vote in respect of the said premises in case the value of the individual interest therein of any such person separately considered, would, under the provisions of the last preceding section, entitle such person to be registered as an elector.

Disqualifications.

57 Vict., 14, s. 22.

17. EVERY person nevertheless shall be disqualified from being registered as an elector who

- (1.) Is of unsound mind or in the receipt of relief from Government or from any charitable institution; or
- (2.) Has been attainted or convicted of treason, felony, or any infamous offence in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, and has not served the sentence for the same or has not received a free pardon for such offence.

Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly to consist of 50 members.

18. THE Legislative Assembly shall consist of fifty members, who shall be elected for the several Electoral Districts hereinafter named and defined.

General.

General.

Issue of writs.

29. EXCEPT as provided in the next following section, all writs for elections shall be issued by the Governor.

Issue of writs in cases of vacancy.

57 Vict., 14, s. 20.

60 Vict. 18, s. 12.

30. (1.) WHENEVER a vacancy (otherwise than by the effluxion of time, in the case of a member of the Council) occurs in either House from any cause, the President or Speaker, as the case may be, upon a resolution by the House declaring such vacancy and the cause thereof, shall cause a writ to be issued for supplying the vacancy; and in case of a vacancy caused by death or resignation, or the acceptance of any of the principal Executive offices of the Government liable to be vacated on political grounds, the President or Speaker may issue such writ without such preceding resolution when Parliament is not in session, or when such vacancy occurs during any adjournment for a longer period than seven days, of the House affected by the vacancy.

(2.) If at the occurrence of any such vacancy caused by death, resignation, or acceptance of office, there is no President or Speaker of the House affected, and Parliament is not in session, or if the President or Speaker of the House affected is absent from the Colony, the Governor shall, if satisfied of the existence of such vacancy, issue a writ for the election of a member to serve in the seat so vacated.

(3.) Every such writ shall be issued by the President, Speaker, or Governor, as the case may require, as soon as, in the case of death, he shall receive notice by a certificate under the hands of two members of the House to which the deceased member belonged, of the death of such member, and in the case of acceptance of office as aforesaid, as soon as the appointment of such member has been published in the Government Gazette, and notified by the Minister to the President, Speaker, or Governor, as the case may be, and such appointment and notification, it shall be the duty of the Minister to publish and give forthwith. The certificate aforesaid may be in the form of the Third Schedule.

(4.) Provided that any such writ may be issued notwithstanding no such notice has been received or appointment published as aforesaid, if the President, Speaker, or Governor empowered to issue the same is satisfied of the existence of the vacancy.

(5.) Whenever a vacancy occurs by reason of any of the disqualifications mentioned in section thirty-one, paragraph (5) and section thirty-eight, paragraph (2), it shall be the duty of the Registrar in Bankruptcy forthwith to give notice thereof in writing to the President or the Speaker, as the case may be, if within the Colony, and otherwise to the Governor, and on receipt of

of such notice the President or Speaker, as the case may be, if within the Colony, or otherwise the Governor, shall forthwith issue a writ for the election of a member to fill the vacancy.

31. NO person shall be qualified to be a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, if he—Disqualification for membership of either House.

See 52 Vict., 23, s. 23.

- (1.) Be a member of the other House of the Legislature ; or,
- (2.) Be a Judge of the Supreme Court ; or
- (3.) Be the Sheriff of Western Australia ; or
- (4.) Be a clergyman or minister of religion ; or
- (5.) Be an undischarged bankrupt, or a debtor against whose estate there is a subsisting receiving order in bankruptcy ; or
- (6.) Has been in any part of Her Majesty's dominions attainted or convicted of treason or felony.

32. ANY person who shall directly or indirectly, himself, or by any person whomsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account, undertake, execute, hold, or enjoy in the whole or in part any contract, agreement, or commission made or entered into with, under, or from any person whomsoever, for or on account of the Government of the Colony ;

Persons holding contracts for the public service shall be incapable of being elected or sitting.

52 Vict., 23, s. 24.

Or shall knowingly furnish or provide in pursuance of any such contract, agreement, or commission any money to be remitted abroad, or any goods whatsoever to be used or employed in the service of the public ;

And any member of any company, and any person holding any office or position in any company formed for the construction of any railway or other public work, the payment for which, or the interest on the cost of which has been promised or guaranteed by the Government of the Colony ;

shall be disqualified from being a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly during the time he shall execute, hold, or enjoy any such contract, agreement, or commission, or office or position, or any part or share thereof, or any benefit or emolument arising from the same.

33. IF any person not qualified to be a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly shall, nevertheless, be elected and returned as a Member to serve in the said Council or Assembly, such election and return shall be void.

If member not qualified election to be void.

Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.

Any member accepting a contract, or continuing to hold any contract after the commencement of the next session, his seat shall be void.

52 Vict., 23, s. 25.

34. IF any person, being a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, shall directly or indirectly, himself, or by any person whomsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account, enter into, accept, or agree for, undertake or execute, in the whole or in part, any such contract, agreement, or commission as aforesaid, or if any person being a member of the said Council or Assembly, and having already entered into any such contract, agreement, or commission, or any part or share of any such contract, agreement, or commission, by himself, or by any other person whomsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or upon his account, shall, after the commencement of the next Session of the Legislature, continue to hold, execute, or enjoy the same, or any part thereof, the seat of every such member shall be void: Provided that nothing in this or the last preceding section shall extend to persons contributing towards any loan for public purposes heretofore or hereafter raised by the Colony, or to the holders of any bonds issued for the purpose of any such loan.

Not to extend to incorporated trading companies.

52 Vict., 23, s. 26.

35. THE foregoing provisions shall not extend to any contract, agreement, or commission made, entered into, or accepted by any incorporated company where such company consists of more than twenty persons, and where such contract, agreement, or commission is made, entered into, or accepted for the general benefit of such company, nor to any contract or agreement in respect of any lease, license, or agreement in respect to the sale or occupation of Crown lands.

Not to extend to contracts by descent.

52 Vict., 23, s. 27.

36. THE foregoing provisions shall not extend to any person on whom, after the commencement of this Act, the completion of any contract, agreement, or commission shall devolve by descent, or limitation, or by marriage, or as devisee, or legatee, until twelve months after he shall have been in possession of the same, or to any executor or administrator until three years after he shall have been in possession of the same.

Office holder taking the oath as member thereby to vacate his office.

52 Vict., 23, s. 28.

37. IF any person while holding an office of profit under the Crown, other than that of an officer of Her Majesty's sea or land forces on full, half, or retired pay, be elected a member of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly, he shall, if he takes the oath or makes the affirmation hereinbefore prescribed, be held by so doing to vacate his said office.

Chief executive offices excepted.
See 60 Vict., 18, s. 13.

Provided that this section shall not apply to the six principal executive offices of the Government liable, in accordance with this Act, to be vacated on political grounds.

Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899.

38. IF any member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, after his election—

Seats in Parliament vacated in certain cases.

52 Vict., 23, s. 29.

- (1.) Ceases to be qualified or becomes disqualified as aforesaid; or
- (2.) Takes the benefit, whether by assignment, composition, or otherwise, of any law relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors; or which is not registered, or to substitute the same for the qualification which is registered, and it shall be the duty of the Registrar to effect the addition or substitution in accordance therewith.

Every such application shall be signed by the applicant and attested by an adult witness.

Such application shall not be made during the period beginning with the day of the issue of the writ for an election in the Province or District, and ending on the polling day, both inclusive.

(Schedule IX.)

Alteration of boundaries.

42. THE Electoral Registrars shall alter the rolls as may be necessary on any change of electoral boundaries, the dates of the original registration being preserved.

Alteration of rolls.

43. THE Electoral Registrars may alter rolls as follows:—

- (1.) By correcting any mistake in spelling, or in the description of qualification, or in the date of registration :
- (2.) By changing, on the written application of the elector—
 - (a.) The residence to another within the same district :
 - (b.) The original name to any altered name :
- (3.) By striking out the names of dead persons :
- (4.) By removing the name, on the written request of the elector, or on receipt of notice of transfer to any other roll :
- (5.) By reinstating, under date of the original registration, any name struck out by mistake as the name of a dead person, and whether struck out by a Court of Revision or otherwise.

Time for altering rolls.

44. NO alteration of any roll shall be made on any polling day for which such roll is in use, nor during the four days preceding such polling day.

Alterations to be initialled.

45. ALL alterations shall be made in such a manner that the original entry shall not be obliterated ; and the reason for the alteration and the date thereof shall be set against the alteration, together with the initials of the officer making the same.

Lists of deaths to be furnished.

46. EVERY Registrar or District Registrar of births, deaths, and marriages, shall, in the months of March, June, September, and December, in every year, forward to the Electoral Registrars of every Electoral Province or District any part whereof is comprised within the registry District of such Registrar or District Registrar of births, deaths, and marriages a correct list of the names, addresses, and and occupations of all persons of the age of twenty-one years and upwards whose deaths have been registered by him during the three months then last past, and the rolls shall be altered accordingly.

2. Revision Courts.

47. REVISION Courts shall be held in each District on the third Tuesday in the month of May in every year, at such places as may be fixed by Proclamation, for the purpose of revising the Provincial and District rolls.

Revision Courts.

48. EACH Revision Court shall consist of—Constitution of Court.

(a.) A Resident Magistrate; or

(b.) Any two or more Justices of the Peace resident in the Electoral District; or (c.) All or any two or more of the above-mentioned.

49. A RESIDENT Magistrate, if present, shall be the Chairman of the Court. If a Resident Magistrate is not present, the Justices present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman.

Chairman.

50. WHERE the members of the Revision Court differ in opinion, the decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Court, and in estimating the majority the chairman shall have a vote, and, when the numbers are equal, a casting vote.

Decision of majority.

51. NO candidate for election, or member of the Council or Assembly, shall be a member of the Court.

No candidate for election or member shall be a member of Court.

52. THE Clerk of the nearest Local Court, or a deputy appointed by the Minister, shall be the Clerk of the Revision Court.

Clerk.

53. THE Court may adjourn from time to time, and an adjourned Court, if held at any time within one month from the time appointed for the holding thereof, shall be deemed to be duly held.

Adjournment.

54. IF within two hours after the time appointed for the holding of the Court, or after the time to which the Court is adjourned, the Court shall not be duly constituted, any one Justice, or, if there shall be no Justice present, the Clerk of the Court may, from time to time, adjourn the Court to a future day.

Adjournment when Court not duly constituted.

The Clerk of the Court shall forthwith, after every adjournment, give public notice thereof by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district, or in some other effective way.

Electoral Act, 1899.

- 55. ANY name on a roll may be objected to by notice of objection lodged with the Electoral Registrar.
(Schedule X.)
- 56. THE notice of objection shall be signed by an elector registered on the same roll, or by the Returning Officer or a Registrar for the same District.
- 57. ON receipt of the notice of objection, the Registrar shall summon the person objected to, to appear to answer the objection at the Revision Court to be held next after fourteen days from the service of the summons.
(Schedule XI.)
- 58. IT shall also be the duty of the Registrar to summon any person whose name he shall have reason to believe ought not to be retained on the roll.
(Schedule XI.)
- 59. THE Registrar shall, at least fourteen days before the sitting of the Court, exhibit in his office within the district a list of all objections to be dealt with by the Court at its next sitting.
(Schedule XII.)
- 60. AT the sitting of each Revision Court, the rolls, and all claims and objections received since its last annual sitting, and in respect of which it has jurisdiction, shall be produced.
- 61. EACH Revision Court shall, in open Court, finally revise the rolls, by hearing and determining all objections, and by striking out the names of persons proved to be dead, and dealing with any claims which have not been registered.
- 62. EXCEPT as to the names of dead persons, the names of all persons not objected to shall be retained on the rolls, unless the registered qualification is insufficient.
- 63. THE Court shall also, except as aforesaid, retain on the rolls all names—
(a.) Against which no objection has been duly lodged; or (b.) Against which, objection having been duly lodged, the objector shall not have appeared in person, or, having appeared in person, shall not have established his objection.

Electoral Act, 1899.

64. NO proof of service of the summons shall be required where the person objected to appears.

Proof of service.

65. ANY person authorised in writing may appear to resist an objection on behalf of the person objected to.

Resistance of objection.

66. IF a qualification appears to be insufficient or an objection is established, the Court, in either case, if satisfied that the person objected to has another sufficient qualification, shall retain the name on the roll, correcting only the entry by inserting the other sufficient qualification; but if no other sufficient qualification is proved, the name shall be struck out.

Substitution of qualification.

67. IF the Court finds that the name of any person is entered more than once as an elector for the same Province or District, and that the entries relate to the same person, the Court shall retain one entry only.

Duplicate entries.

68. THE Court may exercise all powers of alteration in correcting mistakes and supplying omissions which are exercisable by any person.

Alterations.

69. IF the Court is satisfied that there has been a failure to register any person pursuant to a claim duly made, and that, at the time the claim was made, there was a qualification sufficient, the Court shall register the claimant, stating as the date of registration the date when the claim should have been registered.

Registration of claimant.

If the Court is satisfied that any transfer, or change, substitution, or addition of qualification, which ought to have been registered has not been duly registered, or, by reason of any neglect or omission by the Electoral Registrar, the Register needs amendment, the Court shall amend the same accordingly.

70. IF an objection is not established, the Court may award the person objected to a reasonable sum, to be paid by the objector, for costs and expenses in resisting the application, but no costs shall be awarded against an officer if the Court is satisfied that, in objecting, the officer acted in good faith and on reasonable grounds.

Costs.

71. IF an objection is found to be frivolous, the person objected to shall be entitled to a reasonable allowance for his costs and expenses in resisting such application, and the Court shall award a sufficient sum for the purpose, to be paid by the objector.

Frivolous objection.

72. EXECUTION, as on a judgment of a Local Court, may issue for any sum awarded, pursuant to either of the two preceding sections, Execution.

Electoral Act, 1899.

sections, and the award shall be entered and enforced as a judgment of the Local Court, but no such sum shall exceed Five pounds.

Inspection of books

73. ALL books of any local body may be inspected for the purposes of any proceedings in any Court of Revision, and copies taken of such books, and such copies shall be prima facie evidence of the recorded entries.

PART III.—ELECTIONS.

1. The Writs.

Dates, etc.

74. ALL writs for elections shall fix the dates for—

- (a.) The nomination:
 - (b.) The polling:
 - (c.) And the return of the writ.
- (Schedule XIII.)

Date of nomination.

75. NO date for the nomination shall be less than seven nor more than thirty days after the date of the writ.

Date of polling.

76. NO date for the polling shall be less than two nor more than thirty days after the date of nomination.

Issue and return of writs.

77. ALL writs for any periodical or general election shall be issued and returned within fifty days after the occurrence of the period or dissolution necessitating the election or, as to the return, within such further time as the Governor, by Proclamation, may allow.

Writs, how directed.

78. WRITS shall be directed to the Returning Officer for the Province or District for which an election is to be held.

Duty of Returning Officer on receipt of writ.

79. ON the receipt of a writ the Returning Officer to whom it is directed shall—

- (1.) Indorse thereon the date of its receipt, and, in the case of a Council election, forward a copy of the writ to each Deputy Returning Officer.
- (2.) Advertise its receipt and particulars in a newspaper circulating in the district, or by placards or otherwise.

2. The Nominations.

Nominations.

80. NO one shall be capable of election unless duly nominated. The place of nomination for each Province and District shall be fixed by Proclamation.

81.

*Electoral Act, 1899.81. ALL nominations shall—

Mode of Nomination.

- (a.) Name the candidate and his place of residence, and shall—
- (b.) Be signed by not less than two persons entitled to vote at the election:

And no nomination shall be valid unless—

- (c.) The person nominated consents, by writing or by telegram communicated to the Returning Officer, to act if elected.

Nor unless—

- (d.) The nomination paper complying with the preceding requisites be received by the Returning Officer after the issue of the writ and before the hour for nomination; and
- (e.) Is accompanied by a deposit of Twenty-five pounds to be applied by the Returning Officer as hereinafter provided. Such deposit, if not made in current coin or bank notes, may be made by a deposit receipt from a bank in favour of the Returning Officer, or by a certificate from the Colonial Treasurer that the sum has been deposited with him and such deposit receipt or certificate may be telegraphed to the Returning Officer.

(Schedules XIV. and XV.)

82. TWELVE o'clock noon on the day of nomination shall be the hour for nomination, and the Returning Officer shall then attend at the place of nomination and publicly produce all nomination papers received, and declare the names and residences of all candidates nominated.

Time and place for nomination.

83. THE Returning Officer shall declare the candidates nominated duly elected if no greater number are nominated than are required to be elected; but otherwise the proceedings shall stand adjourned to polling day.

Proceedings on nomination day.

3. Absent Voters.

84. (1.) EVERY elector whose qualification is not residential only, and who resides more than thirty miles from the nearest polling place of the Province or District for which he desires to vote, or who, after the issue of the writ and before the day fixed for any election, is within any other Province or District, may apply to a Resident Magistrate, or some other person appointed by the Governor in that behalf, for leave to vote in absence.

Method of voting in absence.

W.A. Electoral Act, 1896, s. 75.

(2.) The Resident Magistrate, or appointee as aforesaid, shall then write on each of two counterfoils numbered alike the name of the

Electoral Act, 1899.

the Province or District for which the applicant desires to vote, and, in the latter case, the division for which he is registered to vote, together with the names in full and address of the applicant, and shall sign the back of a ballot paper bearing the same number as the counterfoils, and on the face thereof shall write the name of the District or of the Province and the division thereof as on the counterfoils and shall give the ballot paper to the elector.

(3.) The elector shall then write on the ballot paper the names of the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, and shall fold it up and, in the presence of the Resident Magistrate, or appointee as aforesaid, put it into an envelope.

(4.) The Resident Magistrate, or appointee as aforesaid, shall then seal up the envelope, and write "Ballot paper" on both sides thereof, and shall put one of the counterfoils into an envelope, and seal it up and write "Counterfoil" on both sides thereof, and shall then send both envelopes enclosed in another envelope, by post or otherwise, to the Returning Officer.

Duty of Returning Officer with regard to the ballot papers of absent voters.

(5.) The Returning Officer, on receipt of any such envelopes, shall, without opening them, retain them in his possession until the commencement of the poll, and shall, at any convenient time or times, during or immediately after the taking of the poll in the presence of the scrutineers, proceed to open the envelopes containing the counterfoils, and, having made a mark on the copy of the Electoral Roll in use at his polling place against the name of each person who appears by such counterfoils to have voted, shall keep such counterfoils in the same manner as the counterfoils of the ballot papers used by him at such election. Having thus dealt with the counterfoils, the Returning Officer shall proceed to open the envelopes containing the ballot papers received up to the close of the poll, allowing the scrutineers the opportunity (if they desire it) of seeing that the seals of the said envelopes are intact; and as he takes out any ballot paper from its envelope, he shall, without opening the same, deposit it in the ballot box.

(6.) Any person who has applied to a Resident Magistrate, or appointee as aforesaid, for the purpose of voting under this section, and has complied with the provisions of this section, shall not be entitled to vote otherwise at the election, although the said envelopes, or either of them, may not have been sent to the Returning Officer, or although they or either of them have miscarried.

(7.) For all subsequent purposes the Returning Officer shall treat any counterfoils and ballot papers received in accordance with the provisions of this section in the same way in which he is required to treat counterfoils of ballot papers given by himself to voters and ballot papers received by himself from voters. The ballot papers and counterfoils to be used under this section shall be in the form given in the Sixteenth Schedule hereto.

(8.) Any voting paper shall be and shall be held to be in due and proper form so far as the name of a candidate is concerned, provided the name of the candidate for whom the voter desires to vote be indicated as aforesaid, notwithstanding misspelling, or the omission of any name other than the surname, if the intention is clear.

(Schedule XVI.)

4. The Polling.

85. IF the proceedings on the day of nomination stand adjourned to polling day, the Returning Officer shall immediately make all necessary arrangements for taking the poll. Polling.

86. IN particular the Returning Officer shall—

Duty of Returning Officer.

- (1.) Appoint a presiding officer to preside at each polling place at which he does not himself preside.
- (2.) Provide and furnish proper polling booths and ballot boxes.
- (3.) Provide and issue voting papers and lists of voters.

The presiding officer may appoint all necessary poll clerks and doorkeepers.

87. THE lists of voters shall be lists of the electors on the roll who have been registered for six months, or whose names have been transcribed from the rolls and electoral lists existing at the commencement of this Act, or from the electoral list of a municipality or road board as hereinbefore provided; and such lists shall be signed by the Returning Officer and delivered to the presiding officers before the hour for commencing the poll, for their guidance during the polling.

List of voters for guidance of presiding officers.

88. THE Returning Officer shall himself be the presiding officer at the chief polling place.

Presiding Officer.

The chief polling place for each District shall be fixed by Proclamation, and the other polling places shall be fixed by the Returning Officer.

Polling places to be fixed.

89. ANY presiding officer may appoint a substitute to perform his duties during his temporary absence.

Substitute.

90.

Electoral Act, 1899.

No licensed premises to be used.

90. NO part of any premises licensed for the sale of liquor shall be used for the purposes of any polling booth.

Certain buildings to be used free.

91. Separate compartments.

92. POLLING booths shall have separate compartments constructed so as to screen their occupants from outside observation, and furnished with pencils for the use of voters.

Ballot boxes.

93. EACH polling booth shall be provided with a ballot box having both an inner and an outer cover, with a lock and key to each, and with a cleft in the inner cover for receiving the voting papers.

Voting papers.

94. IN printing the voting papers—

- (1.) The names of all candidates duly nominated shall be printed in alphabetical order according to their surnames.
- (2.) If there are two or more candidates of the same surname, their surnames shall be printed according to the alphabetical order of their other names, or if their other names shall also be alike, then according to the alphabetical order of their residences, arranged and stated in the voting paper.

Form of voting paper.

95. EACH voting paper shall be headed with the name of the Province or District and the number of candidates required to be elected.

No voting paper shall contain anything beyond the heading above provided for and the surnames and other names of the candidates, and, in the case provided for by paragraph two of the last preceding section, the residences.

(Schedule XVII.)

Sufficient voting papers to be provided.

96. SUFFICIENT voting papers for the use of the electors at each polling place shall be provided before the commencement of the poll.

Electoral Act, 1899.

97. NO voting paper shall be delivered to any voter without being first initialled on the back thereof by the presiding officer and folded, and an exact account shall be kept of all initialled voting papers.

Voting papers
initialled.

98. SCRUTINEERS may be appointed by candidates to represent them at each polling place during the polling.

Scrutineers.

99. ONE scrutineer only shall be allowed to each candidate at each polling place, except where more than one thousand electors are on the roll, when one extra scrutineer may be allowed.

Number.

100. APPOINTMENTS of scrutineers shall be made by written notice to the Returning Officer, giving the name and address of the scrutineer, or without such notice by permission of the Returning Officer.

Appointment, how made.

101. NO candidate shall in any way take part in the conduct of an election ; and no one, other than the presiding officer, the poll clerks, doorkeepers, and scrutineers, and the electors voting and about to vote, shall be permitted to enter or remain in the polling booth during the polling except by permission of the presiding officer.

Persons present at polling.

102. NO Council elector's vote at any election shall be received except in the division for which he is registered to vote.

Council electors to vote in their divisions.

103. THE polling shall be conducted as follows :—

The polling.

- (1.) Before any vote is taken the presiding officer shall exhibit the ballot box empty, and shall then securely fasten and seal its inner cover so that nothing can be removed without breaking the seal :
- (2.) The poll shall open at nine o'clock in the morning, and shall not close till all electors present in the polling booth at seven o'clock in the evening, and desiring to vote, shall have voted :
- (3.) At the close of the poll at any place other than the central polling place, the presiding officer shall publicly close, fasten, and seal and allow the scrutineers to seal the outer cover, and shall take charge of the ballot box, and with the least possible delay forward it, together with the list of voters issued to him as aforesaid, to the Returning Officer at the central polling place for the purposes of scrutiny ; and it shall on no account be opened except at the scrutiny.

*Electoral Act, 1899.Mode of voting.*104. ALL votes shall be cast as follows:—

- (1.) The voter shall state his surname and other names, and, if so desired by the presiding officer, any other particulars necessary to be stated in the roll for the purpose of identifying the name upon the roll under which the vote is claimed:
- (2.) If the name under which the voter claims to vote is upon the list of voters, a voting paper, duly initialled on the back, shall be delivered to the voter by the presiding officer or poll clerk, who shall thereupon place a mark against the voter's name on the list of voters:
- (3.) Upon receipt of the voting paper, the voter shall, without delay,—
 - (a.) Retire alone to some unoccupied compartment of the booth, and there, in private, vote by drawing a line or lines through the name of each candidate for whom the elector does not vote:
 - (b.) Fold the voting paper and deliver it so folded to the presiding officer, who shall forthwith openly, and without unfolding it, deposit it in the ballot box:
 - (c.) Quit the booth:
- (4.) If any voter satisfies the presiding officer that he is so blind as to be unable to vote without assistance, as required by the last paragraph, the presiding officer shall permit any person named and described by the voter to accompany him into the voting compartment, and to mark, fold, and deliver his paper for him:
- (5.) If any voter satisfies the presiding officer, before his voting paper is deposited in the ballot box, that he has spoilt it by mistake or accident, he may, on giving it up, receive a new paper from the presiding officer, who shall there and then destroy the spoilt paper.

Challenges.

105. A PERSON may be challenged during the polling as to his right to vote by the presiding officer, and he shall so challenge him on the request of a scrutineer, but in any case only by the following questions, or some or one of them:—

- (1.) Are you the person whose name appears as A. B. on the roll in force at this election?
- (2.) Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this election for this Electoral Province (or District)?

Electoral Act, 1899.

(3.) Are you of the full age of twenty-one years?

(4.) Have you the qualification for which your name now appears on the Electoral Roll in force at this Election?

Provided that in the case of a residential qualification if the officer is satisfied that the person has not ceased to have such qualification for more than six weeks, the person shall be entitled to vote.

106. THE presiding officer, at the request of any scrutineer, shall put all or any of the above questions applicable to the election to any voter, but no such questions shall be put after the voting paper shall have been deposited in the ballot box.

Questions.

107. IF any person refuses to fully answer any question put to him by the presiding officer pursuant to the preceding section, or by his answer shows that he is not entitled to vote, his claim to vote shall be rejected, and no voting paper shall be afterwards delivered to him, and any voting paper previously delivered to him shall be immediately destroyed by the presiding officer.

Answers.

108. THE voter's answer to the questions shall be conclusive, and the matter shall not be further inquired into during the polling.

Answer conclusive.

109. NO omission of any name other than the surname, nor entry of wrong name other than the surname, nor mistake where it sounds the same in the spelling of any surname, nor misdescription of the locality of the qualification, shall warrant the rejection at any polling of any claim to vote if the voter or locality are sufficiently identified in the opinion of the presiding officer.

Errors not to forfeit vote.

5. The Scrutiny.

110. THE result of the polling shall be ascertained by scrutiny.

Scrutiny.

111. THE scrutiny shall be conducted as to a Council election by the Returning Officer and the Deputy Returning Officers, and as to an Assembly election by the Returning Officer, as follows:—

How conducted.

- (1.) It shall commence as soon as practicable after the closing of the poll:
- (2.) Not more than two scrutineers may be appointed by each candidate to represent him at the scrutiny at each place where the scrutiny is conducted:
- (3.) The scrutineers of the candidates may be present, and also any persons approved by the Returning Officer, but none other:

Electoral Act, 1899.

- (4.) All the proceedings of the scrutiny shall be subject to the inspection of the scrutineers:
- (5.) The ballot boxes shall be opened, the voting papers examined, and the votes counted so that the votes received by each candidate may be ascertained:
- (6.) The ballot boxes shall be opened in such order as shall be determined by the Returning Officer, one after the other, counted, and the number of ballot papers contained in each box ascertained without their being examined, and a memorandum of such number made before another box is opened:
- (7.) When all the ballot boxes have been opened and the ballot papers therein counted and noted as aforesaid, the Returning Officer shall mix all the ballot papers up together, and then proceed by the examination of the ballot papers to ascertain the result of the poll:
- (8.) All votes, except those tendered in absence, shall be counted as informal if the voting paper is not duly initialled, or if it contains anything contrary to the prescribed form by which votes are required to be cast:
- (9.) The scrutiny may be adjourned as may be necessary until all the votes are counted; and, on any adjournment, the ballot papers shall be deposited in some secure place, and any scrutineer so desiring may seal them up:
- (10.) Any scrutineer may object that any voting paper is informal, and thereupon the Returning Officer shall mark the voting paper "Admitted" or "Rejected," according to his decision on the objection; and such decision shall be final, subject only to reversal by the Court of Disputed Returns:
- (11.) If an equal number of votes are cast for any candidates, and an additional vote would decide the election, the Returning Officer for the district shall give such vote, but otherwise no such Returning Officer shall vote at any election for which he is Returning Officer.

112. IN any Council elections—

Council elections.

- (1.) The duties of the Returning Officer in relation to the polling and scrutiny shall be discharged by each Deputy Returning Officer as regards his division:
- (2.) Each Deputy Returning Officer, so soon as the result of the polling within his division has been ascertained, shall shall, by indorsement under his hand, certify on the copy of the writ the number of votes polled for each candidate within the division, and send back to the Returning Officer for the Province the copy of the writ so indorsed, and shall, before so doing, if practicable, telegraph to him the certificate of the result: Provided that the transmission of any result by telegraph shall be in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained relating to the transmission by telegraph of the return to an election writ.

- (3.) The Returning Officer for the Province shall, from the copies of writs so received, or the result so telegraphed, ascertain the total number of votes polled for each candidate in the Province to which the election relates.

113. IT shall be sufficient to telegraph an election writ, copies thereof, and notices required to be given by this Act, also the result of the election and return to the writ. Writs, etc., may be telegraphed.

- (a.) If the writ for an election be telegraphed to the Returning Officer, he shall, when the result of the election is known, indorse the result on such telegraphed copy, and make return thereof as of the writ for the candidate's election. 59 Vict., 31 s., 58.

- (b.) Scrutineers and agents to attend at the polling place may be appointed by telegraph.

6. The return of the Writs.

114. SO soon as conveniently may be after the result of the polling at any election has been finally ascertained, the Returning Officer shall— Return of writ.

- (1.) Publicly declare the result, and the names of the candidates elected:
- (2.) By indorsement under his hand certify on the original writ the names of the persons elected, and the number of votes given for each, and return the writ so indorsed according to its exigency.

115. IMMEDIATELY after the declaration of the poll, all unused voting papers, and all voting papers (except papers for voting in absence) which have been used for voting and not objected to or held to be informal, shall be destroyed, and all other voting papers shall be retained until the election can be no longer questioned, when they shall be destroyed. Certain voting papers retained.

Electoral Act, 1899.

Returns to be sent in.

116. EVERY Returning Officer shall, after any election within his Province or District (as the case may be) send to the Minister a return in a tabular form showing—

- (1.) The number of electors on the roll :
 - (1a.) The number of electors who voted :
 - (1b.) The number of voting papers issued to electors :
- (2.) The number of voting papers found in the ballot boxes :
- (3.) The number of voting papers rejected, distinguishing the numbers—
 - (a.) Not initialled :
 - (b.) Voting for more candidates than were entitled to be elected :
 - (c.) Containing any clue to the identity of the voter :
 - (d.) Unmarked or informally marked, specifying the nature of the informality :

And such return shall be accompanied by the list of voters issued under section eighty-seven.

Correction of errors.

117. ANY delay, error, or omission in the printing, preparation, issue, transmission, or return of any roll, writ, voting papers, or list of voters, may be remedied, removed, rectified, and supplied by Proclamation specifying the matter dealt with, and providing for the course to be followed, and such course shall be valid and suffice.

Extension of time.

118. WITHIN twenty days before or after the day appointed for any election, the person issuing the writ may provide for extending the time for holding the election, or for returning the writ, or meeting any difficulty which might otherwise interfere with the due course of the election ; and any provision so made shall be valid and sufficient :

Provided that—

- (1.) The provision made shall be immediately notified in the Government Gazette :
- (2.) No postponement of any polling day shall be made at any time later than seven days before the time originally appointed.

Riot.

119. IF any election is interrupted by riot or violence, the proceedings at the polling place affected may be adjourned until the following day, and so on from day to day until the poll is properly taken ;

Electoral Act, 1899.

taken ; and, for the purpose of the election, all days to which the poll is adjourned shall be deemed continuations of the original polling day, and the scrutiny shall not close until the votes polled on all such days have been counted.

120. IF any candidate shall fail to receive a number of votes equal at least to one-fifth part of the votes received by the successful candidate if only one, or, if there shall be more than one, by such one of the successful candidates as shall receive the smallest number of votes, the deposit of Twenty-five pounds made by such candidate so failing shall be forfeited, and shall be forthwith paid by the Returning Officer to the Colonial Treasurer for the general purposes of the Colony, and after every election the Returning Officer shall pay to any successful candidate, and to any unsuccessful candidate who shall have received a number of votes equal at least to one-fifth part as aforesaid, the sum of Twenty-five pounds deposited by him as aforesaid.

Deposit made under sec. 81, how dealt with.

7. Transmission by Telegraph.

121. THE transmission by telegraph of a writ, or of the return thereto, and of any other document authorised by this Act to be telegraphed, shall be in accordance with the following provisions:—

Mode of transmission by telegraph.

- (a.) The original document shall be delivered at the telegraph station to the operator, who shall compare the same with the written message.
- (b.) The person to whom the contents of such document shall be so sent shall forthwith cause to be sent back by telegraph a copy of the message received by him, and, in the event of any error appearing therein, the process shall be repeated until it appears that a true copy of such document has been received by the person to whom it was sent.
- (c.) When it appears that a true copy has been received as aforesaid, the original document shall be delivered to the person by whom or on whose behalf it was delivered.

122. IN case telegraphic or other communication be interrupted or delayed, the Governor, or other person issuing the writ, may from time to time, at his discretion, extend the time appointed for the return of an election writ: Provided that any such extension of time shall be notified in the Government Gazette.

PART

Electoral Act, 1899.

PART IV.—OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

Offences.

123. TO secure the due execution of this Act and the purity of elections the following acts are hereby prohibited and penalised:—

- (1.) Breach or neglect of official duty:
- (2.) Illegal practices, including—
 - (a.) Bribery:
 - (b.) Undue influence:
- (3.) Electoral offences.

Breach or neglect by officers.

124. “BREACH or neglect of official duty” includes—

- (1.) Any attempt by any officer to influence the vote of any elector, or, except by recording his vote, the result of any election:
- (2.) The disclosure of any knowledge officially acquired by any officer touching the vote of any elector:
- (3.) Any neglect or refusal by any officer to discharge any official duty, and any violation by any officer of any provision of this Act.

Breach or neglect of official duty shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding Two hundred pounds, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Bribery.

125. WHOEVER—

- (1.) Promises or offers or suggests any valuable consideration, advantage, recompense, reward, or benefit for or on account of, or to induce any candidature or withdrawal of candidature, or any vote or omission to vote, or any support of or opposition to any candidate, or any promise of any such vote, omission, support, or opposition:
- (2.) Gives or takes any valuable consideration, advantage, recompense, reward, or benefit for or on account of any such candidature, withdrawal, vote, omission, support, or opposition, or promise thereof:
- (3.) Promises, offers, or suggests any valuable consideration, advantage, recompense, reward, or benefit for bribery, or gives or takes any valuable consideration, advantage, recompense, reward, or benefit for bribery:

shall be guilty of bribery.

Electoral Act, 1899.

126. WITHOUT limiting the effect of the general words in the preceding section, "Bribery" particularly includes the supply of meat, drink, or entertainment after the nominations have been officially declared, or horse or carriage hire for any voter whilst going to or returning from the poll, with the view to influence the vote of an elector.

Definition

127. WHOEVER threatens, offers, or suggests any—

Undue influence.

- (1.) Violence, injury, punishment, damage, loss, or disadvantage for or on account of or to induce any candidature, or withdrawal of candidature, or any vote or any omission to vote, or any support or opposition to any candidate, or any promise of any such vote, omission, support, or opposition:
- (2.) Or uses, causes, inflicts, or procures any violence, punishment, damage, loss, or disadvantage for or on account of any such candidature, withdrawal, vote, omission, support, or opposition:

shall be guilty of undue influence.

128. WITHOUT limiting the effect of the general words in the preceding section, "Undue Influence" includes every interference or attempted interference with the free exercise of the franchise of any voter.

Definition.

129. NO declaration of public policy or promise of public action shall be deemed bribery or undue influence.

Exception.

130. IN addition to bribery and undue influence the following shall be illegal practices:—

Illegal practices.

- (a.) Any personal solicitation by a candidate of the vote of any elector within forty-eight hours before noon on polling day:
- (b.) Any attendance by a candidate at any meeting of electors held for electoral purposes within forty-eight hours before noon on polling day:

131. NO premises—

- (a.) On which the sale by wholesale or retail of any intoxicating liquor is authorised by a license; or
- (b.) Where any intoxicating liquor is sold, or is supplied to members of a club, society, or association, other than a permanent political club; or

No committee room to be in house licensed for sale of liquors. Penalty as for illegal practice.

59 Vict., 31, s. 109.

Electoral Act, 1899.

(c.) Whereon refreshment of any kind, whether food or drink, is ordinarily sold for consumption on the premises; shall be used as a committee room for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate; and every person who hires or uses any such premises or any part thereof for a committee room, and every person who knowingly lets or allows the same to be used for that purpose, shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

Punishment.

132. ANY illegal practice shall be punishable as follows:—

(a.) Bribery or undue influence by a fine not exceeding Two hundred pounds, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year.

(b.) Any other illegal practice by a fine not exceeding One hundred pounds, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Disqualification.

133. IF any candidate shall be convicted by the Court of Disputed Returns of any illegal practice he shall be disqualified from election to Parliament for two years, and his election (if he is a successful candidate) shall be declared void.

Electoral offences.

134. THE matters mentioned in the first column of the following table shall be electoral offences punishable as provided in the second column of the table opposite the statement of the offence.

Table of Electoral Offences and Punishments.

First Column—Offences.	Second Column—Punishments.

Supplying voting papers without authority.	Imprisonment not exceeding six months.
Unlawfully destroying, taking, opening, or otherwise interfering with ballot boxes or voting papers.	Imprisonment not exceeding six months.
Voting more than once for the same Province or District at same election.	Fine of not exceeding One hundred pounds, or imprisonment not exceeding six months.
Wilfully defacing, mutilating, destroying, or removing any notice, list, or other document affixed by any Returning Officer or by his authority.	Fine of not exceeding Two pounds.
Wilfully making any false statement in claim, application, return, or declaration, or in answer to a question under this Act.	Imprisonment not exceeding two years.
Attesting a claim, application for transfer, change of qualification, or other document required to be attested as witness without satisfying himself by inquiry of the claimant or applicant or otherwise that the particulars stated are true.	Fine not exceeding Fifty pounds.

135. WHOEVER in any polling booth on polling day misconducts himself, or fails to obey the lawful directions of the presiding officer, may be removed from the polling booth by any constable or by any person authorised by the presiding officer.

Offender may be removed from polling booth.

136. ANY person so removed re-entering or attempting to re-enter the polling booth without the permission of the presiding officer shall be guilty of a further electoral offence, punishable, on conviction, by twice the penalties prescribed in the table for the original offence.

Further punishment.

137. WITNESSES called on the part of the prosecutor in any prosecution for an offence under this Act may, unless the Court shall order the contrary, be cross-examined by the prosecutor or his counsel.

Cross-examination of witnesses.

Electoral Act, 1899.

Hostile witnesses.

138. THE Court may, without argument, order that the prosecutor or his counsel be not allowed to cross-examine any witness called on his part if such witness appears to the Court to be hostile to the defendant.

Acts of agents.

139. THE acts of authorised agents of candidates shall, in matters connected with elections, be deemed to be the acts of their principals, unless it be proved that such acts were committed without their knowledge or consent, and that they had neither directly nor indirectly sanctioned, countenanced, nor approved of the same in any way.

Liability for indirect acts.

140. EVERY person shall be liable for an illegal practice committed directly or indirectly by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, except as mentioned in the last preceding section.

Certificate of Returning Officer, evidence.

141. ON any prosecution under this Act the certificate of the Returning Officer that the election mentioned in the certificate was duly held, and that the person named in the certificate was a candidate at such election, shall be conclusive evidence of the matter stated.

PART V.—DISPUTED RETURNS.

The Court.

142. THERE shall be a “ Court of Disputed Returns.”

Constitution.

143. IT shall be constituted of two Judges of the Supreme Court.

Jurisdiction.

144. THE Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions of disputed returns.

Powers.

145. THE Court will be an open Court, and shall have the following powers:—

- (1.) To adjourn, but so that no interval of adjournment shall exceed four days:
- (2.) To compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents:
- (3.) To examine witnesses upon oath or affirmation:
- (4.) To regulate the form and mode of its proceedings in each case:
- (5.) To declare that any person who was returned as elected was not duly elected:
- (6.) To declare any person duly elected who was not returned as elected:

Electoral Act, 1899.

- (7.) To direct any new election :
- (8.) To dismiss or uphold any petition, in whole or in part :
- (9.) To award any costs.

(Schedule XVIII.)

146. NO return shall be disputed except by petition, and no petition shall be noticed nor shall any proceedings be had thereon unless the petition— Petitions.

- (1.) Is addressed to the House affected, and presented by a member, or left with the clerk within forty days after the day of return.
- (2.) Is signed by a candidate at the election in dispute or by a person who was qualified to vote thereat, and has each signature attested by two witnesses, whose occupations and addresses are stated :
- (3.) Is, in case of a petition against a return, accompanied by a certificate of the clerk that Fifty pounds has been lodged with him as security for costs.

147. ALL petitions shall, within ten days after the same have been received, be referred to the Court. Time.

148. THE Court shall inquire whether or not the petition is duly signed, but the Court shall not inquire into the correctness of any electoral roll, or into the qualifications of any proposer, or into the sufficiency of any nomination, or into the qualifications of persons whose votes may have been either admitted or rejected, but only so far as rolls and voting are concerned, into the identity of the persons, and whether their votes were improperly admitted or rejected, assuming the roll to be correct. Inquiries by Court.

149. THE Court shall be guided by the substantial merits and good conscience of each case without regard to legal forms or technicalities, or to whether the evidence before it is offered in strict accordance with the laws of evidence or not. Substantial merits to be observed.

150. NO election shall be voided on account of any delay in the nomination, polling, or return of the writ, or on account of the absence or error of any officer which shall not be proved to have affected the result of the election. Immaterial errors not to vitiate election.

151. ALL decisions of the Court shall be final and conclusive without appeal, and shall not be questioned in any way. Decisions to be final.

Electoral Act, 1899.

- Minutes. 152. THE Court shall be attended by an officer of the House affected, who shall minute the proceedings as directed by the Court, and a copy of the minutes shall be furnished to the House.
- Difference between Judges to be certified to the House. 153. IF the Judges who hear a petition differ as to whether the member whose return or election is complained of was duly returned or elected, they shall certify that difference, and the member shall be deemed to be duly elected or returned.
- Deposit applicable for costs. 154. IF costs are awarded to any party against the petitioner, the deposit, on the order of the President or Speaker, shall be applicable in payment of the sum ordered, but otherwise the deposit shall be repaid to the petitioner.
- Other costs. 155. ALL other costs awarded by the Court, including any balance above the deposit payable by the petitioner, shall be recoverable as if the order of the Court were a judgment of the Supreme Court, and such order, certified by the Judge, shall be entered as a judgment of the Supreme Court, and shall be enforced accordingly.
- Effect of decision. 156. EFFECT shall be given to any decision of the Court as follows:—
- (1.) If any person returned is declared not to have been duly elected, he shall cease to be a member:
 - (2.) If any person not returned shall be declared to have been duly elected, he shall take his seat accordingly;
 - (3.) If any election is declared absolutely void, a new election shall be held.

PART VII.—SUPPLEMENTARY.

- Governor may delegate his powers. 157. IT shall be lawful for the Governor to delegate to any other person the performance of any act or thing which by this Act he is empowered to perform: Provided that any such delegation shall be made under the hand of such Governor and the seal of the Colony, and be announced by Proclamation in the Government Gazette.
- Supernumerary officers. 158. THE Minister may appoint such officers or persons as may to him appear necessary for the purpose of assisting any Returning Officer or Registrar in the performance of his duties, or otherwise for carrying this Act into effect.
- Remuneration of officers. 159. RETURNING Officers, Registrars, and other officers and persons appointed for the purposes of this Act may respectively be paid such salaries or allowances as the Governor may direct.

Electoral Act, 1899.

160. THE clerk or secretary of a municipality or road board shall be entitled to be paid for the list of persons whose names appear on the electoral list of such municipality or road board, at the rate of fourpence for every folio of seventy-two words, every figure being counted as a word.

Remuneration for preparation of list of municipal electors.

161. ALL electoral papers provided for by this Act, if marked "Electoral" over the address thereof, may be transmitted through the post free of charge, and all papers so transmitted, if duly addressed, shall, on proof of posting, unless the contrary be shown, be deemed to have been duly served on and received by the person to whom the same were addressed on the day when, in the ordinary course of post, they should have been received at his address.

Postal.

162. ALL prosecutions for offences, other than indictable offences, under this Act shall be heard and determined by a Court of summary jurisdiction subject to appeal, as provided by the Police Act, 1892.

Summary procedure.

163. THE Governor may make any regulations to carry out the objects and purposes of this Act, or as may be necessary for the administration thereof, and any such regulation may impose a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds for any breach thereof.

Regulations.

Penalty.

164. FOR the more convenient holding of the first general election, and of the first election of members of the Legislative Council after the passing of this Act, the Governor may, by notice in the Government Gazette, make such arrangements, appoint such persons, and fix such dates and periods as may appear to him to be desirable under the circumstances to enable anything required by this Act to be done in the preparation of the rolls under Part II. of this Act; and on the publication of such notice, this Act shall, for the purposes of such first elections, be deemed to be altered accordingly.

For the holding of first elections Governor may, by Gazette notice, alter this Act.

52 Vict., 23.

165. THIS Act shall be proclaimed in Western Australia by the Governor so soon as he has received notification, by telegraph or otherwise, of the Royal assent thereto; and shall commence and take effect from the date of the publication of such proclamation.

Proclamation of Royal assent, and commencement of Act.

I hereby reserve this Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

AN ACT to amend the Dentists Act, 1894.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Dentists Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be construed as one with the Dentists Act, 1894, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation with 53 Vict., 19.

2. PARAGRAPH (d.) of section ten of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following is substituted:—

Amendment of section 10 of principal Act.

(d.) That he has for not less than four years practised dentistry or dental surgery in some part of Her Majesty's dominions or in the United States of America, and holds such certificate, diploma, or degree, and has passed such examination as may be prescribed by the rules.

3. SECTION eleven of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal of s. 11 of principal Act.

4. (1.) A WRITTEN certificate, purporting to be signed by the Registrar, and stating that, at a date named therein, a person was or was not registered, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the truth of such statement.

Fee for certificate.

(2.) Every registered dentist shall, on payment of a fee of Five shillings, be entitled to a certificate that he is registered.

Burden of proof of registration to lie on accused person.

(3.) When any person is charged, under section fifteen of the principal Act, with any act which is unlawful, except for a registered dentist or a medical practitioner, the burden of proving that the accused person is such dentist or practitioner shall rest on the accused person.

Matters not requiring proof on prosecution.

(4.) In a prosecution under section fifteen of the principal Act, it shall not be necessary to prove—

(a.) That the accused person received any remuneration or reward in connection with the act, matter, or thing complained of ; or (b.) The election and constitution of the Board, the election of any person purporting to act or sign as chairman, or the appointment of any person purporting to act as President or Registrar.

Penalty on second conviction.

(5.) Upon the conviction of any person for a second offence under section fifteen of the principal Act, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds.

Seal to be judicially noticed.

5. THE seal of the Board shall be judicially noticed by all Courts and persons by law authorised to receive evidence upon oath.

Dentist may withdraw name from Register.

6. EVERY registered dentist may withdraw his name from the Register by writing under his hand addressed to the President, Chairman, or Registrar of the Board, and shall thereupon cease to be a registered dentist.

Dentists to pay annual license fee, and in default to be struck off.

7. DURING the month of January next following the passing of this Act, and thenceforth in the month of January in every year, every registered dentist shall pay to the Board an annual license fee of Two guineas, and, on failing to make such payment, shall cease to be a registered dentist; but the Board may at any time restore to the Register the name of any dentist failing to make such payment on receiving all arrears and on payment of such fines as may be prescribed by the Rules.

Penalties to go to Board.

8. ALL penalties recovered under the principal Act or this Act or the Rules shall be paid to the Board.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

AN ACT to secure the Permanency of certain Reserves.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Permanent Reserves Act, 1899. Short title.

2. NOTWITHSTANDING anything contained in the Land Act, 1898, or any other Act dealing with lands of the Crown, it is hereby provided— Classification of certain Reserves.

- (1.) Whenever the Governor has reserved, or may hereafter reserve to Her Majesty, any lands of the Crown for the purpose of parks, squares, or otherwise for the embellishment of towns, or for the recreation or amusement of the inhabitants, or for cemeteries, or for any other public purpose, the Governor may, by the notice of reservation published in the Government Gazette or by any subsequent notice notice so published, and subject to such conditions as may be expressed therein, classify such lands as of Class A, and if so classified, such land shall for ever remain dedicated to the purpose declared in such notice, until by an Act in which such lands respectively are specified it is otherwise provided.

- (2.) Whenever the Governor has reserved or may hereafter reserve to Her Majesty any lands of the Crown, and such lands are not classified as Class A, he may, at any time he may think fit, classify such lands as of Class B, and on notifying such classification in the Government Gazette such lands shall remain reserved from alienation or from being otherwise dealt with, unless and until the Governor shall cancel such reservation by notice in the Government Gazette, but in such case the Minister for Lands shall present a special report to both Houses of Parliament setting forth the reasons for such cancellation, and the purposes to which it is intended to devote the said lands, and such report shall be made to both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days from the cancellation thereof if Parliament be then in Session, and if not, then within fourteen days after the commencement of the next Session.
- (3.) All other reserves made under the provisions of Part III. of the Land Act, 1898, shall be classified as of Class C.

Proviso for declaration of roads, and for making surveys.

3. NOTHING in this Act shall prevent the survey and declaration by the Governor of any necessary roads and streets through or over any reserve classified as Class B or Class C; or, in the case of any such reserve being made before the land is surveyed, shall prevent the amendment of the boundaries and area in such manner as may be found necessary on survey, but so that the total area shall not be reduced by more than one-twentieth part thereof.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

AN ACT to amend the Agricultural Bank Act, 1894.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Agricultural Bank Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be read with the Agricultural Bank Act, 1894, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title.

2. EVERY person applying for an advance under the principal Act, or in the case of joint or co-owners one of them, shall make a statutory declaration indorsed on the application, in the form given in the Schedule hereto or to the like effect; such declaration may be made and subscribed as well before any agent appointed by the Minister under the Land Act, 1898, as before any person by law authorised to administer an oath, and if made and subscribed before such agent shall have the same force and effect as if made and subscribed before a Justice of the Peace.

Applicant for loan to make statutory declaration that he is sole owner.

Agricultural Bank Act—Amendment.

Mortgagor to keep fences, etc., in repair.

3. EVERY person who has given security by mortgage to the manager under the principal Act shall, during the subsistence of the security, and to the satisfaction of the manager, keep in good and tenantable repair all fences, fixtures, and improvements thereon; and if, after the expiration of two month's written notice by the manager to such mortgagor, the mortgagor has not complied with the requirements of this section, the like consequences shall follow as are provided by the principal Act in case any half-yearly payment of principal or interest is unpaid for two months after the time appointed for payment thereof.

Amendment of 58 Vict., No. 21,
sec. 5.

4. SECTION five of the principal Act is amended by striking out, in the sixth line thereof, the words "One hundred thousand pounds," and inserting the words "Two hundred thousand pounds" in lieu thereof.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

Section 2.

SCHEDULE.

Statutory Declaration to be indorsed on Form of Application.

I, A.B., do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am the sole owner [or I and _____ are the owners] of the lands mentioned in the within application and offered as security for the advance requested from the Agricultural Bank, and that no other person has any estate, right, title or interest therein whatsoever, either at law or in equity; and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, No. 12, intituled "An Ordinance for the Abolition of unnecessary Oaths, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof."

4. SUBJECT to the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1885, the Promoter named in the said Provisional Order and its assigns may make, form, lay down, construct, maintain, and work the tramways set forth in the said Provisional Order.

Schedule incorporated.

5. THE Schedule shall form part of this Act.

Saving rights of Municipality of Subiaco.

6. NOTHING herein contained shall prejudice or affect a certain agreement dated the 15th day of August, 1899, and made between the Mayor, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Town of Subiaco of the one part and the Promoter of the other part, except so far as the same is contrary to or in conflict with the provisions of this Act or the Tramways Act, 1885.

Power for Local Authority to connect with and acquire running powers over Tramways.

7. IF at any time hereafter any Local Authority shall require to connect with and to acquire running powers over the tramways authorised by this Act, the terms and conditions upon which it shall be lawful so to do shall be referred to arbitration under the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1895, and shall be determined by the award, and it shall be lawful for any Local Authority interested to be represented at and to take part in the arbitration.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

THE SCHEDULE.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

WHEREAS THE TRAMWAYS SYNDICATE, LIMITED, whose registered office is in Barrack Street, Perth, a Company within the meaning of the expression "the Promoters," as defined by the Tramways Act, 1885, section 3, sub-section 2, has made application to me for a Provisional Order authorising the construction of Tramways in the Municipality of Subiaco, along the routes specified in the Schedule hereunder written; AND WHEREAS the Promoter has published notice of its intention to make such application in the form prescribed in the Schedule "B" annexed to the Tramways Act, 1885, by advertisement in the Government Gazette and in the West Australian and Morning Herald Newspapers, and has deposited the documents described in Schedule "C" annexed to the same Act at the Department of Public Works, Perth, and with the Town Clerk of Subiaco; AND WHEREAS I have considered the said application, and it appears to me expedient and proper that the said application should be granted: NOW THEREFORE I, FREDERICK HENRY PIESSE, the Commissioner of Railways for Western Australia, do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1885, make a Provisional Order, and I do order as follows, that is to say:—

1. The Promoter shall be and it is hereby empowered to make, form, lay down, construct, maintain, and work Tramways in, upon, and along such of the streets and roads in the Municipality of Subiaco as are mentioned in the said Schedule hereunder written: Provided, nevertheless, that notwithstanding anything herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Railways, at any time within six months from this date, by notice in writing to the Promoter, delivered at its Registered Office for the time being, to prohibit the construction of any part or parts of the said Tramway which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Railways, may interfere with the railway system.

2. The Promoter shall, within nine months after the confirmation of this Provisional Order, or within such extended time as the Commissioner of Railways may approve, substantially commence the works in connection with the said Tramway, and complete the Hay Street West to Hamersley Road section thereof within three months of such commencement, and the Hamersley Road to the Park Gates section within 12 months of the completion of the Hay Street West and Hamersley Road section.

3. The Promoter shall, within two years from the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, purchase all such freehold lands and leasehold lands with the right of purchase as shall be required for stations for the purpose of working the said Tramways, and shall forthwith, after such purchase, notify the Local Authority the price paid for such freehold or leasehold lands, and all buildings and works required or used in connection with the said Tramways shall be erected on freehold lands or leasehold lands with the right of purchase.

4. The said Tramways shall be constructed on the 3ft. 6in. gauge.

5. The roads of all the lines shall be properly macadamised for a width of 6ft. 6in. for single lines and from 17ft. 10in. to 19ft. 4in. for double lines, and shall be kept in thorough repair to the level of the rails.

Subiaco Tramways.

6. The said Tramways shall be laid with steel rails.
7. The said Tramways shall be used for the conveyance or carriage of passengers only.
8. The Promoter may demand and take, for every passenger conveyed upon the said Tramways, any tolls and charges not exceeding in amount the sum of three-pence for any single fare on a single journey from or to the Perth Town Hall: PROVIDED always, that the Promoter shall as and when required by the Local Authority, provide special cars for workmen between the hours of 6 and 8 a.m. and 5 and 6.30 p.m.; and all persons travelling upon such cars between the said hours in the morning shall, on payment of a fare not exceeding three-pence, be provided with return tickets from or to the Perth Town Hall; the return portion whereof shall be available for use on similar cars between the said hours of 5 and 6.30.
9. The restrictions herein contained as to tolls and charges which the Promoter may demand and take for the conveyance or carriage of passengers shall not extend to any special car other than workmen's cars, but shall apply only to the ordinary cars appointed by the Promoter from time to time for the conveyance of passengers.
10. The tolls and charges authorised to be taken, and which shall be demanded by the Promoter, shall be paid to such persons and at such places upon or near the tramways, and in such manner and under such regulations as the Promoter shall appoint by notice to be exhibited in some conspicuous place in the inside of each of the passenger cars used by the Promoter upon the said tramways.
11. Every passenger travelling upon the tramways may take with him ordinary personal luggage belonging to him, not exceeding in weight 20lbs., without any charge being made for the carriage thereof.
12. All cars used on the said tramways shall be moved by electric power, and the Promoter may erect and maintain all such poles and posts with wires attached thereto, in the said streets mentioned in the said schedule hereunder written, along the routes therein mentioned, as may be necessary or required for supplying electricity to the said cars and for working the said tramways on the overhead trolley system: Provided that the Commissioner of Railways shall be entitled to direct the alteration of position of any pole or post or wire, if it appears to him that the same is specially inconvenient and could be made less inconvenient without great cost to the Company, and in the event of such direction being given by the said Commissioner of Railways the Company shall comply with it without delay.
13. All cars using the said tramways may travel at a speed not exceeding the rate of 10 miles an hour, and may follow after each other at distances of not less than 50 yards, and may stop at any point on the said tramways, except on crossings of streets, for the purpose of taking up and setting down passengers, and may stand at the terminus of any of the said tramways.
14. Cars shall be run as follows:—From 6 to 9 a.m., at intervals of not more than 10 minutes; from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, at intervals of not more than 20 minutes; from 12 noon to 2 p.m., at intervals of not more than 10 minutes; from 2 to 4.30 p.m., at intervals of not more than 20 minutes; from 4.30 to 8 p.m., at intervals of not more than 10 minutes; and for the remainder of the day, at intervals of not more than 20 minutes.
15. The said tramways shall be constructed in accordance with the drawings herewith (subject to provisos herein contained), with double or single lines, as the case may be, but the Commissioner of Railways may, from time to time, upon the application of the Promoter, alter or vary the same, or authorise or require the Promoter to alter or vary the same.

Subiaco Tramways.

16. All additional plans and specifications required in connection with the carrying out of the works shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Railways and the Engineer of the Local Authority for approval, and all work shall be carried out and finished to the entire satisfaction of the Local Authority and their Engineer, and of the Commissioner of Railways.

17. The Promoter, its transferees or successors, may, from time to time, make and enter into and carry into effect contracts, agreements, and arrangements for or with reference to the use by such transferees or successors of the said tramways or portion thereof, and for prescribing and regulating the tolls and charges to be paid for such use, and the terms and conditions of such user, and all matters incidental thereto.

18. The term "the Promoter," whenever hereinbefore used, shall mean and include the Tramway Syndicate, Limited, and its assigns wherever the context so requires or admits.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.

From Hay Street West along Broome Road to Rokeby Road, and thence along Rokeby Road to Hamersley Road, and from Hamersley Road along Rokeby Road to the Perth Park Gates.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of November, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

AN ACT to amend the Mining on Private Property Act, 1898.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Mining on Private Property Act, 1898, Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be incorporated with the Mining on Private Property Act, 1898, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation.

2. SECTION four of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal of sec. 4 of the principal Act.

3. (1.) AT any time within three months after the passing of this Act, the grantor or the lessee of any lease granted under the repealed Mining on Private Property Act, 1897, may register the same with the Registrar, at the office of the Department of Mines, by depositing a copy of the said lease with him there.

Leases under the repealed Act of 1897 may be registered within three months.

Mining on Private Property—Amendment.

But if not then registered, may be superseded by leases under the principal Act.

(2.) Where a gold-mining lease is granted under the principal Act, and includes land which is comprised in a lease granted in pursuance of the said repealed Act, but which is not registered in manner and within the time aforesaid, the said land shall pass under the first mentioned lease, and the lease granted in pursuance of the said repealed Act shall be deemed to be superseded in respect of such land.

Amendment of secs. 6 and 8 of principal Act.

4. IN section six, sub-section (5), of the principal Act, the words in line two, "private land on which any," and the words "is situated," in line four, are hereby struck out, and in section eight, sub-section (4), of the principal Act, the words "which is situated," in the third line, are hereby struck out, and in place thereof the words "any lands within one hundred yards of" are inserted, and the words "in bona fide occupation or of any land within one hundred yards of the same," in lines five and six, are struck out.

Amendment of sec. 12 of principal Act.

5. SECTION twelve of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition at the end of sub-section (1) of the following words:— "Every such complaint shall be deemed to be a proceeding within the meaning of section fifty-three of the Goldfields Act, 1895; and for the purpose of enabling Wardens to hear, determine, and enforce such complaints and of enabling appeals to be made from their decisions, all the powers and provisions of Part IV. of the said Goldfields Act, 1895, applying to proceedings under such section shall equally apply to a Warden under this Act, and to such complaint as to compensation under this section and section twenty-two of this Act, so far as the same may be applicable;" and by striking out, in sub-section (4), the words "the applicant or claim-holder also paying to the owner and occupier such costs as the Warden shall allow," and by inserting in lieu thereof "and the applicant or claim-holder shall pay to the owner and occupier such costs and damages as the Warden shall allow. If default in payment or satisfaction of any compensation awarded as aforesaid continues for one month after the determination by the Warden or, in the case of appeal, after judgment on the appeal, the application for the lease or the interest in the claim, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been abandoned as aforesaid."

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

renewed, on payment of the like fee, without any further application, but may be cancelled by a Resident Magistrate on the licensee being convicted of any offence against this Act, or of any felony or misdemeanour which, in the opinion of such Magistrate, renders such licensee unfit to hold a license.

Penalty for buying pearls without a license.

See ibid.

3. NO person other than a holder of a pearl dealer's license shall buy pearls at any place where the pearl fishery is carried on, except of a person holding such a license; and every person acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding One hundred pounds, or to imprisonment for not more than three months.

Statement of licenses issued to be transmitted to the Inspector of Fisheries, who shall record them.

4. (1.) IT shall be the duty of the clerk of the Resident Magistrate to transmit a statement of the name and residence of every person to whom a pearl dealer's license is granted or who obtains a renewal thereof, and the date of the issue or renewal thereof, to the Inspector of Fisheries, who shall record the particulars so transmitted in a book to be called the Register of Pearl Dealers.

(2.) The register shall be open for inspection by the public at all times during ordinary office hours.

(3.) Every name of a licensee shall be struck off the register unless within six weeks after the thirty-first day of December in any year the Inspector of Fisheries receives notice that a fresh license has been issued to such licensee.

Licensee to keep Pearl Purchase Book.

Second Schedule.

5. EVERY licensee under this Act shall keep at his place of business a book, hereinafter called a "Pearl Purchase Book," and shall, immediately after purchasing or selling any one or more pearls, make an entry in such book in the form and containing the particulars indicated in the Second Schedule hereto, and, on failing to comply with this section, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Inspection, etc., of Pearl Purchase Book.

6. EVERY sergeant of police, and every member of the police force authorised in that behalf in writing under the hand of a Resident Magistrate or the hands of any two Justices of the Peace, may, at any time on a business day, enter the place of business of a person holding a pearl dealer's license, or other the place where his Pearl Purchase Book is, and may inspect and make extracts from such book; and every person resisting or impeding such inspection or extracting shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

evidence.

12. (1.) IN any proceeding to levy or recover or consequent upon the levying or recovering of the amount due in respect of any rate, the copy rate book, signed by the town clerk or person acting as such, and all entries, alterations, and amendments purporting to be made therein, in manner directed or authorised by this Act or the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, shall, upon production thereof, alone be prima facie evidence of the contents and of the obligation of the person charged with the amount payable in respect of any rate to pay the same without any evidence being required of notice, publication, or demand having been given or complied with, or that any default has been made.

Recovery of past rates.

(2.) If, before the passing of this Act, the Board has served in the manner authorised by section two hundred and twenty-seven of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, or in any other manner, written notice requiring payment of any sum as a rate upon the owner or occupier of any property liable to be rated under the principal Act or the Water Works Act, 1889, proof of the service of such notice shall, subject to the proviso hereafter set forth in all proceedings by the Board, be conclusive evidence that such sum is due and payable by such owner or occupier, or by any subsequent owner or occupier during the year in respect of which such sum was claimed, and no further proof shall be necessary or required as the striking, making, or publication of such rate or notice: Provided that no owner or occupier shall be liable to a greater extent than provided by section forty-six of the Water Works Act, 1889.

Metropolitan Waterworks.

13. THE production of a copy of the Government Gazette containing any notice of the striking of a rate shall be conclusive evidence of the due striking, making, and publication thereof.

Notice in Gazette to be evidence of striking of rate.

14. THE Council of the City of Perth or of any other municipality shall, when requested by the Board, deliver full particulars to the Board as to the levels of any street or streets in which it is proposed to lay any new main or alter any existing main.

Municipal councils to give to Board particulars as to levels of streets.

15. (1.) IN respect to any rate struck by the Board under section seven of this Act and the recovery thereof, sections one hundred and fifty-three to one hundred and sixty-seven, both inclusive, of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, shall not apply.

Secs. 153 to 167 of 59 Vict., 10, not to apply to rate struck under this Act.

(2.) In lieu of section one hundred and sixty-five of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, the following shall be read in respect of the matters aforesaid:—

Sec. 165 amended.

The Board shall, as soon as practicable after the striking of any rate, cause to be served upon every owner or occupier whose name is inserted in any such copy rate books a notice in the form or to the effect of the form contained in the Seventh Schedule to the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, but without the indorsement contained in such form. Two or more properties may be included in one notice.

Notice of rate.

16. SECTIONS two hundred and twenty-six, two hundred and twenty-seven, two hundred and twenty-eight, two hundred and thirty-three, two hundred and thirty-four, two hundred and thirty-five, and two hundred and thirty-nine of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, shall be incorporated with this Act and apply mutatis mutandis.

Application of Secs 226, 227, 228, 233 234, 235, and 239 of 59 Vict., 10.

17. ALL moneys due and payable to the Board, including every reward or payment for a supply of water or otherwise, shall be payable by the same persons and in the same manner in every respect as if such amount were actually due and payable as a water rate duly struck, and be enforced by the same remedies and in the same manner in every respect: Provided that no owner not in occupation shall be liable for any sum in excess of the water rate.

Payment of all moneys due to Board to be enforced as a rate.

18. SECTION four of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding after the words "Mayor of Perth for the time being," the following words:—"or a member of the Municipal Council of the City of Perth nominated by the said council from time to time."

Amendment of section 4 of 60 Vict., No. 19.

19.

Metropolitan Waterworks.

Amendment of section 6 of 60 Vict.,
No. 19.

19. SECTION six of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding after the words "Mayor of Perth." the words "or the member of the Municipal Council nominated as aforesaid."

Board may exercise powers of Local Board of Health over catchment area.

20. THE Board may exercise over the catchment area of every water supply for the time being under the management of or vested in the Board, all powers and authorities conferred upon Local Boards of Health by the Health Act, 1898, and all Acts amending the same or incorporated therewith.

Application of provisions of Health Act, 1898.

21. ALL the provisions of the Health Act, 1898, and of all Acts amending the same or incorporated therewith, shall apply to every such catchment area as if the same were the district of a Local Board of Health.

No. XXXV.

AN ACT to prevent the unnecessary Employment of Labour in Mines on Sundays.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Sunday Labour in Mines Act, 1899, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1900. Short title.

2. EXCEPT as hereinafter mentioned, no person shall, directly or indirectly, employ any workman for hire or reward to do any skilled or unskilled manual labour on a Sunday, in or about any mine within the meaning of the Mines Regulation Act of 1895 and any amendment thereof. Prohibition of labour on mines on Sunday.

3. EVERY person who employs a workman to do work contrary to this Act shall be liable, on being convicted thereof before a Court of summary jurisdiction, to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for every workman so employed; and, if the employer Penalty.

Sunday Labour in Mines.

is a company, the mine manager and every director thereof shall be severally liable to the like fine.

Exceptions.

4. THIS Act shall not apply to the employment of persons engaged in

- (a.) Connection with smelting or roasting furnaces or ore reduction plants using cyanide or chemicals in a continuous process ;
- (b.) The protection of property in and about a mine ;
- (c.) Attending to any furnace, engine, boiler, or machinery so that the same may be in working order at the close of Sunday ;
- (d.) Pumping or otherwise clearing a mine from water so that work may be resumed at the close of Sunday ;
- (e.) Doing any work required by a dangerous emergency ; or
- (f.) Doing work authorised by an Inspector of Mines, as hereinafter provided.

Power to Inspector to authorise Sunday labour in certain cases.

5. AN Inspector of Mines, on being satisfied that the employment of labour on a Sunday is necessary to avoid the risk of injury to a mine or its operations, may give authority for such employment by a writing, stating therein the reasons therefor, the number of workmen who may be so employed, the nature of their employment, and the period for which the authority shall extend.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XXXVI.

AN ACT to amend the Pharmacy and Poisons Act, 1894.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Pharmacy and Poisons Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be read with the Pharmacy and Poisons Act, 1894, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation with 58 Vict., 35

2. (1.) NOTWITHSTANDING anything contained in the Pharmacy and Poisons Act, 1894, no person shall sell any arsenic or strychnine, or any preparation of arsenic or strychnine, unless, in the case of arsenic or any uncoloured preparation of arsenic, it is mixed, before the sale or delivery, with soot or some other black substance in the proportion of one ounce of soot or other black substance at least to one pound of arsenic, and so in proportion for any greater or less quantity, and unless, in the case of strychnine or any uncoloured preparation of strychnine, it is coloured with Armenian bole or some other red colouring matter before the sale or delivery thereof.

Arsenic and strychnine must be coloured.

Queensland Act, 55 Vict., No. 31, s. 6.

Pharmacy and Poisons—Amendment.

(2.) Provided that, whenever the purchaser states that the arsenic or strychnine, or any preparation thereof respectively, is not required for any pastoral or agricultural use or for the destruction of vermin, but is required for a purpose for which such admixture with colouring matter would, according to the representation of the purchaser, render it unfit (a statement of which purpose is entered in the book required by section twenty-nine of the principal Act to be kept and signed as thereby required or specified in the letter therein referred to, as the case may be), such poison may be sold without such admixture.

58 Vict., 35, s. 33,
to apply to sales
under this Act.

(3.) Every person failing to comply with or acting contrary to any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act, and, upon conviction, be liable to the same fine or imprisonment as is mentioned in section thirty-three of the principal Act.

Amendments of 58
Vict., 35.

3. THE principal Act is amended, as follows:—

S. 21 (e) amended.

In section twenty-one, paragraph (e.), the words "Western Australia" are struck out, and the words "in any of the Australasian colonies" are substituted therefor; and all the words after the word "Practitioners" are struck out, and the words "and has passed all examinations prescribed by the Regulations or examinations which, in the opinion of the Board, are equivalent thereto" are substituted therefor:

S. 27 amended.

In section twenty-seven, the word "twenty" is struck out, and the word "five" is substituted therefor:

S. 29 amended.

The word "Poisons," in paragraph (b.) of section twenty-nine, shall apply only to the poisons mentioned in Part I. of the Schedule hereto:

S. 30 amended.

In section thirty, the word "poison" shall apply only to the poisons mentioned in Part I. of the Schedule hereto:

S. 31 amended.

At the end of section thirty-one the following words are added:—"together with the address of the shop or premises from which the poison was obtained."

S. 36 amended.

In section thirty-six, after the word "other," in the seventh line, the word "licensed" is inserted; and in the eleventh line, after the words "eradication of," the following words are inserted: "disease in any animals or of;" and after the word "such," in the fourteenth line, the following words are inserted: "nor to the sale for mining or industrial purposes of cyanide of potassium, strong mineral acids, or other metallurgical chemicals required in the mining or in such other industry where such chemicals are required in large quantities."

In

Pharmacy and Poisons—Amendment.

In section thirty-eight, sub-section (1), paragraph (c), last line, after the word "chemist" the following words are inserted:—"or who carries on any business or takes part or assists in any business in any shop or premises whereon or whereto is affixed any name, sign, letters, or inscription containing the word 'medical,' or 'apothecaries,' or 'drug,' or 'druggist,' either alone or in conjunction with any other word or words; or any other words suggesting that the business of a chemist or druggist is carried on upon such premises."

S. 38 amended.

The Fifth Schedule is repealed, and the Schedule hereto shall be substituted for and stand as such Fifth Schedule.

Fifth Schedule repealed.

4. (1.) NO pharmaceutical chemist or legally qualified medical practitioner shall carry on or attempt to carry on the business of a chemist and druggist, or pharmaceutical chemist, or assume or use the title of a pharmaceutical chemist, pharmacutist, pharmacist, chemist and druggist, dispensing chemist, homœopathic chemist or other title of like import, or use or exhibit any title, term, or sign on any shop, house, or premises which can be construed to mean that the business of a pharmaceutical chemist is carried on therein, unless such business is conducted by and under the personal supervision of himself or of an assistant who is a pharmaceutical chemist or a legally qualified medical practitioner.

Pharmaceutical chemist; business to be carried on by the principal himself or by a qualified assistant.

(2.) Every pharmaceutical chemist, and every licensed vendor of poisons, and every person or assistant under whose conduct or management the business or any branch of the business of a pharmaceutical chemist is carried on, shall have his name legibly painted or written, and continually so maintained, on a conspicuous place on the front of the building where such business is carried on.

Chemists and persons licensed to sell poisons to have their names painted up.

(3.) Every person who fails to comply with or acts contrary to any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds, and an additional penalty of Five pounds for every day during which such failure or act continues.

5. EVERY person licensed under the principal Act to sell poisons shall, immediately on demand being made to him at his shop or place of business by a member of the Council or its Registrar, or any person authorised in writing under the hand of the President or Registrar, produce and show the book to be kept under section twenty-nine of the principal Act, and permit the same to be examined, and any person neglecting, failing, or refusing to produce and show such book on demand, or to permit the same to be examined, shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act, Person licensed to sell poisons to produce on demand by certain persons the book required to be kept by 58 Vict., 35, s. 29.

Pharmacy and Poisons—Amendment.

Act, and be liable, on conviction, to the same fine or imprisonment as is mentioned in section thirty-three of the principal Act.

Evidence under section 38 of 58 Vict., 35, and section 5 of this Act.

6. IN any prosecution under section thirty-eight of the principal Act, or section five hereof, the fact that any person is apparently employed or engaged in any shop, house, or premises where drugs are kept or stored for sale, or acts in the capacity of a salesman therein, shall be prima facie proof that such person carries on business as a pharmaceutical chemist in such shop, house, or premises, and personally conducts and supervises the business carried on therein.

Person duly qualified at passing of Act not prevented from trading as chemist.

Proviso,

7. NOTHING in this Act contained, or in the principal Act, shall prevent any person carrying on the business or occupation of a pharmaceutical chemist in Western Australia, who, at the passing of this Act, is possessed of any qualification legally recognised in any of the Australasian colonies, and has been resident in the Colony for the period of three months immediately preceding the passing of this Act: Provided that such person shall apply to be registered under the provisions of this Act within three months after the passing thereof; and if any such person shall not so apply, he shall be excluded from the provisions of this section.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

No. XLIII.

AN ACT to encourage the Recovery of Gold by Sluicing, Dredging, and other means.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to give facilities for extracting Gold from lands unsuited to ordinary Mining: Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Sluicing and Dredging for Gold Act, 1899.

Short title.

2. UNLESS the context otherwise requires, expressions used in this Act shall have the same meanings as the same expressions have in the Goldfields Act, 1895, as amended by the Act passed in the sixty-second year of Her Majesty, numbered sixteen.

Interpretation.

3.

Sluicing and Dredging for Gold.

Power to grant gold mining leases of lakes, swamps, etc., subject to regulations.

3. THE Minister, on the recommendation of the Warden and with the approval of the Governor, and subject to regulations to be made under this Act, may grant gold mining leases of any Crown land for the purposes of sluicing and dredging for gold in any lakes, swamps, or marshes not suited to ordinary mining.

Term, rent, and area.

4. EVERY lease shall be for a term of twenty-one years, and shall reserve a rental of sixpence per acre, payable yearly in advance, and also a royalty of one shilling per ounce on all gold won, and may include an area of not exceeding five thousand acres.

Covenants, etc.

5. EVERY lease shall contain the following covenants by the lessee:—

1. That he will pay the rent and royalty reserved by the lease as and when the same shall become due:
2. That the lessee will not use the land demised for any other purpose than that of sluicing and dredging for gold:
3. That he will, during the term of the lease, after the first twelve months, keep continuously employed in sluicing or dredging for gold upon the land demised machinery of a value of not less than Three thousand pounds for every two thousand acres in the lease.
4. That he will annually, on such dates as shall be fixed in the lease, furnish a statement showing the amount of gold derived from the land demised.

And shall also contain—

- (a.) A reservation of the right of all persons not interfering with or impeding the lessee to enter and go upon the land for water-condensing purposes, and also to take water therefrom:
- (b.) Such reservations, and such other covenants and conditions as may be prescribed by regulation:
- (c.) A proviso that the lease shall be liable to forfeiture on breach or non-compliance with any covenant or condition in the lease.

Land leased under this Act to be deemed private land and not subject to certain restrictions contained in 62 Vict., 29, Sec. 8 (4).

6. LAND the subject of gold mining leases under this Act shall, for the purpose of mining for gold in any lode, reef, or vein, be deemed private land within the meaning of the Mining on Private Property Act. 1898, and if such land is enclosed the owner of a miner's right who desires to obtain possession of a claim, or a person who desires to obtain a lease for mining in any lode, reef, or vein therein, shall not be precluded by anything contained in the Mining on Private Property Act from entering on such land merely by reason of a spring, lake, or dam being thereon.

Sluicing and Dredging for Gold.

7. THE Governor may make regulations for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

Regulations.

1. For prescribing forms :
2. For prescribing the mode of applying for leases and the reservations, covenants, and conditions to be inserted therein :
3. For prescribing the procedure for forfeiture of leases ;
4. For carrying out and giving force and effect to the object and purposes of this Act.

8. THE Minister may, at any time, suspend or waive all or any of the lessee's covenants and conditions contained in any lease, in any case where he is satisfied that, by reason of special circumstances, it would be impossible to comply with, or would inflict great hardship upon the lessee to enforce such covenants or conditions.

Power to Minister to suspend or waive covenants.

A return of all suspensions or waivers, with the reasons therefor, shall be annually laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month after the opening of the next session of Parliament for the despatch of business.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XLV.

AN ACT to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Bills of Sale, Liens, and Bailments.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preliminary.

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Bills of Sale Act, 1899. Short title
2. THIS Act shall come into force on the 1st day of March, 1900. Date of coming into operation.
3. THIS Act shall apply to every bill of sale and debenture executed on or after the 1st March, 1900, whereby power is given or conferred, either with or without notice, and either immediately or at any future time, to seize or take possession of any chattels comprised in or made subject to such bill of sale or debenture. Application of Act.
4. (1.) THE Acts mentioned in the First Schedule are repealed, to the extent to which the same are thereby expressed to be repealed. Repeal.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

(2.) No such repeal shall affect any bill of sale made, given, or executed before the commencement of this Act, nor the registration thereof, or the rights or liabilities of any person in connection therewith, except with respect to renewal of registration or as hereinafter mentioned.

Interpretation.

5. IN this Act, and for the purposes thereof, if not inconsistent with the context,—

“ Bill of Sale.”

“ Bill of Sale ” includes any document or agreement whatsoever, whether by deed or by parol. and whether by way of sale, security, gift, or bailment ;

(1.) Transferring, or intended to transfer, or to be a record or evidence of the transfer of the property in or right to the possession of chattels ; or

(2.) By which a right, authority, or license to the possession of or to seize any chattels, or to any charge or security thereon shall be conferred or reserved.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the right of a landlord to distrain for rent or the right to distrain for rent on a demise by a mortgagee in possession to the mortgagor as his tenant at a fair and reasonable rent.

“ Bill of sale ” shall not include assignments for the benefit of the creditors of the grantor, made pursuant to any statutory provision ; transfers or assignments of any ship or vessel, or any share thereof ; transfers of goods in the ordinary course of business of any trade or calling ; debentures issued by any company or other corporate body, and registered under the provisions hereinafter contained ; ante-nuptial settlements ; bills of sale of goods in any foreign parts or at sea ; bills of lading, warehouse-keeper's certificate, custom warrants, or other warrants or orders for the delivery of goods, or any other documents used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, or authorising or purporting to authorise, either by indorsement or delivery, the possessor of such document to transfer or receive the goods thereby represented.

Crops.”

“ Crops ” means European flax, hemp, wheat, maize, barley, oats, and grass, whether for hay or for grain, and all cereal and root crops and fruit.

“ Chattels.”

“ Chattels ” includes any personal property capable of complete transfer by delivery, including fixtures and growing crops when separately assigned, charged, or bailed, and also book debts, but shall not include choses in action other than book debts.

No fixtures shall be deemed separately assigned, charged, or bailed, and no growing crops shall be deemed separately assigned, or charged, by reason only that they are assigned, charged, or bailed, or

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

or assigned or charged respectively by separate words, or that power is given to sever them from the premises to which they are affixed or on which they grow, without otherwise taking possession of or dealing with such premises, if by the same instrument any freehold or leasehold interest in the premises to which such fixtures are affixed, or on which such crops grow, is also conveyed, transferred, bailed, or mortgaged to the same person or persons.

The machinery used in or attached to any factory or workshop as hereinafter defined, shall be chattels within the meaning of this Act ; but

- (1.) The fixed motive-powers, such as the water-wheels and steam and other engines, and the steam-boilers, donkey-engines, and other fixed appurtenances of the said motive-powers ; and
- (2.) The fixed-power machinery, such as the shafts, wheels, drums, and their fixed appurtenances which transmit the action of the motive-powers to the other machinery, fixed and loose ; and
- (3.) The pipes for steam, gas, and water, in the factory or workshop, shall not be chattels within the meaning of this Act.

“ Factory or workshop ” means any premises on which any manual labour is exercised by way of trade or for purposes of gain, in or incidental to the following purposes, or any of them, that is to say:—The making of any article, or part of an article, or the altering, repairing, ornamenting, or finishing of any article, or part of any article ; or the adapting for sale any article, or part of any article. “ Factory.”

“ Grantor ” includes the bailee and lessee of any bill of sale by way of bailment or lease. “ Grantor.”

“ Grantee ” includes the bailor and lessor of any bill of sale by way of bailment or lease. “ Grantee.”

“ Contemporaneous advance ” means an advance of money by the grantee to or at the request of the grantor or the sale of goods or property upon credit, or the drawing, accepting, indorsing, making, or giving of any bill of exchange, promissory note, or the execution of any guarantee, bond, or other similar undertaking by the grantee to, for, or on behalf of the grantor on the security of any bill of sale, and contemporaneously with the granting, or within three days of the registration thereof. Any unpaid purchase money shall be deemed a contemporaneous advance if the bill of sale be executed within twenty-one days after the sale in respect of which such purchase money is owing. “ Advance.”

“ Stock ”

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

- "Stock." "Stock" includes any sheep, cattle, horses, mules, asses, camels, pigs, and poultry.
- "Apparent possession." "Apparent possession."—Chattels shall be deemed to be in the apparent possession of the grantor of a bill of sale so long as they remain or are in or upon any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or building occupied or used by him, or are used or employed by him in any place whatsoever, notwithstanding that formal possession thereof may have been taken by or given to any other person.
- "Registrar." "Registrar" means the Registrar of the Supreme Court, and includes a Deputy or Acting Registrar.
- "Prescribed." "Prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.
- "Bill of sale by way of security." "Bill of sale by way of security" means a bill of sale to secure the payment of money or the performance of some obligation.

*Registration.6. EVERY bill of sale shall contain:—

Bill of sale to contain names and addresses of parties.

- (1.) The names of the grantor and grantee, their residences or places of business, and their occupations; provided that it shall be sufficient to state the names by which the parties are usually known, and, in case of a corporation, to state the corporate name, with the principal place of business of the corporation in Western Australia.

True consideration.

- (2.) The true consideration, and what portion, if any, is for an antecedent debt or contemporaneous advance; provided that the consideration shall be sufficiently stated, notwithstanding that the costs relative to such bill of sale shall have been deducted from or added to the amount of the expressed consideration.

Where chattels situated.

- (3.) The place where the chattels therein referred to, other than after acquired property, are situated at the time of the granting of such bill of sale.

The amount secured or rent payable.

- (4.) The sums, if any, thereby secured, and the true rate of interest, if any, payable, and in case of a security for a running account, open guarantee, or proposed further advances, the maximum amount of the balance or advances to be covered.

Future crops and progeny of stock may be included in bill of sale.

7. THE following classes of property may be assigned by bill of sale, either absolutely or by way of security, and shall be deemed to have been assigned at law as well as in equity, that is to say:—

- (1.) Crops (separately assigned) sown or growing at the time of the execution of the bill of sale, but without prejudice to

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

to the rights of a prior bona fide purchaser or mortgagee by deposit or otherwise of the land on which any such crops shall grow.

- (2.) The progeny coming into existence during the operation of any bill of sale of or which comprises any stock. .

And the possession of such mortgaged crops or progeny by the grantor or any person claiming through him shall, to all intents and purposes, be deemed the possession of the grantee. The assignment of all other after acquired property shall have the same effect as provided by the rules of common law or equity.

8. EVERY bill of sale shall be attested and registered under this Act in the following manner:—

Attestation and registration of bill of sale.

- (1.) The execution thereof shall be attested by at least one credible witness not being a party thereto.
- (2.) The attesting witness, or one of them, if two or more, shall make an affidavit stating—
 - (a.) The place where and the date when the bill of sale was executed ;
 - (b.) The residence or place of business and the occupation of the grantor and grantee, or in case the same is made or given by any person under or in execution of any process, then of the residence or place of business and occupation of the person against whom such process issued ; and
 - (c.) The residence or place of business and the occupation, if known, of every attesting witness.
- (3.) The bill of sale with every schedule or inventory therein referred to or thereto annexed, and also a true copy of such bill of sale, schedule, or inventory, and of every attestation of the execution thereof, and the said affidavit shall be presented for registration to, and the said copy bill of sale and affidavit shall be filed with, the Registrar.

Upon the filing of such copy bill of sale the same shall be registered by the Registrar.

9. ANY affidavit required by this Act may be sworn before a Commissioner to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Western Australia, or any Justice of the Peace of the Colony or any district of the Colony, or any Notary Public.

Who may swear affidavits.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

Periods for registration.

10. THE periods within which a bill of sale shall be presented for registration shall be such as may be prescribed from time to time, but until rules are made hereunder and subject thereto, such periods shall be:—

Within 30 miles of Perth: 7 days.

(1.) Seven days from the day of execution, if executed at a place not more than thirty miles distant from the city of Perth.

300 miles: 14 days.

(2.) Fourteen days from the day of execution, if executed at or within fifty miles of the municipality of Albany, Southern Cross, Coolgardie, Kalgoorlie, Menzies, Geraldton, or Cue, or if executed at a place outside such limits, and being more than thirty miles distant from the said city, but not more than two hundred miles from the said city.

500 miles: 30 days.

(3.) Thirty days if executed at a place outside the limits aforesaid, and more than two hundred miles but less than five hundred miles from the said city.

Over 500 miles: 60 days.

(4.) Sixty days from the day on which it was executed, if executed at a place outside the limits aforesaid, and five hundred miles or more from the said city.

In East Kimberley or outside of the Colony: 21 days after post.

(5.) If executed within the magisterial district of East Kimberley within the Colony, or at any place out of Western Australia, then within twenty-one days after the time at which the bill of sale would, in the ordinary course of post, arrive in the said city, if posted immediately after the execution thereof.

Provided that the day on which the instrument is executed shall not be included in the said periods: And provided further, that when the time for presenting a bill of sale expires on a day on which the Registrar's office is closed, the presentation shall be valid if made on the next following day on which such office is open.

Registrar shall file and register and keep "Register Book."

11. (1.) THE Registrar shall cause every bill of sale presented for registration under the provisions of this Act to be numbered, and shall mark on the filed copy thereof the date of the presentation and of the registration thereof and the number thereof, and shall keep a "Register Book" in which shall be inserted the date when such bill of sale is registered, and the particulars, according to the form given in the Second Schedule to this Act.

(2.) The Registrar shall also keep an index of the names of grantors and grantees of bills of sale, with references to the entries in the register book of the bill of sale given by each such grantor.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

(3.) Such index shall be arranged in divisions corresponding with the letters of the alphabet, so that all grantors and grantees whose surnames begin with the same letter (and no others) shall be comprised in one division, but the arrangement within each such division need not be strictly alphabetical.

(4.) Where a bill of sale has been made or given by any person under or in the execution of any process of Court, then the name, residence, and occupation of the person against whom such process was issued, and also the name of the grantee thereof, shall be inserted in the book to be kept as aforesaid.

Mode of registration where document given in execution of any process.

12. THERE shall be paid to the Registrar, upon presenting a bill of sale for registration, or upon the renewal of registration of every bill of sale, the fee of fifteen shillings, including the fee for filing the affidavit of execution or renewal.

Fees on registration.

13. A JUDGE of the Supreme Court on being satisfied that the omission to present for registration a bill of sale, or an affidavit of renewal thereof within the time required by or prescribed under this Act, or that any omission or misstatement in a bill of sale, or in any affidavit of any matter hereby required to be stated, was unavoidable, accidental, or due to inadvertence, may at any time order such omission or misstatement to be rectified, by extending the time for such registration, or by the filing of a supplementary affidavit, or by directing such matter to be stated and directing the rectification of the register, affidavit, or bill of sale or copy accordingly, and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

Judge may extend time or amend error

Renewal of Registration.

14. (1.) THE registration of a bill of sale, executed after the commencement of this Act, shall, during the subsistence thereof, be renewed, in manner hereinafter mentioned, once in every period of three years commencing from the day of the registration.

Time for renewal.

(2.) The registration of any bill of sale registered under the provisions of any Act hereby repealed shall be renewed under this Act within five years from the last registration or renewal of registration thereof under such repealed Act, and thereafter the registration of such bill of sale shall be renewed as if the same had been executed after the commencement of this Act.

15. IF not so renewed such registration shall cease to be of any effect at the expiration of any period of three or five years, as the case may be, during which a renewal has not been made as hereby required.

If not renewed, document void.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

Mode of renewal.

16. THE registration of a bill of sale shall be renewed by filing in the office of the Registrar an affidavit stating the residence and description of the grantor, and, in case of a bill of sale, by way of security the amount due thereon.

Registration of renewal.

17. THE Registrar shall thereupon number such affidavit as if the same were a bill of sale presented for registration, and re-number the copy of the bill of sale originally registered in the said office, with a similar number, and shall mark on the same the date of renewal of registration, and shall enter particulars in the register book in like manner as on an original registration, and shall also enter the date of renewal of registration in the column provided therefor.

Searches and Office-copies.

Search may be made of records.

18. THE Register Book and every bill of sale registered as aforesaid, or the filed copy thereof, may be inspected by all persons during the office hours of the Supreme Court, upon payment for every search against each person of the fee of one shilling.

Office-copy or extract may be taken.

19. ANY person shall be entitled to have an office-copy or an extract of any bill of sale, or the filed copy thereof, and of any affidavit filed under this Act, upon paying for the same at the rate of fourpence for every folio of seventy-two words contained in such copy or extract, or if he make such copy or extract himself the Registrar shall, upon satisfying himself that such copy or extract is correctly made, certify to the same upon payment of a fee of five shillings for each bill of sale or extract thereof.

Registration to be prima facie evidence of due execution, etc.

20. EVERY bill of sale registered and affidavit filed under this Act shall, if purporting to have been duly executed or sworn, be prima facie presumed to have been duly executed or sworn, and an office copy of any bill of sale or of the filed copy thereof and the schedules or inventories or affidavit purporting to be certified to by the Registrar (of whose signature judicial notice shall be taken in all Courts), and every certificate purporting to be signed by the Registrar of the time when the same shall have been registered or renewed shall, in all Courts, and before all arbitrators or other persons, be received as prima facie evidence of the contents of the bill of sale and the schedules or inventories thereto, or of the affidavit; of the signatures of the parties thereto who purport to have signed the same; of the signatures of the attesting witnesses thereto; of the fact that the said bill of sale has been duly registered and renewed and the affidavit duly filed, and of the time when the same shall have been registered or filed.

21. UPON the production to the Registrar of a memorandum of satisfaction of a bill of sale by way of security, signed by the grantee thereof, or his attorney, discharging the chattels comprised therein, or any specified part thereof, from the moneys secured thereby, or any specified part thereof, or from the performance of the obligation thereby secured, or any specified part thereof, and on production of such bill of sale and payment of a fee of five shillings the Registrar shall file such memorandum and make an entry thereof in the register book on the page where the bill of sale is registered. The execution of such memorandum shall be verified by the affidavit of the attesting witness thereto.

Memo. of satisfaction may be filed.

The Registrar may, in his discretion, dispense with the production of the bill of sale on proof to his satisfaction, by affidavit or otherwise, that the bill of sale has been destroyed, lost, or cannot be produced.

22. FROM and after the filing of any such memorandum the debt or charge created by the said bill of sale shall be discharged to the extent specified in such memorandum.

On filing memo. the debt shall be discharged.

23. IF the grantee of any bill of sale by way of security shall be absent from the Colony, and there be no known person in the Colony authorised to discharge the same on his behalf, at or after the date appointed for the payment by such bill of sale, the Registrar may receive such moneys in trust for the person entitled thereto, and may sign a memorandum of satisfaction in lieu of such person, and upon the filing of such memorandum the same shall be as effectual as a memorandum signed by the person entitled to such moneys.

If grantee absent the Registrar may receive money.

24. ANY Judge of the Supreme Court may order a memorandum of satisfaction to be filed in respect of any bill of sale by way of security if it shall appear to him that the debt (if any) for which such bill of sale is given as security has been satisfied or discharged, or that the obligation for securing the performance of which the bill of sale has been given has been performed, and thereupon such order may be filed by the Registrar and entered in his book in like manner as if the same had been a memorandum within the meaning of section twenty-one hereof.

Judge may order memorandum of discharge to be entered.

Effect of Registration.

25. EVERY bill of sale, unless complying with the terms of section six of this Act, and every debenture, unless complying with the terms of section fifty-one of this Act, and duly registered and renewed renewed in the manner and time herein provided, shall, upon the expiration of the time, or extended time for registration or renewal, be deemed fraudulent and void as against:

Effect of registration.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

- (a.) The trustee or liquidator under the law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or winding up of the estate of the grantor.
- (b.) The assignee or trustee acting under any statutory assignment for the benefit of the creditors of such grantor.
- (c.) All sheriffs, bailiffs, and other persons seizing the chattels, or any part thereof, comprised in any such bill of sale, in the execution of any process of any Court authorising the seizure of the chattels of such grantor, and against every person on whose behalf such process shall have been issued, so far as regards the property in or right to the possession of any chattels comprised in such bill of sale or debenture, which at or after the time of the presentation of the petition in bankruptcy, or winding up, or of the passing of an effective resolution for winding up, or of the execution of such assignment, or of executing such process (as the case may be), and after the expiration of the period within which such bill of sale or debenture is required to be registered, shall be in the possession or apparent possession of the grantor, or of any person against whom the process shall have issued under or in the execution of which such bill of sale has been made or given, as the case may be.

Application of
possession."

26. UNTIL the expiration of the time, or extended time, for registration of any bill of sale, and so long as such bill of sale continues to be registered hereunder, the chattels comprised in any bill of sale shall not be deemed to be in the possession, order, or disposition of the grantor within the meaning of any Act relating to bankruptcy or insolvency for the time being in force.

Bona fide purchaser not affected by unregistered bill of sale.

27. NO bill of sale shall be valid or effectual against any purchaser bona fide and for valuable consideration without express notice, unless such bill of sale shall, within the times aforesaid, be duly registered and renewed under the provisions of this Act.

Chattels liable to distress for rates.

28. A BILL of sale, whether heretofore or hereafter executed, shall not protect the chattels therein comprised against any distress for any rates or taxes payable by the owner or occupier of any land under any existing or future Act of Parliament.

Extent of liability for rent.

29. NO distress for any rent accrued, due after the registration of any bill of sale, made or levied upon any chattels comprised in any bill of sale hereafter registered, shall be available, except for four weeks'

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

weeks' rent where the premises or tenement is let by the week ; for two terms of payment, but not exceeding three months, where the premises or tenement is let for any term less than six months ; or for six months' rent where the premises or tenement is let for any longer term, unless the landlord shall pay off or discharge the liability on such bill of sale.

General.

30. IF any bill of sale shall be made or given subject to any defeasance, condition, or declaration of trust not contained in the body thereof, such defeasance, condition, or declaration of trust shall, for the purposes of this Act, be taken as part of such bill of sale, and shall be written on or a copy thereof annexed to the same paper or parchment on which such bill of sale shall be written, otherwise such bill of sale shall be void against the persons and to the extent mentioned in section twenty-five.

When instrument made subject to a defeasance not contained therein.

Provided that in the case of a document also securing the payment of the moneys payable under a bill of sale or any part of such moneys, it shall not be necessary for the purposes of this section to write such document on the same paper or parchment if the date, names of the parties thereto, and the amount secured by such document and short particulars of the property affected be set forth in such bill of sale or some schedule thereto.

This section shall not apply to any bill of exchange or promissory note comprising the amount secured or any part thereof.

31. EVERY bill of sale given absolutely or by way of security shall be fraudulent and void as against the trustee in bankruptcy or under any statutory assignment, and also as against the liquidator in the winding-up of the estate of the grantor if it has been executed within six months prior to the filing of the petition on which the order of adjudication or winding-up order is made, or to the resolution for voluntary winding-up, or to the execution by the grantor of the assignment for the benefit of creditors except as to any contemporaneous advance and interest thereon, and except, also, as to any money advanced or paid, or the actual price of goods sold or supplied, or the amount of any liability undertaken by the grantee of such bill of sale or his assignee to, for, or on account of the grantor after the registration, but on the security of the said bill of sale, but not exceeding the maximum amount covered thereby.

Bill of sale void in certain cases except for present advances, etc.

32. EVERY bill of sale hereafter given absolutely or by way of security shall be fraudulent and void as against all sheriffs, bailiffs, and other persons seizing the chattels, or any part thereof, comprised therein in the execution of any process of any Court under any writ or warrant of execution issued within three months from the Bill of sale void as to execution on existing debts.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

the registration of the said bill of sale on a judgment or order entered, made, or obtained in respect of a liquidated debt incurred by the grantor before the registration of the said bill of sale, and also against every person on whose behalf such process shall have issued, except as by the last preceding section mentioned.

Bill of sale takes effect from date.

33. EVERY bill of sale shall be deemed to be made on and shall only take effect from the day on which it is executed.

Priority of instruments affecting same chattels.

34. IN case two or more bills of sale are executed comprising in whole or in part any of the same chattels, priority shall be given to such bill of sale or bills of sale in the order of the date of their presentation for registration respectively as regards the title to or right to the possession of such chattels: Provided that such prior bill of sale shall not be affected if presented for registration within the time or extended time limited by this Act.

Avoidance of duplicate bills of sale.

35. WHERE a bill of sale is executed after the execution of a prior unregistered bill of sale, and comprises all or any of the chattels comprised in such prior bill of sale, then if such subsequent bill of sale is given as a security for the same debt or liability as is secured by the prior bill of sale, or for any part of such debt or liability, it shall to such extent and so far as respects the chattels comprised in the prior bill of sale, be void to the extent and as against the persons mentioned in section twenty-five hereof; unless it be proved to the Court having cognisance of the case that the subsequent bill of sale was bona fide given for the purpose of correcting some material error in the prior bill of sale, and not for the purpose of evading this Act.

Grantee may bid for and purchase chattels.

36. NOTWITHSTANDING any rule of law or equity to the contrary, the grantee of any bill of sale by way of security may at any time after he has demanded payment of the moneys or performance of the conditions secured by such bill of sale:

- (1.) Bid for and purchase the whole or any part or parts of the chattels comprised in such bill of sale at any public auction thereof held under the power of sale contained or implied in such bill of sale.
- (2.) Appoint in writing and from time to time remove any person as receiver and manager of the chattels comprised in any such bill of sale to obtain and hold possession thereof, and, if thought fit, to carry on any business in connection therewith pending the sale thereof, and such person shall have the same rights, powers, and privileges as if such person were appointed by the Supreme Court.

The

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

The remuneration of such receiver and his costs and expenses shall be paid by the grantor, and shall be a first charge upon the chattels comprised in the bill of sale.

Bills of Sale of Stock.

37. IN any bill of sale comprising stock, the stock therein comprised shall be described or referred to therein by some brand or brands or other mark or marks on such stock, or shall be otherwise described or referred to by sex, age, name, colour, or otherwise, so as to be reasonably capable of identification; otherwise the same shall be void to the extent and as against the persons mentioned in section twenty-five hereof so far as regards such or so much of such stock as may not be so described or referred to or be otherwise reasonably capable of identification, and the land or premises on which such stock are shall be described or mentioned in such bill of sale: Provided that in any bill of sale over stock on any station or farm such stock shall be sufficiently identified by reference to the places where the same are usually depasturing.

Stock to be described, etc.

38. A BILL of sale comprising stock shall, unless the contrary be expressed therein, be deemed to include not only the stock comprised therein as provided by the last preceding section, but also the increase of such stock, and all stock the property of the grantor branded or marked, or which shall have been or be branded or marked with the brand or mark specified in the bill of sale which the grantor shall have covenanted by such bill of sale to so brand or mark, and which shall, after the execution of such bill of sale during the continuance of the security, be depasturing, or be at, in, or upon any lands or premises mentioned in such bill of sale.

Bill of sale of stock to include progeny.

Bill of Sale over Crops.

39. A BILL of sale, by way of security, may be granted over the crops described or referred to therein then actually sown in or growing upon the lands mentioned in such bill of sale, and shall entitle the grantee thereof to the whole of the crops therein mentioned, not only while growing, but afterwards when cut or separated from the soil, and stacked or stored on the land where grown, or on any other land or premises of the grantor or grantee.

Bill of sale may be granted over crops.

40. NO such bill of sale shall give any security over crops which, in the ordinary course of husbandry, cannot be harvested and taken off such land within one year from the date of the execution of such bill of sale.

Not available except against annual crops.

41. NO such bill of sale shall prejudicially affect the rights of any landlord or mortgagee of any land whereon the said crops shall be be growing or stacked unless and to the extent to which such landlord or mortgagee has consented in writing to such bill of sale: Provided that no such bill of sale, if duly registered, shall be prejudicially affected by any subsequent sale, lease, mortgage, or other encumbrance of or upon the land described or referred to in such bill of sale, or in the schedule thereto.

Bill of Sale over Wool.

42. A BILL of sale, by way of security, may be granted over the wool of the then next ensuing clip to be shorn from the sheep described or referred to therein and then depasturing upon the lands mentioned therein, and shall entitle the grantee thereof to the wool of such sheep, not only while growing but afterwards when shorn from the sheep, and stacked or stored on any premises of the grantor or grantee.

Not affected by subsequent dealing.

43. NO subsequent sale, bailment, mortgage, or other encumbrance of the sheep mentioned in any such bill of sale shall prejudicially affect such bill of sale or the rights of the grantee thereof to the wool specified or referred to therein.

Form of security.

44. ANY such bill of sale may be in the form set forth in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

Bill of sale over mortgaged sheep.

45. IT shall be lawful for the grantor of any bill of sale, by way of security over sheep, but only with the consent in writing of the grantee thereof, and to the extent authorised by such consent, to give a valid security as aforesaid on the next ensuing clip of the wool of such sheep.

Miscellaneous.

Bill of sale to secure less than £30 and secret bill of sale void.

46. EVERY bill of sale by way of security given or made in consideration of any sum or liability not exceeding Thirty pounds shall be void.

Covenants to be joint and several.

47. WHENEVER there is more than one grantor or more than one grantee of any bill of sale, then any covenants, conditions, provisos, powers, and agreements expressed in such bill of sale, and imposing an obligation on such grantors or grantees, or inuring for the benefit of such grantors or grantees, shall be deemed to impose such obligations or confer such benefits as the case may be, severally as well as jointly unless and in so far as a contrary intention appears.

Covenants to bind representatives.

48. IN any bill of sale, unless the contrary be expressed, all covenants, conditions, provisos, powers, and agreements therein expressed shall bind the executors, administrators, and assigns of the person upon whom such covenants, provisos, powers, and agreements ments shall impose an obligation, and shall operate for the benefit of the executors, administrators, and assigns of the person for whose benefit the same shall inure.

49. EVERY grantor of a bill of sale who, by sale or delivery of any chattels comprised in or affected by such bill of sale, without the written consent of the grantee, or by any other means shall defraud or attempt to defraud the grantee of the same or any part thereof, and thus, or by any other means, directly or indirectly defeat, invalidate, or impair his security over or property in the same, and every person who shall aid and abet any person whomsoever in defrauding or attempting to defraud the grantee by defeating, invalidating, or impairing such bill of sale, or in attempting to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable, on conviction thereof, to a fine not exceeding One hundred pounds, with or without imprisonment and with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding two years: Provided that in respect of an instrument comprising stock under section thirty-seven or section thirty-eight hereof, the shearing of sheep given as security, and the sale or disposal of the wool of such sheep, in the ordinary course of business, before default shall have been made and possession taken or demand for payment made under the bill of sale creating such security, shall not be deemed an offence under this section.

Attempt to defraud grantee punishable
as misdemeanour.

50. RULES for the purposes of this Act may be made and altered from time to time by the like person and in the like manner in which rules and regulations may be made under and for the purposes of the Supreme Court Act, 1880.

Rules.

Debentures.

51. EVERY debenture issued by any company or other incorporated body registered or incorporated or carrying on business in Western Australia shall be registered under this Act in the following manner:—

Registration of debentures.

- (1.) A written notice in the form and containing the information indicated in the Fifth Schedule hereto shall be presented to and filed with the Registrar, who shall indorse thereon the date of such filing. A copy of the debenture, or if a series of debentures be issued, a copy of one debenture of each series shall accompany and be filed with such notice.
- (2.) Registration of a debenture, or of a series of debentures, may be renewed by the holder of any debenture, or by any officer of the company or body issuing the same.

The renewal of registration of any one debenture of a series shall be deemed a renewal of all the debentures of such series.

52.

Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

Application of prior sections.

52. (1.) SECTIONS nine to thirty-six, both inclusive (except section thirty), and also sections forty-six to fifty, both inclusive, of this Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to every debenture issued as aforesaid;

(2.) Such sections shall be read as if "Debenture" were throughout substituted for "Bill of Sale."

(3.) The presentation of the written notice aforesaid shall be deemed to be the presentation of the debenture for registration.

When more than one debenture is issued.
Fifth Schedule.

53. IF more than one debenture is issued or is to be issued in the same series, the form in the Fifth Schedule shall state such fact, and every debenture of such series shall be deemed registered on compliance with the provisions of section fifty-one as to any one debenture or proposed debenture of such series: Provided that no debenture of any such series shall be protected or be deemed registered unless the same is actually issued and taken up or allotted within six weeks from the compliance with the provisions of section fifty-one.

Exceptions.

54. NOTHING in this Act contained shall apply to any agreement for the hire, with or without a right of purchase, of any sewing-machine, piano, typewriter, or gas, electric light, or water meter.

No. XLVI.

AN ACT to prevent the Defacement of Bank Notes.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Bank Note Protection Act, 1899.

Short title.

2. EVERY person who commits any of the following acts shall be deemed to have committed an offence, and shall be liable, on conviction thereof before a Court of summary jurisdiction, to a fine not exceeding Five pounds; that is to say,—

Penalty for defacing bank notes.

(a.) Every person who, after the issue thereof, defaces any bank note by writing, printing, stamping, or marking on the front or back thereof his name, or the name of any other person, or any matter relating to the trade, business, or affairs of any person.

Instruments Act, 1890 (Victoria), 106.

Provided

Bank Note Protection.

Provided that it shall not be deemed an offence against this Act for the holder or holders of a bank note to indorse it with his or their signature or signatures, in writing, for the purpose of identification.

Definition of "bank note" for purposes of Act.

3. FOR the purposes of this Act the expression "bank note" shall mean any promissory note issued by a bank, payable to the bearer thereof without indorsement, or with no further or other indorsement than is thereon at the time of issue, and made for a sum for which the bank is lawfully authorised to issue such note.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

Western Australia.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XLVII.

AN ACT to amend the Fishery Act, 1889.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Fisheries Act, 1899, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, One thousand nine hundred.

Short title, incorporation, and commencement.

2. IN this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Boat” means any punt or boat or other vessel, whether propelled by oars, sails, steam, or any other means.

Interpretation.

“Boat license” means a license issued under this Act to use a boat for fishing.

“Close waters” means such Western Australian waters as by proclamation made under this Act are for the time being closed to fishing.

“Engine” means any hedge, weir, net, device, or contrivance of any kind for the purposes of catching fish or taking the spawn of fish.

“Fish”

Fisheries Act, 1899.

- “ Fish ” includes crustacea.
- “ Fisherman’s license ” means a license granted under this Act.
- “ Inspector ” means an Inspector or Sub-inspector of Fisheries, and any officer of police or constable, and any person appointed under the hand of the Minister or of a Justice of the Peace.
- “ Minister ” means the Minister administering this Act.
- “ Prescribed ” means prescribed by this Act or the principal Act, and the regulations thereunder or under the principal Act.
- “ Proclamation ” means a proclamation published in the Government Gazette.
- “ Regulations ” means the regulations made under this Act.
- “ Western Australian waters,” not exempted by proclamation from the operation of this Act, and includes every brook, creek, river, or stream of water, lake, or lagoon, whether salt or fresh, and every estuary and arm of the sea, and the sea to three miles from high-water mark.

Fishing-boats to be licensed.

3. NO boat shall be used for catching fish in Western Australian waters for sale, unless the owner of the boat is the holder of an annual boat license granted under this Act for that purpose.

On payment of a fee of One pound, or, after the thirtieth day of June in any year, of Ten shillings, the Minister may cause a boat license to be issued, authorising the use of the boat for fishing in Western Australian waters, specifying in such license the boat, and the name and address of the owner thereof; and every such license shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next after the issuing thereof.

All boat licenses shall be numbered consecutively as issued, and every licensed boat shall have the number of the license painted on the bow above the waterline, in figures not less than six inches in length, being white on a dark ground, or black on a light ground, and on the mainsail (if any), above all reef points, in figures not less than eighteen inches in length, and the owner shall keep such figures legibly painted during the currency of the license.

Every person using a boat in contravention of this section, and every owner allowing the same to be so used, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Fishermen fishing for sale to be licensed.

4. NO person shall engage in catching fish for sale unless he is the holder of a fisherman’s license granted under this Act for that purpose, and no person shall fish with a seine net unless he is the holder of a fisherman’s license.

On payment of a fee of Ten shillings, the Minister may cause a fisherman’s license to be issued to an adult person to be named therein therein, authorising the licensee to catch fish in Western Australian waters for sale, and, on payment of a fee of Five shillings, shall cause a like license to be issued to any person under the age of twenty-one years. Every license shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next after the issuing thereof.

Fisheries Act, 1899.

After the thirtieth day of June in any year, only one-half of the fees above mentioned shall be paid for the licenses by this section required respectively.

Every person who catches fish in Western Australian waters, for sale, or with a seine net, without being licensed as herein provided, or who employs for that purpose another person who is not so licensed, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

5. EVERY person who, in any Western Australian waters, stakes, fixes, or otherwise sets any net the mesh of which is of less than the prescribed dimension, or places, stakes, fixes, or otherwise sets any net across the mouth or from bank to bank of any channel, creek, tidal river or stream, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Forbidding the setting of certain nets or of any nets in certain places.

6. AN Inspector appointed under this Act, or any police officer or constable, may at any time go on board any boat or into any house, tent, or other premises to inspect fish, and to search for, seize, and take away any net suspected to have been used in violation of this Act or the regulations.

Inspector appointed under this Act may search for nets.

7. THE Governor may, at any time, by proclamation, do as follows:—

Governor may by proclamation :

Exempt any portion of the Colony specified in such proclamation from the operation of this Act, and may, in like manner, revoke such proclamation ;

Exempt portions of Colony from Act.

12. ALL persons charged with offences against this Act may be prosecuted before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction; and, where no punishment is specified for any offence, the person convicted thereof shall be liable to a fine of not more than Twenty pounds.

Incorporation of ss. of Schedule 2 of 62 Vict., 30.

13. THE sections lettered B, E, F, G, and H of the Second Schedule to the Interpretation Act, 1898, shall be incorporated with this Act.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

Western Australia.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XLVIII.

AN ACT to amend the Mineral Lands Act of 1892.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Mineral Lands Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be construed as one with the Mineral Lands Act of 1892, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation with
55 Vict., 3.

2. THE following amendments are hereby made in the principal Act:—

Amendments of 55
Vict., 3.

In section three, the word "Court," and the definition thereof, are struck out.

Section 3.

The definition of "Crown Lands" is struck out, and instead thereof the following definition is inserted: "shall include all lands of the Crown which have not been dedicated to any public purpose or reserved by the Governor, or which have not been lawfully granted in fee or lawfully contracted to

Goldfields Act, 1895, pt. 2. 4.

Mineral Lands.

to be so granted, or which are not held under lease or license, excepting pastoral and timber leases and licenses, and includes all lands situate between high and low water mark on the seashore and on the margin of tidal rivers ;” and

The following definitions are inserted, namely :—“ ‘ Minerals ’ : All precious stones and all minerals as prescribed by regulations, but not including gold ;” and “ ‘ Person,’ ‘ Holder,’ ‘ Owner,’ and ‘ Lessee ’ shall respectively include any body of persons, whether incorporated or not.”

Section 5.

Section five, sub-section one (g) is struck out, and the following is inserted instead thereof :—

(g.) To cut and remove any live or dead timber for mining or building purposes for his own personal use from any Crown lands not by law exempted from mining occupation nor within the operation of any proclamation or notification prohibiting the cutting or removal of such timber included in any reserve for the preservation of timber, and to remove any stone or gravel for mining or building purposes from any Crown land.

In sub-section three, all the words after the word “ miners ” are struck out.

Section 9.

In section nine, sub-section four is struck out.

Section 11.

In section eleven, paragraph (4) is struck out.

Section 12.

In section twelve, the words “ within a mining district,” in the third line, are struck out.

Section 17.

Section seventeen is repealed, and, in place thereof, the following section is substituted :—

Amalgamation of leases.
See Goldfields Act, 1898, s. 43, amended by 62 Vict., 16.

“ 17. On payment of a fee of Twenty shillings for each lease, any number of adjoining leases may be amalgamated, provided that the area of the leases so amalgamated shall not exceed four times the maximum area provided by the regulations for the working of the particular mineral for which the lease has been granted : Provided also, that the labour to be employed on or in connection with such amalgamated leases shall be the sum of the labour required by the conditions on each separate lease.”

Section 28.

Section twenty-eight is repealed, and, in place thereof, the following section is substituted :—

“ 28. EVERY person who, not being the holder of a mining license, is found working for minerals other than gold

Mineral Lands.

gold on Crown lands shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof before a Court of summary jurisdiction, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten pounds, and may be forcibly ejected from such Crown lands by the registrar, or his duly authorised officer, or any member of the police force."

In section thirty-one, sub-section (1) is struck out, and the following sub-section is substituted therefor:—

Section 31 (1).

"(1.) The lessee or licensee of any land applied for or held under this Act shall pay compensation for all improvements existing on any portion of the land comprised in such holding. In default of agreement the parties shall be deemed to have signed a submission under the Arbitration Act, 1895, dated as of the date of the lease or license, referring the question to two arbitrators, and the compensation shall be paid in accordance with the award under such submission."

In section thirty-two, the first paragraph is struck out, and the following paragraph is substituted therefor:—

Section 32.

"In the event of more than one application being made for the same land or any part thereof, the applicant who shall have first taken possession of and marked out the land in accordance with the regulations shall have priority of title."

See Goldfields Act, 1895, s. 44.

The first paragraph of section thirty-four and the next following paragraph numbered (1) are hereby repealed, and the following paragraphs are substituted therefor:—

Section 34.

"When gold is found in any land held under a lease otherwise than in association or combination with other minerals, the land may be dealt with, and leases thereof may be granted under the Goldfields Act, 1895, and the Acts amending the same as if the land were Crown lands, and notwithstanding anything contained in section thirty-three of the said Act; and in such case the registrar shall have, in respect of such dealing or lease, all the powers of a warden under the said Act,

See Queensland Act (46 Vict., 8), section 24.

"Provided that,—

(1.) Any person mining thereon for gold shall not interfere with the workings of the lessee in actual use, and shall not be entitled to acquire any mining tenement in or upon any mineral lease, except at a distance beyond two hundred yards from such workings or from the crushing, smelting, or any other works used for the reduction or treatment of minerals.

"In

Mineral Lands.

See Queensland
Mining Act of 1898,
62 Vict., 24, section
36.

"In the event of any dispute as to interference or as to what workings are in actual use, or as to what works are used for crushing, smelting, or are otherwise used for the reduction or treatment of such minerals, the registrar within whose jurisdiction the lease is situate shall decide the matter, and his decision shall be final between the parties."

Consolidated
Mining License.

See Goldfields Act,
1895, s. 15.

3. THE following section shall be inserted after section four:—

"4A. THE Minister may cause other documents to be issued, each to be called a Consolidated Mining License, and to be in force for one year; and, on the application of the manager or any trustee or trustees of any co-partnership, corporate body, or other legally constituted association of persons who have agreed to work in partnership any claim or claims registered under the provisions of this Act, such document shall be granted on payment of Ten shillings for each person which the same is to represent."

Applications for land not within mining district.

See 62 Vict., No. 16,
sec. 17.

4. FOR the purpose of all applications relating to land not within any proclaimed mining district, the Under Secretary for Mines shall be deemed to be a registrar, and the office of the Under Secretary for Mines in Perth shall be deemed to be a registrar's court.

Penalty for non-working land leased.

See Goldfields Act,
1895, s. 45.

5. UPON a complaint to the registrar by any holder of a mining license that the land comprised within any lease or application for lease under this Act or any Act hereby repealed is not being efficiently and continuously worked in the manner and by the number of men as prescribed by the regulations, the registrar shall, in open court, inquire into the matter of the complaint, and may take such evidence therein on oath as shall be tendered by the complainant, or by the person or persons claiming to be in possession of such land as aforesaid. If the evidence taken shall disclose that the number of men employed on the said land or solely in connection therewith is not equal to the number required as aforesaid by the regulations, the registrar may recommend that the lease, or application for lease, as the case may be, shall be forfeited, and the land comprised in such lease or application for such lease may be awarded to the complainant, who shall be allowed fourteen days from the date of the posting up at the registrar's office of the Gazette containing the notice of forfeiture within which to take possession and lodge an application for a lease, or occupy the land as a claim in accordance with the regulations. Within seven days after the hearing of any such complaint upon which a forfeiture is recommended, the registrar shall forward to the Minister, for his consideration and decision, the evidence taken in the complaint, together with his report and recommendation on the case: Provided that that in the case of a first breach of the labour conditions or regulations, it shall be lawful for the Minister to impose a fine as an alternative to forfeiture, and the whole or any portion of such fine may, in the discretion of the Minister, be awarded to the applicant for forfeiture.

6. AS soon as possible after the Minister shall have decided to refuse, void, or grant any application for a lease, or to refuse to approve of the forfeiture of a lease, or to void, cancel, or forfeit any lease issued under this Act or any Act repealed thereby, notice of such refusal or intention to grant a lease or such non-approval of the forfeiture of a lease, or the voidance, cancellation, or forfeiture of any lease shall be published in the Government Gazette, and such notice in the Gazette shall be prima facie evidence that such application was refused or granted, or that such forfeiture was not approved, or that such lease was voided, cancelled, or forfeited, and the land comprised therein open for occupation, subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations thereunder from the date of the posting up at the registrar's office of the Gazette containing the notice of voidance or cancellation or forfeiture.

Minister's decision notified in Gazette.
See Goldfields Act,
1895, sec. 48.

7. THE holder of any lease, claim, or ground taken up for the purpose of mining for minerals shall furnish the registrar with such periodical returns setting forth the quantity and value of the mineral won as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Returns of mineral won to be made.

8. SECTIONS thirty-seven, and from thence to the end of the principal Act, are hereby repealed, and the following sections are added:—

Sections added to
55 Vict., 3.

“37. IT shall be lawful for the Governor to establish, by proclamation, in any mining district, or in any division thereof, a court to be called the registrar's court, to be presided over and holden by a registrar, and every such court shall be a court of record, and shall possess such jurisdiction as is hereafter conferred, and be held at such places as the Governor may appoint.

Establishment of registrar's court.
See Goldfields Act,
1895, s. 49.

“38. FOR every court there shall be a seal, and all summonses, certificates, warrants, and other process issued by the registrar or the clerk of the said court shall be sealed or stamped with such seal.”

Seal of court.
Ibid., s. 50.

“39. EVERY registrar shall have and exercise jurisdiction in respect of the matters hereinafter contained throughout Western Australia, with power to issue summonses, warrants, or other process, which shall have legal effect and operation throughout the said Colony.

Jurisdiction of registrar's court.

Ibid., s. 52.

“ 40. EVERY such registrar's court shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions, suits, claims, demands, disputes, and questions arising wholly or in part within the district, and cognisable by a court of law or by a court of equity, relating to any of the following matters:—

- (1.) The claim of any person to the possession or occupation of any Crown land by virtue of a mining license or of a mineral lease, or to cut, construct, use, possess, occupy, or hold any interest in any race, drain, dam, well, reservoir, or water-bore for mining or other purposes.
- (2.) The claim of any person holding a mining license to recover any land, race, drain, dam, well, reservoir, or water-bore alleged to have been abandoned or forfeited under this Act or regulations thereunder, and to the mesne profits thereof.
- (3.) The claim of any person to the use, enjoyment, or sale of any water by virtue of a mining license, or to the priority of use and enjoyment as against any other claimant of water taken, diverted, or used, or claimed so to be under this Act or the regulations.
- (4.) Any encroachment or trespass upon, or unlawful interference with or injury to any such land, race, drain, dam, well, reservoir, or water-bore as aforesaid, or unlawful interference with or injury to any machinery thereon; any diversion or abstraction of water possessed or used under a mining license; the unlawful ouster or exclusion of any person from any share or interest in any such land, race, drain, dam, well, reservoir, water-bore, or water, and the damages and compensation for any such encroachment, trespass, ouster, diversion, abstraction, interference, or injury.
- (5.) Any claim for debt or damages, or both, arising out of or made in respect of any contract or agreement whatsoever relating to mining or to any holding, share, or interest authorised by this Act or the regulations, or the sale of or transfer of any claim, lease, or other authorised holding in connection with mining.
- (6.) The specific performance of any contract or agreement relating to any lease, claim, or authorised holding, holding, or of any share or interest therein respectively.

Mineral Lands.

- (7) The claim to any mineral in, or to be taken out of any land occupied or held under this Act or the regulations, and any matter concerning or arising out of any contract relating to such mineral.
- (8.) Concerning or arising out of any partnership for or in relation to mining for mineral on any Crown land occupied or held as aforesaid, or any partnership in any such land, or in any race, drain, dam, well, reservoir, water-bore, water, or mineral or concerning or arising out of any contract for, or in connection therewith, or for the dissolution, wholly or in part, of any such partnership, or which may arise between tenants in common or joint tenants in and in relation to any such land or water, or any share or interest therein.
- (9.) Concerning contributions to calls or to the expense of working or using any such land, race, drain, dam, well, water-bore, or reservoir, or any share or interest therein.
- (10.) Concerning, or out of any mortgage, assignment, or lien, by way of security of or charge upon any such land, race, drain, dam, well, water-bore, reservoir, water, or mineral vested in any person, whether the holder of a mining license or not, or any share or interest therein, or in a partnership therein.
- (11.) Concerning the cancellation and delivery up of instruments relating to mortgage charges or incumbrances of or upon any such land, race, drain, dam, well, water-bore, reservoir, water, or mineral, or any share or interest therein, or to any assignment of such mortgages, charges, and incumbrances, or to any contract respecting the working or use of, for mining purposes or otherwise, in relation to mining or respecting the using of any such reservoir, race, drain, dam, well, water-bore, or water, or respecting or in connection with any partnership for mining, or in any such land, race, drain, dam, well, reservoir, water-bore, water, or mineral, or respecting the dissolving in the whole or in part of any such partnership.

Mineral Lands.

- (12.) Concerning the ascertainment and adjustment of boundaries of land applied for, held, or occupied under this Act, or the regulations where such boundaries shall be in dispute or be confused or doubtful.
- (13.) To hear and determine all suits concerning any Crown lands or share or interest therein which the complainant shall claim to be entitled to take possession of and occupy for residence or business under a business license, and of which the defendant is and claims to be entitled to be in possession; any trespass upon any such land of which the complainant is in and of which he claims a right to occupation or possession under such license; any money claimed to be due to the complainant upon any mining partnership adventure or interest, and the recovery of any sum of money which any person shall be liable to pay under this section and for which no other mode of recovery is hereby provided.
- (14.) And generally all questions and disputes which may arise in relation to mining and the occupation of areas in a mining district.

And the jurisdiction hereby conferred shall extend to cases where the claim or title of either party to a suit is derivative by assignment or otherwise, as well as to where the same is original; and in all cases of debt or contract wherein the amount claimed shall not exceed Two hundred pounds the decision of the registrar's court shall be final and without appeal."

Proceedings before registrar, how to be commenced.

Ibid., s. 53.

"41. EVERY proceeding in a registrar's court shall be commenced by a plaint and summons in such form as may be provided by the regulations, and every such summons shall be issued by such registrar or his clerk upon the application of any complainant, and shall be filled up according to the nature of his case and so as to show the substance of the facts constituting the cause of complaint, and shall require the defendant to appear before the registrar's court on a day to be named in the summons; and upon the day so named or upon an adjourned day of hearing, and upon proof of such service or substituted service of the said summons as the registrar shall think sufficient, the court shall proceed to investigate the matter of such complaint, and in the presence of all the parties interested, or such of them as shall appear to him sufficiently to to represent all the parties interested, or in the absence of any of the parties interested who, having been duly served with such summons, shall not appear, shall hear, receive, and examine evidence and determine such complaint in a summary way, with full power to adjourn the hearing of such complaint to any other time or place, and to make all such amendments in any proceedings in such court as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real question in controversy between the parties: Provided that before any such summons as aforesaid shall be issued, the prescribed fee shall be paid by the complainant to the registrar or his clerk, and the said fee shall be deemed to be a part of the costs of the hearing."

"42. NOTWITHSTANDING the provisions and requirements of the last preceding section, it shall be lawful for the registrar, in his discretion, and if the parties concerned shall consent thereto, to hear and determine any such complaint (not including a money demand or for damages) summarily, and without requiring any formal proceedings to be taken in a registrar's court: Provided always, that both parties to the complaint shall be present at such hearing; and the decision of the registrar shall, in every such case, be final and conclusive, and a minute thereof shall be made by him in the register of complaints hereinafter mentioned."

Summary hearing of complaints.

Ibid., s. 54.

"43. (1.) WHEN the hearing of any complaint shall involve the trial of a right to any lease, claim, business area, or other authorised holding or share therein respectively, or any money due in respect thereof, or in any way connected therewith, the same shall, subject to the provisions next hereinafter contained, take place in the court for the district in which such lease, claim, business area, or other authorised holding is situate: Provided that if the registrar shall be satisfied that any cause or matter pending in any one court has been erroneously brought before such court, or could be more conveniently dealt with in any other court, he may order the clerk of the court to transmit a copy of the record of the proceedings to the clerk of such other court, and to give notice thereof to the parties, and immediately upon the receipt of any such transmitted record the clerk of the court receiving the same shall give notice thereof to the parties, and appoint a day for the further hearing or other consideration of the cause or matter, and the same shall be heard or considered accordingly.

office of a registrar, or his clerk, it shall be lawful for the applicant, having in all other respects complied with the regulations, to make application at the nearest office of the registrar or registrar's clerk to such lands. Where, after survey, it is ascertained that any lands the subject of an application are situate partly within the boundaries of any two or more districts or divisions thereof, such lands shall be deemed to be within the district of the nearest registrar.

Register of complaints.

Ibid., s. 56.

Schedule.

"44. EVERY registrar shall cause a register of complaints to be kept, in the form of the Schedule hereto, in which shall be entered every complaint laid before him, together with the names of the parties thereto, the nature of the relief sought, and, where the claim is for money, the amount sought to be recovered; and every one of such complaints shall be numbered consecutively every year according to the order in which it shall be entered."

Payment into court.

Ibid., s. 57.

"45. IT shall be lawful for the defendant in any case in the said court, at any time before the hearing thereof, to pay into court the amount claimed, together with the costs incurred by the complainant up to the time of such payment into court, and to give notice thereof to the complainant or his attorney; and the same shall be paid to the complainant, and, after such payment, no other proceeding shall be brought in any court in respect of the demand in satisfaction of which such amount shall have been so paid."

Payment to registrar of less than the demand.

Ibid., s. 58.

"46. ANY defendant in any case in the said court whereby a debt or money demand is sought to be recovered, may, at any time before the hearing thereof, pay into court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for such demand, together with the costs incurred by the complainant up to the time of such payment to be given to the complainant or his attorney; but if the complainant shall elect to proceed, and shall recover no further sum in respect of such money demand than shall have been so paid to the registrar, he shall pay to such defendant the costs incurred by him in the said proceedings after such payment, and the registrar may decree the same accordingly."

Complaints not to be dismissed for informality.

Ibid., s. 59.

"47. No complaint shall be dismissed by any registrar's court because of any informality either in the plaint or summons itself, or in the entry thereof, nor shall any objection be taken or allowed to any such summons or complaint for any alleged defect, or misnomer, or inaccurate description of any person or place, or on the ground that the complainant shall appear at the hearing of the summons to be entitled to different different relief from that which is sought thereby or therein, or for any variance between such summons and the evidence adduced on the part of the complainant; but such summons shall be amended by the registrar so that the subject matter in dispute between the parties shall plainly appear, and the registrar's court shall proceed to adjudicate according to the rights of the parties: Provided always that if it shall appear to the registrar, upon the hearing of the case, that the defendant has been thereby deceived or misled, and that injustice would be done by proceeding at once with the case, it shall be lawful for the registrar, on such terms as to costs or otherwise as he shall think fit, to adjourn the further hearing of the case to some future day."

"48. AFFIDAVITS to be used in any registrar's court or before a registrar may be sworn before the registrar, or before any Judge of the Supreme Court, or any commissioner of that court for taking affidavits, or before any warden, registrar, or Justice of the Peace."

Who may take affidavits.
See Ibid., s. 60.

"49. A MINUTE of every decision of a registrar's court shall, on the day of the pronouncing thereof, be entered by such registrar in the register to be kept as hereinbefore provided, and such registrar shall make an order in accordance with such decision, and enter the same in the said register under the said decision, and such decision, with the said order so underwritten, shall be signed by the registrar, and no formal order or other record of such decision shall be necessary. A copy of such minute or order shall, on demand, be given by the registrar's clerk, or other authorised officer, to any of the parties interested therein; and the decision of the court shall be binding and conclusive on all parties, unless in cases where, on appeal therefrom, the same shall be varied or reversed, and a document purporting to be any such copy, certified by the registrar as a true copy, shall at all times be admitted in all courts and places whatsoever as conclusive evidence of such decision or order having been given or made."

Decision of Court to be recorded.
Ibid., s. 61.
Schedule.

"50. EXCEPT in disputed applications for a lease, or applications for the forfeiture of a lease, or application for a lease, in any proceeding before a registrar's court, it shall be lawful for the registrar, and he shall, on the application of either party to the complaint, or if he himself shall think fit, reserve any question in the form of a special case for the opinion of a Judge of the Supreme Court, and in such case no order shall be made in respect of any matter on which such question shall have been reserved until such opinion shall shall have been given: And every such special case shall, after it shall have been prepared by such registrar, be transmitted to the registrar of the Supreme Court, who shall cause the same to be set down for argument before a judge, whose opinion, when given, shall be drawn up and transmitted by the said registrar to the said mining registrar, who shall make his order in accordance with such opinion: And whenever any such special case shall have been reserved it shall be lawful for the registrar, on the application of any of the parties interested in such case, to make any such order for an injunction or receiver or payment of money into court and upon such terms as such registrar shall think proper or otherwise."

"51. NOTWITHSTANDING any of the provisions hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for such registrar, if he shall think fit, at the time of the making of any decision under this Act or the regulations, to order that any mineral in the possession of and belonging to the party by whom payment of any sum in respect of any such debt, damages, or costs shall be ordered, to the extent in value of such sum (such value to be fixed by such court), shall be delivered up to the party entitled to such sum by way of satisfaction or in part satisfaction thereof: Provided that as to the balance the procedure herein otherwise provided shall apply."

"52. IT shall be lawful for any registrar, upon the application of any person claiming to be legally or equitably interested in any claim, or in any land applied for as a lease or comprised in any mineral lease, or in any other land adjoining any claim or land comprised as aforesaid, by writing under the hand of such registrar, to authorise the applicant, together with a mining surveyor, his assistants, or some experienced miner, to enter upon any claim or land (whether at the time of such application alienated from the Crown or not, if any mining operations shall be then carried on on such land) adjoining such first-mentioned claim or land or other land for the purpose of ascertaining whether the owner or occupier of the claim or land so to be entered upon is encroaching on such first-mentioned claim or land or other land."

"53. IT shall be lawful for the persons so authorised to enter upon the claim, lease, or land described in such order as last aforesaid, and to descend any shaft or mine, and to make the necessary surveys, and for such purpose to use the engines and other machinery ordinarily employed for that purpose by the persons whose shaft or mine shall be descended descended, and to make such plans and sections of the claim, lease, or land entered upon, and any of the drives or other works therein as shall be necessary for the purpose aforesaid: And every such surveyor and the other person or persons named in such order shall, before entering on such claim, lease, or land, make a statutory declaration before such registrar (who is hereby authorised to take the same) that he, the said surveyor, and the other person or persons will not (except as witnesses in a court of justice), without the consent, in writing, of the owner, lessee, or occupier of the claim, lease, or land to be entered upon, divulge, or cause to be divulged, to any person whomsoever, any information obtained upon or by such entry, save only as to whether such owner or occupier is encroaching on such first-mentioned claim, lease, or land."

"54. (1.) IT shall be lawful for any registrar, upon the application of any person claiming to be legally or equitably interested in any land, lease, claim, water-race, drain, dam, reservoir, or easement or water-bore to hear, receive, and examine evidence, and thereupon, if the registrar in his discretion shall think fit, and upon such terms, if any, as he may consider just, by order under his hand, to enjoin any persons named in such order from encroaching upon, occupying, using, or working such land, lease, claim, water-race, drain, dam, reservoir, or easement or water-bore, or from seeking for, washing out, winning, extracting, or removing any mineral taken from such land, or from selling or disposing of or damaging or otherwise interfering with such land, lease, claim, water-race, drain, dam, reservoir, easement, or water-bore, or mineral, or any share or interest therein respectively, or from doing any act whereby the right, title, or interest of such applicant in or to the same might be affected; and every such order shall be in force for such period as shall be named therein unless the same shall be sooner discharged by the registrar making the same, or by some court of competent jurisdiction."

Registrar may grant injunction on notice.

Ibid., s. 66.

"(2.) Such application shall be made on notice served twenty-four hours at least before the time for the making thereof on the parties interested in opposing the same, or such of them as shall appear to such registrar sufficiently to represent the parties so interested, or upon such of them as such applicant can, by using reasonable diligence or means, in the opinion of such registrar, serve with such notice, and in the presence of such parties or such of them as aforesaid, or in the absence of any of them upon whom service of such notice shall be proved to the satisfaction of the registrar."

"(3.)

Mineral Lands.

“(3.) Provided that if the registrar shall be satisfied that reasonable attempts have been made to serve notice on the parties aforesaid without success, it shall be sufficient service of any such notice if the same be advertised in some newspaper published in the district or, if none, then by causing such notice to be posted at the registrar’s office.”

out notice.

Ibid., s. 67.

“55. If by reason of the pressing emergency of any particular case it shall seem proper to the registrar so to do, he may, on the application of any such person as aforesaid, but without any notice as aforesaid, by order under his hand, grant such injunction as aforesaid, but to be in force for a period of seven days only, inclusive of the day upon which such order shall have been made, or until the registrar shall sooner discharge the same: And no subsequent order for an injunction shall be made for the same cause under this section, but any person at whose instance any injunction shall have been granted under this section shall be at liberty at any time before the expiration of the said period of seven days, as well as thereafter, to apply, under the provisions of the last preceding section, for an injunction for any longer period.”

Injunction to be notified to Minister.

Ibid., s. 68.

“56. UPON the granting of any injunction relating to any lease, as provided in the last two preceding sections, the registrar shall at once notify by telegraph, or if there shall be no telegraph, by letter, to the Minister of Mines the fact of such injunction being granted, and the particulars thereof; and on receipt of such notification, a note of the injunction being granted shall immediately be made in the register of mineral leases.”

Beneficiary may enter caveat.

Ibid., s. 69.

“57. ANY beneficiary or other person claiming any estate or interest in a lease or land applied for as a lease may, subject to the regulations, register a caveat against dealings with the said land.”

Enforcing orders and decisions of registrar’s court.

Ibid., s. 70.

“58. THE registrar’s court shall, as regards all matters and proceedings within its jurisdiction, for the time being, and for the purpose of enforcing the decisions and orders of the court, have power to grant, and shall grant in any proceeding before such court, such relief, redress, or remedy, or combination of remedies, either absolute or conditional, in as full and ample a manner as might and ought to be done in the like case by the Supreme Court.”

thereof by any person not being the party against whom such process shall have issued, it shall be lawful for such registrar, upon application to the officer charged with the execution of such process, as well before as after any action brought against such officer, to issue a summons calling before such registrar as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim, and thereupon any action which shall have been brought in any court in respect of such claim shall be stayed, and the court in which such action shall have been brought, or any magistrate or judge thereof, on proof of the issue of such summons, and that the goods and chattels were so taken in execution, may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action after the service upon him of such summons issued out by the registrar; and the registrar shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such an order between the parties in respect thereof and of the costs of the proceedings as to it or him shall seem fit; and such order may be enforced in like manner as any order made in any suit brought or any proceedings before such registrar, as the case may be."

"60. ALL lands held under a mining license, consolidated mining license, business license, or mineral lease, shall, on the death or bankruptcy of the holder or holders thereof, devolve on his or their personal representatives, or assignee or trustee in bankruptcy, and shall be liable to seizure and sale under any execution issued from the Supreme Court, any local court, registrar's court, warden's court, or any other competent court in the said Colony: And the proper officer appointed to sell the same shall have full power to give an effectual transfer of the interest sold by him."

Land held under mining license.

Ibid., s. 79.

"61. WHEN any sum of money shall be awarded in a registrar's court by way of debt, damages, or costs or otherwise, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, the registrar, on the application of the person entitled to receive such sum, or of any attorney on his behalf, shall grant to the party so applying a writ of execution under his hand; and any bailiff of a registrar's court or local court to whom such writ shall be delivered for execution, and all constables and other peace officers within their several jurisdictions shall do and perform all things in respect of such writ which such bailiff, constables, and peace officers are required to do and perform in respect of a warrant or writ of execution issued out of a local court in the case of the non-payment of money under a judgment of such court; and every such bailiff may, by virtue of such writ, seize and take such property, and dispose thereof in the manner in which he could seize, take, and dispose thereof by virtue of a warrant issuing out of a local court, and shall have the same powers in respect of the sale and disposal of such property, and do and execute all duties in respect thereof as are by law conferred and imposed on the bailiff of a local court, upon a warrant issued therefrom. Provided that no such writ shall, except upon special cause shown to the satisfaction of the registrar, be issued until after the expiration of seven days from the day on which the decision under which such sum of money was awarded shall have been made."

Allowance and taxation of costs.

Ibid., s. 81.

"62. It shall be lawful for the registrar, in all proceedings before him, in his discretion to give or refuse to either party the costs of the suit, hearing, or other proceeding, or any part thereof, and in case of giving them to give them in his discretion as between the parties. The registrar shall tax the costs of such suit, hearing, or proceedings to be paid by either or any of the parties, and such taxed costs shall form part of the decree or order of the registrar's court, and in default of any special direction each party shall pay his own costs."

Penalty on witnesses neglecting to appear.

Ibid., s. 82.

"63. ANY person on whom any summons issued by any registrar requiring such person to appear as a witness in court or before such registrar shall have been served personally or in such other manner as shall be directed by the regulations, and to whom at the same time payment or tender of his expenses shall have been made on the fixed scale, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient cause, to appear according to the tenor of such summons, or who, having so appeared, shall refuse to be sworn or answer any lawful question, shall, on conviction thereof before the registrar, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding Ten pounds, and in default of immediate payment thereof he shall be liable to imprisonment in the nearest lock-up for any period not exceeding one calendar month, unless, in the meantime, the whole amount shall have been paid; and the order in writing of the said registrar shall be sufficient authority to the keeper of the said lock-up for the detention of the offender, but no such conviction shall exempt such person from any proceeding for disobeying such summons."

Minors and representatives may sue.
Ibid., s. 83.

"64. It shall be lawful for any assignee, executor, or administrator to sue and be sued in the registrar's court, or take any proceedings by way of appeal or otherwise in like manner as if he were a party in his own right: And it shall be lawful for any person under the age of twenty-one years, being being the holder of a mining license, to sue and be sued in the registrar's court or before a registrar in the same manner as if such person were of full age."

"65. EVERY person working for wages shall have a lien upon the claim, lease, or authorised holding whereon he shall have been employed, for three months' wages, to be enforceable in the manner to be prescribed by the regulations: Provided always, that within twenty-one days from ceasing to work on any such claim, lease, or authorised holding, such workman shall register his lien in the prescribed manner with the registrar of the mining district in which the claim, lease, or authorised holding is situate, and in default the lien shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

Lien for wages.
Ibid., s. 84.

APPEALS.

"66. (1.) IF either party to any complaint or proceeding in a registrar's court shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the said court, where such decision is not hereby declared to be final, and whether such decision be a dismissal of the case or otherwise, such party may appeal from the same to the Supreme Court in Banco on any question of law, or upon the admission or rejection of any evidence; and in any such case proceedings may be stayed upon such terms as the registrar shall think fit until such decision shall have been given. Such appeal shall be in the form of a case agreed on, and signed by both parties or their solicitors; and if they cannot agree, the registrar on being applied to by either of the parties, or their solicitors, at the expiration of fourteen days from the hearing, shall settle a case and sign it.

Appeals.
Ibid., s. 86.

(2.) Every case for appeal, after it shall have been signed as aforesaid, shall, together with a certified copy of the evidence taken in the registrar's court, be transmitted by the registrar to the registrar of the Supreme Court: Provided that the party so appealing shall, within seven days from the hearing in the registrar's court, give to the other party, or his solicitor, and to the registrar a notice, in writing, of such appeal, stating clearly the grounds of his appeal, signed by the appellant or his solicitor. The appellant shall also deposit in the hands of the registrar or his clerk such sum as the registrar shall direct to answer the costs of appeal if such appeal be dismissed.

(3.) At the trial or hearing of any complaint or proceeding in a registrar's court, where the decision of the court is not hereby declared to be final, the registrar, at the request of either party, before the decision is delivered, shall make a note of any question of law raised at such trial or hearing, and of the facts in evidence in relation thereto, and shall state in writing the decision on such questions and facts and the decision of the complaint or proceeding. Any party to a complaint or proceeding shall, upon payment of a sum not exceeding threepence per folio of seventy-two words, be entitled to a copy of the notes of evidence taken by the registrar, and of the note of any questions and facts raised and found (if any), and of the decision thereon."
and

Decision of court on appeal.

Ibid., s. 87, as amended, 62 Vict., 16.

"67. As soon as the decision of the Supreme Court in Banco shall have been given on any appeal, the registrar of the said court shall cause the same to be transmitted in due form to the mining registrar, who shall make his order in accordance with the decision of the said court on such appeal."

Decision may be enforced.

Ibid., s. 88, as amended, 62 Vict., 16.

"68. AFTER any appeal against the decision of any registrar shall have been determined, and the decision of the Supreme Court in Banco recorded as the decision or order of the registrar in the registrar's court, it shall be lawful for any registrar to proceed to enforce such decision in the same manner as such registrar might have done if no such appeal had been brought."

PENALTIES, FORFEITURES, ETC.

Penalty for not having a mining license.

Ibid., s. 90.

"69 IF any person shall be found by the registrar or his duly authorised officer to be engaged in mining on any Crown land, not being the holder of an unexpired or valid mining license or mineral lease under this Act, or any Act hereby repealed, such person shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds, and shall be deemed to have abandoned the claim or other authorised holding of which he may be in possession, and such claim or holding shall and may be dealt with as an abandoned claim or holding: Provided that this section shall not apply to any person working in any claim, lease, or other authorised holding for wages."

Penalty for not having a business license.

Ibid., s. 91.

"70. IF any person shall be found by the registrar or his duly authorised officer to be engaged in carrying on any business other than mining on any Crown land, not being the holder of an unexpired or valid business license under this Act or any Act hereby repealed, he shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds, and the forfeiture of any business area he may be occupying or be in possession of, in the discretion of the registrar."

"71.

Mineral Lands.

“71. ANY Asiatic or African alien found mining on any Crown land shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds, and the registrar shall, in his discretion, cause such person to be removed from any mining district, and whether such person has or has not been prosecuted for an offence against the provisions of this section.”

Asiatic or African alien prohibited.

Ibid., s. 92.

“72. WHENEVER any registrar's court or registrar is empowered or required by this Act or the regulations to cause any act to be performed, and the mode of performing such act is not otherwise expressly provided for, it shall be lawful for any person verbally authorised by the registrar, and in his presence, or of any constable or peace officer authorised, in writing, under the hand of such registrar, to perform such act, and all constables and peace officers shall, if thereunto required, aid and assist any registrar or person authorised as aforesaid in the performance of his duty under this Act and the regulations.”

Mode of enforcing registrar's order where not specially provided for.

Ibid., s. 93.

“73. IT shall be lawful for any person in custody, under any order of commitment made under this Act or the regulations, upon giving reasonable notice to the person (or to one of such persons if more than one) on whose application such order was granted, or if such person or one of such persons cannot be found, to the registrar by whom such order was made, to apply in a summary way, on affidavit, to the magistrate of any local court, or of a Judge of the Supreme Court, for his discharge, and it shall be lawful for such magistrate or Judge, in his discretion, and on such terms (if any) as he shall think fit, by order under his hand, directed to the gaoler or other person in whose custody such applicant may be, to direct that such applicant shall be discharged, and such applicant shall be discharged accordingly: Provided that when such order of commitment shall have been founded on any previous decree or order, it shall not be lawful for such magistrate or Judge of the Supreme Court, upon such application, to inquire into the merits of such previous decree or order.”

Party imprisoned may be discharged by magistrate of local court or Judge of Supreme Court.

Ibid., s. 94.

“74. IF any person shall forge any mining license, consolidated mining license, or any lease, license, or permit issued or purporting to be issued under the authority of this Act or the regulations, or fraudulently use, utter, or exhibit any such forged mining license, consolidated mining license, lease, business license, or official receipt, knowing the same to be forged, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall, shall, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to imprisonment, either with or without hard labour at the discretion of the court, for any period not exceeding twelve months."

Penalties on registrar and other officers.

Ibid., s. 96.

"75. IF any registrar, registrar's clerk, or mining surveyor shall, at any time during his appointment, hold any interest or share in any claim or mineral lease, or mining adventure, or if any registrar adjudicates in any matter in which he shall have any pecuniary interest, the person so offending in any such case shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and be liable to fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court."

Penalty for extortion.

Ibid., s. 97.

"76. ANY person who shall wilfully and corruptly, exact, take, or accept any fee, sum, or reward whatsoever other than and except such fees or sums as are or shall be lawfully appointed or allowed for, or on account of, anything done under the authority of this Act, shall be liable, on conviction thereof before two Justices of the Peace, to a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds, and in default of immediate payment thereof to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding six calendar months."

Assault on registrar and other offences.

Ibid. s., 98.

"77. ANY person who assaults, obstructs, or resists any registrar, or any person duly authorised by any registrar in lawfully entering upon any lease, claim, or other authorised holding, or in performing any other act authorised hereby, or any bailiff or other officer, or any clerk or assistant of such bailiff or officer, or any inspector or other person in the performance of his duty, or in the exercise of his powers under this Act, or any person who, after being removed by any registrar, under the provisions of this Act, from any lease, claim, or other authorised holding, who forcibly or clandestinely retakes or retains, or endeavours to retake or retain possession thereof or of any portion thereof, or of any share therein, or who, after any decision of a warden that any complainant is entitled to use for mining purposes or to divert any water, resists such complainant or his agents in such use or diversion, or who upon or in consequence of the decision of any registrar's court against him, assaults or threatens to assault any person in whose favour such decision has been made, shall, on conviction thereof before any two justices, forfeit any sum not exceeding Fifty pounds, and in default of payment, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding six months."

Power to make regulations.

Ibid., s. 99.

"78. (1.) THE Governor may from time to time make, alter, and repeal such regulations as may be necessary for the purpose of giving effect to this Act, and for the management of mining districts generally.

Mineral Lands.

(2.) Such regulations may be made for the whole Colony or for any particular part thereof, and shall be published in the Government Gazette, and after publication therein shall have the force and effect of law, and shall be judicially noticed in every court of justice. Copies of all regulations made under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days from the making thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, then within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session thereof; and such regulations shall, in so far as not disallowed by Parliament, be deemed to be within the powers conferred by this Act, and to have been legally and properly made.

Regulations may be partial or general.

To be published and have effect of law.

To be laid before Parliament.

(3.) Such regulations may impose for any breach thereof, or for any disobedience of a lawful order of a registrar or of the registrar's court, a fine not exceeding Ten pounds, and in default of payment, imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding three months."

Penalties for breach may be imposed.

" 79. ANY person who infringes any regulation made under this Act for the infringement whereof no penalty is prescribed shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds."

Penalty for breach of regulation not otherwise provided for.

Ibid., s. 100.

" 80. ALL fees, charges, and sums of money which shall or may be imposed or made payable under this Act, and all penalties incurred thereunder or under the regulations, for which no other mode of recovery is provided herein, or by the regulations, may be recovered or enforced by any registrar in the manner in which Justices of the Peace are now by law authorised to enforce any order or award made in any Court of petty sessions."

Fees, penalties, etc., how recoverable.

Ibid., s. 102.

9. THE holder of any mineral lease issued under the provisions of this Act, or any Act hereby repealed, and the executors, administrators, or assigns of such holder shall be entitled at any time, with the consent of the Minister, to surrender the said lease; and any such mineral lease may, with the like consent, be renewed, provided that every such renewed lease shall be for the like term, and subject to such rent, covenants, conditions, reservations, and exceptions as may be prescribed by any Act or Regulations for the time being in force regulating the management of mining districts.

Surrender of lease. See Goldfields Act, 1895, section 41.

10. (1.) THERE shall be kept at the office of the registrar of each mining district, or division thereof, a complete record of all leases, claims, transfers, liens, or other dealings or matters connected with any lands situated within the mining district or division thereof thereof, and all acts, matters, and things required by this Act to be done, and all notices or other process required to be served at or issued out of the office of the registrar in connection therewith shall be sufficiently done, issued at, or served, if done, issued, or served at or out of the office of such registrar. There shall also be kept in the office of the Minister of Mines, in Perth, in respect of each mining district or division thereof, a register to be called The Register of Mineral Leases, wherein shall be registered all leases and applications therefor and transfers thereof, and of any shares or interests therein respectively, and all liens, charges, and other dealings and transactions relating thereto.

Ibid.

(2.) No transfer of any lease, or of any share or interest therein, nor any lien, charge, or other dealing or transaction relating thereto respectively, shall, until registered as aforesaid, be effectual to pass any share or interest in any such lease or render the same liable to any charge or encumbrance.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XLIX.

AN ACT to amend the Mines Regulation Act of 1895, and to make further provision for the Inspection of Mines and Collieries.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Mines Regulation Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be incorporated with the Mines Regulation Act of 1895, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation with 59 Vict., 37.

2. IN this Act and in the principal Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms in quotation marks shall have the respective meaning hereby assigned to them, that is to say:—

Interpretation.

“Earth”—Any rock, stone, quartz, clay, sand, soil, or mineral:

“Machinery”—Steam or other engines, boilers, furnaces, stampers, rollers, winding and pumping gear, chains, belts, trucks, tramways, tackle, blocks, ropes, tools, and all appliances of whatever kind used in or about a mine, or in or about any works used for the treatment of metals or minerals:

“Mine”

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

“Mine”—Any place, pit, shaft, drive, level, or other excavation, drift, gutter, lead, vein, lode, or reef wherein or whereby any operation for or in connection with mining purposes is or shall be carried on:

“Mining” or “to Mine”—To disturb, remove, cart, carry, wash, sift, smelt, refine, crush, or otherwise deal with any earth by any mode or method whatsoever for the purpose of obtaining gold or any other mineral therefrom:

Application of this Act and the principal Act.

3. THIS Act and the principal Act shall apply to all mines and machinery areas.

Repeal of s. 2 of principal Act.

4. SECTION two of the principal Act and the definition of “mine” and “machinery,” in section four thereof, are hereby repealed.

Amendment to s. 9 of principal Act.

5. SECTION nine of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

At the end of paragraph four the words “in any manner prescribed by this Act” are struck out, and the words “and to inspect the same in the manner prescribed by the Steam Boilers Act, 1897,” are substituted.

Amendment to s. 11 of principal Act.

6. SECTION eleven of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the word “miner,” in the first line thereof, and substituting the word “person.”

Amendments to s. 17 of principal Act.

7. SECTION seventeen of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding after the word “Inspector,” “or, in the absence of the Inspector, to the Warden or Registrar,” and by adding after the last word of the section: “Upon receipt of any such notice the Inspector or, in his absence, any person appointed by the Warden or Registrar, as the case may be, shall proceed to the scene of such accident, examine the place where such accident has occurred, take down the statements of any witness of such accident or of any person who can afford any evidence as to the cause thereof, and thereupon forward to the Warden, or, if in a mining district, to the Registrar, a full report. The Warden or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall, if he thinks it necessary, hold an inquiry into the nature and cause of the accident, and shall forward to the Minister a copy of the evidence, together with his report on the inquiry.”

Amendment to s. 21 of principal Act.

8. SECTION twenty-one of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the word “sixteen,” in the second paragraph thereof, and substituting the word “eighteen.”

Amendment to s. 22 of principal Act.

9. SECTION twenty-two of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the word “steam,” in the first line, and by inserting

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

inserting after the word "machinery," in the same line, the words "worked by steam, air, gas, oil, or electricity," in the second line, and by adding, at the end of the first paragraph of that section, the words "and, save in the case of breakage or other emergency, such person shall not, during the said period of eight hours, be employed in work of any other kind, or in any other part of the mine than where the machinery of which he is in charge is placed."

10. SUB-SECTION (1) of section twenty-three of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:—

Ventilation of Mines.

(1.) AN adequate amount of ventilation, that is to say, not less than one hundred cubic feet of air per minute for each man and boy, and one hundred and fifty cubic feet per minute for each horse employed underground in a mine, excepting in cases where noxious gases exist to a dangerous degree, when the quantity of air required shall be increased to five hundred cubic feet respectively, and shall be constantly produced in every mine to such an extent that the shafts, winzes, levels, underground stables, and working places of such mines, and the travelling ways to and from such workings and places shall be in a fit state for working and passing therein: And all drives in quartz workings by which any two mines are connected shall, if considered necessary by the Inspector of Mines, be kept open for ventilation and for escape drives, and upon the order of the Inspector of Mines, authorised by the Minister, companies shall construct such connecting drives, where the works are not more than three hundred feet apart, for ventilation and escape, at their joint expense, and where deemed necessary for the purposes of ventilation by the Inspector of Mines, if authorised by the Minister, all levels shall be connected with winzes.

But this shall not apply to alluvial mines, except where, in the opinion of the Inspector, if authorised by the Minister, it is considered necessary.

11. SECTION twenty-three of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendments to s. 23
of principal Act.
(General Rules.)

In general rule two, paragraph (d) thereof, the first four words are struck out, and the words "No workman or party of workmen shall" are substituted.

In general rule six, after the word "shaft," in the seventh line thereof, the words "or costeen" are inserted; and after the words "covered in," in the same line thereof, the words "or filled with earth or rock" are inserted.

In

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

- In general rule eight, in the first line thereof, after the word "kind," the words "whether at surface or underground" are inserted.
- In general rule nine, the word "vertical," in the first line thereof, is struck out; after "man-engine," in the second line thereof, the words "or cage" are inserted, and paragraph (u) thereof is struck out.
- In general rule ten, the words "if exceeding fifty yards in depth" are struck out.
- In general rule eleven, the words, in the fifth line, "the chamber at the bottom of the workings" are struck out, and the words "at each chamber" are substituted.
- In general rule sixteen, the word "steam," in the second line, is struck out, and after the word "engine," in the same line, the words "or winch driven by steam, air, gas, oil, or electricity" are inserted; and after the words "charge of," in the fourth line, the words "the steam machinery working in" are struck out, and the words "any such engine or winch working on" are inserted.
- In general rule seventeen, after the word "use," in the third line, the words "and the person in charge thereof shall so remain in charge" shall be inserted.
- In general rule nineteen the word "sprays," in the first line, is struck out, and the word "sprags" is inserted in lieu thereof; and after the word "cage," in the third line, the words "bucket, or other carriage, receptacle, or platform" are inserted.
- In general rule twenty-four, after the word "once," in the fifth line, the words "at least" are inserted, and after the word "tested," in the fourth line of the second paragraph, the words "or inspected" are inserted; and at the end of the second paragraph the words "provided that nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the operation or provisions of the Steam Boilers Act, 1895," are added.
- In general rule twenty-five, after the word "any," in the second line, the word "timber" is inserted.
- In the margin of general rule twenty-eight the words "vertical or overhanging" are struck out.
- General rule thirty is repealed, and the following general rule is substituted:—

30. Every cage used in a mine shall be fitted with side catches and with a safety hook or other similar appliance appliance above the cage to prevent it falling down the shaft through overwinding, or from the breaking of a rope or winding machinery.

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

General rule thirty-one is repealed, and the following general rule is substituted:—

31. A suitable light, protected from draughts of air, shall be provided at the upper entrance in a level to every winze, shoot, or pass, while open or unfenced.

In general rule thirty-two the first four words are struck out and the words "Means of ascent shall be provided" are substituted, and the words "in each winze, rise, or jump-up" are struck out, and the words "in winzes and rises" are substituted.

12. SECTION twenty-six of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after the word "uses," in the fourth line, the words "and the place in which he works," and after the word "anything," in the same line, by inserting the words "or work in a place that is."

Amendments to s. 26
of principal Act.

13. SECTION twenty-seven of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after the word "person," in the first line, the word "employed."

Amendment to s. 27
of principal Act.

14. (1.) NO action for the recovery of compensation by any person, or the representatives of any person employed in or about a mine, and injured or killed owing to any negligence or non-observance as by section twenty-seven of the principal Act mentioned, shall be maintainable unless written notice stating in ordinary language that injury has been sustained, and the cause of the injury and the date when it was sustained, is served upon the owner or his agent or manager within three months, and unless the action is commenced within six months from the occurrence of the accident causing the injury, or, in case of death, within twelve months from such occurrence: Provided always, that the want of such notice shall be no bar to the maintenance of such action if the Judge shall be of opinion that there was reasonable excuse for such want of notice.

Notice of action to be given.

(2.) Every action by the personal representatives of a person killed or injured as aforesaid shall be for the benefit of the wife, parent, and child of such person, and the Court or a Judge before whom such action is brought may apportion the damages awarded or paid into Court in such manner as it or he thinks proportioned

Action in event of death to be for benefit of wife, etc.

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

proportioned to the injury to such wife, parent, and child, and such damages shall be divided accordingly, subject to such order as the Court or a Judge may make as to the settlement of any share or part thereof.

Only one action for same complaint.

(3.) No more than one action shall lie for or in respect of the same subject-matter of complaint, and in every such action the plaintiff shall indorse on his writ of summons or complaint full particulars of the names, addresses, occupations, and ages of the persons for whose benefit such action is maintained.

Repeal of s. 29 of principal Act and substitution of a section therefor.

15. SECTION twenty-nine of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and, in lieu thereof, the following section is substituted:—

29. EVERY person who, after any shaft, level, drive, or excavation has become disused for mining purposes, wilfully damages, or renders it useless by the removal of any timber, fencing, casing, lining, ladder, platform, or other appliance provided in or about the same, without the consent of the Minister, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

This section shall apply to all mines, but shall not apply to any owner of freehold land whereon any such shaft is situated.

The owner, agent, or manager of a mine, when about to abandon it, or upon the forfeiture of the lease thereof, shall cause to be filled up all surface excavations and costeen cuttings, and shall securely cover over all shafts.

Examination of engine-drivers.

16. SECTION thirty-three of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted:—

Repeal of s. 33 of principal Act and substitution of new section.

33. THE Governor may from time to time appoint, remove, or re-appoint two or more persons (one of whom shall be a qualified engineer) to act as a Board of Examiners for any goldfield, goldfield district, or mining district, to hold examinations, and to examine any persons who desire to qualify themselves as engine-drivers; and such Board when satisfied of the skill and competence of any candidate, and that he is not subject to any physical infirmity, such as deafness, defective vision, or epilepsy, which would render him unfit, may grant him a first or second-class certificate of competency in the manner prescribed by the Regulations.

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

17. SECTION thirty-four of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted:—

Certificates of service for engine-drivers to be granted.

34. THE said Board shall grant a certificate of service to every person who furnishes to the said Board satisfactory evidence that he has been in charge of, and has efficiently managed upon a mine, machinery worked by steam, for a period of twelve months prior to the passing of the Mines Regulation Act, 1895; and such certificate shall confer the same privileges as a first or second-class certificate of competency, as may be decided by the Board.

Repeal of s. 34 of principal Act and substitution of a section therefor.

18. WHERE an engine-driver holding a certificate equivalent to one of the first or second class under this Act has had no opportunity of presenting himself to the Board for examination, the Board, or any member thereof, on being satisfied as to the experience of such engine-driver, may grant him an interim certificate of the first or second-class, as the case may be, which shall operate accordingly until the day next afterwards appointed for the examination of engine-drivers.

Interim engine-drivers' certificates.

19. ALL certificates of competency or service issued before the coming into operation of this Act without restrictions expressed thereon shall be equivalent to a first-class certificate of competency granted under this Act, and, if any restrictions are so expressed, shall be equivalent to a second-class certificate granted under this Act.

Saving of certificates issued before this Act comes into operation.

20. ANY person holding a certificate of competency or of service under this Act, or under the Mines Regulation Act, 1895, as an engine-driver, and who is charged with any offence or misconduct likely to be detrimental to the proper or efficient discharge of his duties, may be called upon by the Board of Examiners to show cause why he should not be disqualified as a certificated engine-driver; and if he fails to satisfy the said Board, he may be disqualified by the Governor for any period from acting as an engine-driver, and such disqualification shall be notified in the Government Gazette; and every such person shall, after such notice, deliver into the charge of the said Board his certificate of competency or of service, which shall be retained by the said Board during the period of his disqualification; and no such person shall, during the period of such disqualification, take charge of any machinery in which steam, water, air, gas, oil, or electricity, or any two or more of them, are used as motive power.

Disqualification of holder of certificate.

21. SECTION thirty-five of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted:—

35. FROM the date of the Order in Council applying this Act to a goldfield, goldfield district, or mining district, or any Penalty on engine-drivers working, or being employed to work, without proper certificates.

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

Repeal of s. 35 of principal Act, and substitution of a section.

any portions thereof respectively, every person who, in the place to which this Act has been so applied,—

Without holding a first-class certificate of competency or a certificate by this Act made equivalent thereto, takes or has charge of any winding machinery in which steam, water, air, gas, oil, or electricity, or any two or more of them are used as the motive power by which men or materials are raised or lowered in any shaft: or Without holding a first or second-class certificate of competency, or a certificate by this Act rendered equivalent thereto, takes or has charge of any machinery worked by steam, water, air, gas, oil, or electricity, or any two or more of them; and

Every person employing such a person so to take or have charge, shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act.

Provided that sinking pumps and boring machines shall not be deemed machinery within the meaning of this section.

Hours of employment.

22. NO person shall be employed for hire, except in cases of emergency, below ground in any mine for more than forty-eight hours in any week, nor more than eight hours in any day, and a person shall be deemed to be employed below ground from the time that he commences to descend a mine until he is relieved of his work and commences to return to the surface.

Uniformity of signals.

23. THERE shall be in all mines a uniform code of signals, as prescribed by the regulations.

Repeal of s. 36 of principal Act.

24. SECTION thirty-six of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Coroners' inquests on deaths from accidents in mines.

Victorian Mines Act, 1890, s. 373.

25. WITH respect to Coroners' inquests on the bodies of any persons whose death may have been caused by accidents in mines, the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

No person having an interest in or being employed in or in the management of the mine in which the accident occurred shall be qualified to serve on the jury empanelled on the inquest; and it shall be the duty of the constable or other summoning officer not to summon any person disqualified under this provision, and it shall be the duty of the Coroner not to allow any such person to be sworn or sit as a jurymen; nevertheless, whenever it is feasible, a majority of the jury shall be practical miners.

The

Mines Regulation—Amendment.

The Inspector of Mines of the district shall be present at inquests, and may examine witnesses and elicit evidence relative to the cause of death, and to the issue whether the accident was attributable to negligence or any omission to comply with the provisions of this Act.

A representative of the Miners' Association of the district, and of the employer, may be present at any inquiry, and may put questions to any witness as to the cause of the accident.

26. WHEREVER in the principal Act the words "Mineral District" occur, they shall be read "Mining District."

Mineral district altered to mining district.

27. THE Governor may from time to time make, and from time to time repeal and alter, regulations for carrying this Act and the principal Act into effect.

Regulations.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. L.

AN ACT to amend the Land Act, 1898.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Land Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be construed together with the Land Act, 1898, hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation.

2. NOTWITHSTANDING anything contained in section one hundred and two of the principal Act, the rent of pastoral leases within Goldfields and Mining Districts, in the South-West Division, exclusive of that portion lying Eastward of the line described in section ninety-three, shall be One pound per thousand acres per annum; and the said section is hereby amended by inserting at the end of the first paragraph the following proviso:—"Provided also, that where any person holding a pastoral lease, under the Land Regulations of 1887, of an area exceeding twenty thousand acres desires to obtain a lease under this section of the land demised or part thereof, the Minister may grant to any such person a lease accordingly, notwithstanding the area comprised therein exceeds twenty thousand acres."

Amendment of s. 102
of principal Act.

3.

Land Act—Amendment.

Amendment of Section 112 of the principal Act.

3. SECTION one hundred and twelve of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the first seven lines thereof, to the word "prescribed," inclusive, and by inserting in lieu thereof the words: "The Minister may grant leases giving the lessee the exclusive right, subject to this Act and any amendment thereof and to the Regulations thereunder, to cut, remove, and sell any jarrah, karri, tuart, wandoo (white gum), blackbutt, red gum, or any other kind of timber specified in the lease, and any piles, poles, or barks of the aforesaid timbers growing or standing on the land the subject of the lease and therein particularly described, at the rental and on the conditions hereinafter prescribed."

Amendment of
sec. 113 of the principal Act.

4. SECTION one hundred and thirteen of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the words, in the fifth and sixth lines, "or is not proceeded with within thirty days from," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "before."

Amendment of
sec. 116 of the principal Act.

5. SECTION one hundred and sixteen of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the words "to be exercised by giving notice in writing to the Minister before the expiration of the license."

Amendment of Section 120 of the principal Act.

6. SECTION one hundred and twenty, paragraph (2), is amended by inserting after the words "no part of" the words "the land subject to."

Repeal of section 121, sub-section (1), of the principal Act,
and substitution of another sub-section.

7. SECTION one hundred and twenty-one, sub-section one, of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following sub-section is enacted in lieu thereof:—

"(1.) A timber lease shall authorise the lessee to construct railways and tramways on and through the area comprised in the lease, and to haul timber to and from the mills; and the Governor may, if he thinks fit, authorise the lessee to lay down such railways and tramways on other Crown lands outside the area, and to connect any such railways and tramways with any Government railway, subject to the rules of the Railway Department in regard to private sidings; and the Governor, in so doing, may prescribe such conditions as to carriage of passengers and traffic and otherwise as he thinks fit."

Applications under principal Act to be subject to the provisions of this Act.

8. ALL applications for timber leases heretofore made under the provisions of the principal Act shall be deemed to have been made under the provisions thereof as amended by this Act.

Land Act—Amendment.

9. ALL timber leases granted in future, or already agreed to be granted, shall be in the form given in the Schedule hereto or to the like effect, and shall include the provisions therein contained, and such other provisions, not contrary thereto, as may be agreed upon.

Timber leases to be in form.

10. (1.) SECTION one hundred and twenty-four of the principal Act is amended by inserting, at the commencement thereof, the following words:—"Every timber lease shall be subject to the provisions of any Acts relating to mining for gold or other minerals so far as those Acts create rights which may be exercised over Crown Lands, whether unoccupied or otherwise: Provided that every lease granted or claim acquired under any of the said Acts, of lands comprised within a timber lease, shall be granted or acquired subject to the right of the proprietor of the timber lease, with the approval of the Minister of Mines, to enter thereon and construct and maintain roads, railways, and tramways thereon.

Amendment of sec. 124 of the principal Act.

"Provided further, that notwithstanding anything contained in any of the said Acts, a miner's right or mining license shall not entitle the holder thereof to cut or remove or strip any bark from any timber defined in any timber lease, on the land comprised within any such lease, beyond the limits of his holding.

"(2.) No such claim shall be acquired and no such lease shall be granted of any land, within fifty feet of the surface, which is occupied as a saw-milling station site, not exceeding an area of one hundred and sixty acres the length not to exceed three times the breadth, or upon which a railway or tramway, or any other improvements or buildings have been constructed by the lessee of the timber lease, or within one chain of any such railway, tramway, or other improvement, or within five chains of any building.

"Provided that any such saw-milling timber site may be resumed by the Government on payment of compensation to the lessee, to be determined by arbitration."

11. ANY person who shall unlawfully fell, cut, saw, split, or bark any timber growing or felled upon any land comprised within the area of any timber lease shall, on conviction, pay a fine not exceeding Ten pounds; and all such fines may be recovered before a Resident Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions.

12. SECTION one hundred and thirty-eight, sub-section four, is hereby amended by striking out the last word and inserting in lieu thereof the words "memorandum of mortgage."

Amendment of sec. 138 of principal Act.

Land Act—Amendment.

Amendment of Section 161 of principal Act.

13. SECTION one hundred and sixty-one is amended by inserting a new paragraph, as follows:—

(4A.) Prescribing the size of timber, piles, poles, and barks which may be lawfully cut under timber leases or licenses.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

THE SCHEDULE.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

Timber Lease.

No.

District

THIS INDENTURE, made the _____ day of _____ BETWEEN THE MINISTER
FOR LANDS in and for the Colony of Western Australia (hereinafter called the Minister) of the one part, and _____ of _____ (hereinafter called the Lessee), of the other part,
WITNESSETH as follows:—

The Minister, in exercise of the powers in that behalf to him given by the Land Act, 1898, DOETH HEREBY GRANT AND DEMISE unto the lessee, his executors, administrators, and assigns [If the lessee is a corporate body, omit "his executors, administrators, and assigns," and insert "and its assigns"] the sole and exclusive right, subject as hereinafter mentioned, to cut, remove, and to sell any kind of timber, as defined in the First Schedule hereto, standing or growing upon the land described in the Second Schedule hereto, and delineated and coloured green on the plan hereon, but subject nevertheless to the provisions of the said Act and any amendment thereof and to the regulations thereunder. AND with the right to bore and sink wells in the said lands to any depth for water, and to enjoy the same. AND with the right to construct railways and tramways on and through the said lands, and to haul timber to and from any timber mill that is now or may hereafter be therein, and to enjoy, in respect of such railways and tramways, the privileges conferred by Section 121 of the said Act, subject to the approval thereby required, EXCEPT as hereinafter appearing, and subject to the powers, reservations, and conditions herein and in the said Act contained: To HOLD the premises unto the lessee for the term of _____ day of _____ years, to be computed from the _____ day of _____ YIELDING AND PAYING therefor during the said term unto the Minister the yearly rent of _____ clear of all deductions, by equal payments half-yearly, in advance, on or before the first day of March and the first day of September in every year.

AND the lessee covenants with the Minister and his successors in office, hereinafter called "the Minister," that he the lessee, his executors, administrators, or assigns (hereinafter called "the lessees"), during the said term will pay the yearly rent hereinbefore reserved at the times and in manner aforesaid: AND will pay all rates, taxes, and outgoings now payable and hereafter to become payable in respect of the said premises: AND will at all times during the said term observe and perform all the conditions and obligations prescribed by the said Act and the Regulations in force from time to time thereunder, and on the part of the lessee to be observed and performed: AND WILL, within two years from the date of this lease, or within such longer period as the Minister may allow, erect on the said lands a substantial and fully equipped sawmill plant, of sufficient power to cut up at least five loads of sawn timber per month for every square mile of land comprised in this lease, and will keep such fully equipped sawmill plant in good working order during the whole of the said term: AND WILL NOT transfer or mortgage the said lands, or any part thereof, except in accordance with the provisions of the said Act: AND at the expiration or sooner determination of the said term will yield up the said lands unto the Minister: AND THAT the Minister and his successors in office, his or their agents, surveyors, and workmen may at all times during the said term enter upon and inspect the premises: AND THAT no offensive occupation or nuisance shall be committed or suffered thereon.

PROVIDED, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

- (1.) It shall be lawful at all times for all persons going upon and travelling over the said land, to cross any railway or tramway thereon without interruption by the lessees, but not trespassing upon or injuring any house, or building, sawmill plant or machinery, timber yards or the appurtenances thereto, or any wells, or any such gardens, or cultivated land as aforesaid, or injuring or impeding traffic on any railway or tramway.
- (2.) If, and so long as, the lessees are in possession of a fully equipped sawmill plant as described in the lessees' covenant hereinbefore contained, situate within a mile (or such other distance as the Minister of Lands may approve) of the said land, the lessees shall not be bound to erect another sawmill plant thereon.

Land Act—Amendment.

- (3.) It shall be lawful at all times for the Minister, or for any person or persons acting in that behalf by his authority, to cut and clear tracks across the said land, and to make crossings over any railways or tramways constructed by the lessees, and to cut and take away any such indigenous timber, and to search, and dig for, and carry away any stones or other materials which may be required for making or keeping in repair any roads, tracks, tramways, railways, railway stations, bridges, canals, towing-paths, harbour works, breakwaters, river improvements, drainage, or irrigation works, and generally for any other works and purposes of public use, utility, or convenience, without making to the lessee any compensation in respect thereof.
- (4.) It shall be lawful at all times for the Minister, and his successors in office, to resume and enter upon possession of any part of the said land which it may at any time be deemed by him or them necessary or desirable to resume for townsites, roads, tramways, railways, railway stations, bridges, canals, towing-paths, harbour or river improvement works, drainage or irrigation works, or quarries, and generally for any works or purposes of public use, utility, or convenience, and for the purpose of granting power to others to search and mine for gold, silver, copper, tin, and other metals, ore, and minerals, or other substances containing metals, gems, or precious stones, and for coal, or mineral oil, in and under the said land without making to the lessees any compensation in respect thereof other than a proportionate return and reduction of rent in respect of any land resumed on which marketable timber is growing or standing. Such resumption shall not extend to any part of the said land comprising any house or building, sawmill plant, machinery, timber yards or their appurtenances, or any wells, or any such gardens or cultivated land as aforesaid, or any railway or tramway, unless compensation be paid for the same.
- (5.) The Minister shall not be liable or responsible for any error in the descriptive boundaries or quantity of land herein described, or in respect of any claims which may be set up by any other person or persons to any part or parts of the said land.
- (6.) If the rent is not paid in advance, as hereinbefore provided, or if the lessees fail or neglect at any time during the said term to comply with and perform all or any of the conditions or provisions of the said Act on the lessees' part to be complied with and performed, or on breach of any of the lessees' covenants hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for the Minister, or his successors in office, into or upon the said land, or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter and the same to repossess and enjoy, without making any compensation to the lessees, and immediately thereupon this demise shall absolutely determine and become indefeasibly forfeited. Provided that the lessee may, within six months of such determination, remove from the demised premises all railways, tramways, buildings, machinery, plant, and effects in or upon the said demised premises.

AND, subject as aforesaid, the Minister hereby covenants with the lessees that the lessees paying the said yearly rent and observing and performing the lessees' covenants herein contained may, subject to the provisions of the said Act, peacefully hold and enjoy the premises during the said term without any interruption or disturbance by the Minister or his successors in office, except as aforesaid, or any person lawfully claiming under him or them.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

The timber referred to [Jarrah, Karri, Tuart, Wandoo (White Gum), Blackbutt, Red Gum, and any piles, poles, or barks of the size prescribed by regulations of the above-named timbers].

No. LIII.

AN ACT to enable the Director of Public Works to manage and control certain Water-works within the Municipalities of Fremantle, North Fremantle, and East Fremantle.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Fremantle Water Supply Act, 1899. Short title.

2. THE Fremantle Water Supply Act, 1893, is hereby repealed. Repeal of Act 57 Vict., 24.

3. THIS Act shall apply to the municipalities of Fremantle, North Fremantle, and East Fremantle, and any additions to or subdivisions of any of them by whatever name called; all which are hereinafter referred to as the "three municipalities." Areas to which the Act applies.

Fremantle Water Supply.

Director of Public Works to have certain powers.

4. WITHIN the three municipalities the Director of Public Works shall have all the rights, powers, benefits, and privileges vested in and exercisable by the council of a municipality under the Waterworks Act, 1889, except the power to take land permanently, and any additional powers which by the Metropolitan Water Works Act, 1896, or any amendment thereof, are vested in the Board created by that Act may be exercised by the Director of Public Works for the purposes of this Act, as if such powers were expressly enacted therein.

The Director of Public Works may construct waterworks within any of the three municipalities without submitting the proposal to the ratepayers, as required by section three of the Waterworks Act, 1889.

Amendment of Act 53 Vict., 13.

5. THE references in the Waterworks Act, 1889, to the Municipal Institutions Act, 1876, shall be read as references to the corresponding enactments of the Municipal Institutions Act, 1895, or other the Acts in force for the time being relating to municipalities.

Duties and liabilities imposed by Act 53 Vict., 13, to be imposed under this Act. Exception.

See Fremantle Water Supply Act, 1893 (57 Vict., 24), s. 3.

6. ALL the enactments in the Waterworks Act, 1889, except sections forty-six and forty-eight thereof, imposing any duty, obligation, restriction, or penalty upon any person other than a council or a contractor under the said Act, shall have the same force and effect as if such enactments were incorporated with this Act; and the word "Council" in all such enactments shall be deemed to include the Director of Public Works.

Director of Public Works may delegate his authority.

See Ibid., s. 4.

7. ANY act or thing which, under the Waterworks Act, 1889, may be done by any person acting with the authority of the council of the municipality may be done by any person acting with the authority of the Director of Public Works within the three municipalities.

Power to levy water rate.

See Waterworks Act, 1889 (53 Vict., 24), s. 46.

8. (1.) FOR the supplying of lands and premises in the three municipalities with water for domestic purposes, the Director of Public Works may, in each of such municipalities, make and levy a rate not exceeding One shilling in the pound in any one year upon the annual ratable value of the lands and premises by this Act made liable to the water rate, as such value is shown by the rate books compiled by the councils of the three municipalities respectively, for the purposes of the general rate under the Act or Acts for the time being regulating the municipal government of such municipalities.

(2.) Whatever the ratable value of any lands or premises is, the minimum water rate in respect thereof shall be Five shillings.

Fremantle Water Supply.

9. WATER rates under this Act shall be paid in respect of all lands and premises within sixty yards from which a main pipe has been or shall be laid down; and, when the Director of Public Works has published in the Government Gazette a notice that such main pipe has been laid down there, and that he is prepared to distribute a constant supply of water therefrom to the lands and premises situate within sixty yards thereof, such lands and premises shall be deemed to be supplied with water under this Act from and after the expiration of seven days from such publication. The water rate shall be payable in advance from the period which shall elapse between the first day of whatever month shall next follow the expiration of such seven days and the thirty-first day of December then following, and thereafter the rate shall be payable half-yearly in advance on the first day of January and first day of July in every year, subject to the provisions of this Act and to any by-laws made thereunder.

Premises to be subject to water rate when main laid within 60 yards.

10. THE clerk of each of the three municipalities shall, in every year, when so required, allow the Director of Public Works, or some person appointed by him for that purpose, to take a copy of the rate book of the municipality.

Director of Public Works may take copy of rate book.

See Fremantle Water Supply Act, 1893, s. 10.

11. EVERY person who enters into occupation of lands or premises, though not being the owner thereof, shall be liable to pay all water rates then due in respect thereof, and, if not the owner, shall, after such payment, be entitled to recover from the owner the sums so paid, or to deduct them from or set them off against any sum due or coming due from such occupier to the owner.

Ingoing occupier to pay rates in arrear and receive the amount from owner.

12. NO person shall use, for any other than domestic purposes, any water supplied from the waterworks to any lands or premises on which a meter for measuring water is not fixed, and every person so using water in contravention of this section shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding Five pounds for every day on which such offence is committed.

Water not to be used except for domestic purposes unless a meter is fixed.

13. NO meters, instruments, pipes, or apparatus for the conveyance, reception, or storage of water, let for hire to any consumer of water by the Director of Public Works, shall be subject to distress for rent of the premises where the same are used, or be attached or taken in execution under any process of any Court of Law, or under or in pursuance of any order in bankruptcy or other legal proceedings against or affecting the consumer of water or the occupier of the premises or other person in whose possession the meters, pipes, instruments, or apparatus are.

Meters let by Director of Public Works not distrainable.

Ibid., s. 6.

14.

Ibid., s. 15.

14. NO pipe or fitting attached to or connected with any of the pipes of the Director of Public Works shall be seized or taken in execution by process of law or under distress for rent.

15. FOR levying and recovering the amount due in respect of the supply of water in accordance with this Act, or for water supplied by measure, the Director of Public Works, or any person authorised by him, shall have all the powers of the councils of the three municipalities respectively for the levying and recovering the amount due in respect of the general rate under the Act or Acts for the time being regulating the municipal government of such municipalities.

16. ALL informations and proceedings in respect of offences against this Act, or any by-law made hereunder, shall be summarily punishable upon conviction before a Court of summary jurisdiction.

17. ALL forfeitures, damages, and expenses, and other sums of money by this Act made payable to or recoverable by the Director of Public Works, including moneys payable by persons supplied with water by measure, shall, where the amount sought to be recovered does not exceed Twenty pounds, be recoverable summarily before a Court of summary jurisdiction.

18. EVERY penalty imposed by this Act, or by any by-law made hereunder, may be proceeded for and enforced either against the person actually committing any breach of such Act or by-law, or the person in whose employment he is or on whose behalf he is acting.

19. THE register of every meter provided by the Director of Public Works, or a copy thereof certified by any person authorised in that behalf by the Director of Public Works to be true, shall be prima facie evidence of the quantity of water consumed.

20. SECTIONS A, C, F, G, and H of the Second Schedule to the Interpretation Act, 1898, shall be incorporated with and taken to form part of this Act to all intents and purposes, and in as full and complete a manner as if the said sections had been introduced and fully set forth in this Act.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

No. LIV.

AN ACT to amend an Act passed in the sixty-second year of Her Majesty, and numbered twenty-eight, intituled "An Act to amend the Companies Act, 1893, Amendment Act, 1897."

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Companies Act Amendment Act, 1899, and shall be construed as one with the Companies Act, 1893, hereinafter called the principal Act, and the Acts amending the same.

Short title and incorporation.

2.

Companies Act—Amendment.

of 62 Vict., 28.

2. SECTION three of the Act passed in the sixty-second year of Her Majesty, numbered twenty-eight, is hereby amended by inserting at the beginning thereof "Every foreign company or"; and by striking out, in line six thereof, the words "registration of the company in the Colony," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "deposit in the office of the Registrar of the power of attorney, in accordance with section one hundred and ninety-eight of the Companies Act, 1893"; and by striking out the third paragraph of the said section, and by inserting in lieu thereof "Every such foreign company failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds for every day during which such refusal or non-compliance shall continue, to be recovered in a summary manner before any two Justices of the Peace, or by action or suit in the Supreme Court, and shall be a charge on the property of the Company, and in addition thereto, if such default continues for the space of three calendar months, the company, and every person acting as trustee or agent for the company or otherwise on its behalf, shall thereafter be incapable, while so in default, of bringing or maintaining in Western Australia any action, set-off, counter-claim, or other legal proceeding whatsoever in the said Colony."

Power to reject transfer to vest in attorney or local board.

3. IF, by the constitution of the foreign company, the company or its directors have power to reject a transfer of shares, such power shall, in respect of transfers tendered for registration in the Colony, be vested in the attorney for the company or the local board of directors.

Transfer of shares to colonial register.

4. (1.) ANY shareholder in a foreign company who desires to be registered in the colonial register may deliver an application in the form of the First Schedule hereto, together with a certificate of the shares in respect of which he desires to be registered, to the attorney of the company at its registered office in the Colony.

(2.) The attorney shall thereupon give to the shareholder a certificate of deposit in the form of the Second Schedule hereto, and shall, with due diligence, forward the share certificate to the principal registered office of the company; and if it there appears that no encumbrances or unpaid calls are registered against or due upon the shares, the shares shall be transferred to the colonial register, and notice of such transfer shall be given to the shareholder.

(3.) Upon production of the said certificate of deposit, after notification of such transfer, the attorney shall issue to the shareholder a certificate indorsed with the words "Colonial Register," showing that he is the proprietor of the shares, and such certificate shall be of the same force and effect as the superseded certificate.

Companies Act—Amendment.

(4.) For any failure or refusal to comply with this section, the company shall incur the like penalties, and suffer the like disabilities as prescribed by section two hereof.

5. (1.) WHENEVER a foreign company carrying on business in this Colony is reconstructed on the basis of a sale by the liquidator of the assets of the company or otherwise, the liquidator or the company shall reserve, for the benefit of the members of the company registered on the colonial register (hereinafter called the colonial members), a part of the consideration passing to the reconstructing company, proportioned to the interests of the colonial members, and shall forthwith cause notice of such reservation to be published in the Government Gazette, and to be delivered to each colonial member, or sent by post to his registered address; and at any time within two months after such publication every colonial member may, by writing under his hand delivered by post or otherwise to the liquidator or the company, or the attorney of the liquidator, or of the company in the Colony, claim the share proportioned to the interest of such shareholder in the part of the consideration so reserved, and shall be entitled to receive the same.

On reconstruction, liquidator or company to reserve colonial members' share of consideration.

(2.) The liquidator or the company shall forward to the Registrar at the Supreme Court a statutory declaration made by the liquidator or by a director or officer of the company authorised by the company in that behalf, stating how this section has been complied with; and until such declaration has been filed no conveyance, transfer, or dealing with any property of the company shall be registered in the Department of Mines or of Crown Lands or in the office of Land Titles or in the office for the registration of deeds; and no person holding any property, real or personal, as servant, agent, or trustee on behalf of the company shall convey, deal with, or dispose of the same, nor shall any property of the company in this Colony pass to the purchaser thereof.

Liquidator to send to Registrar of Supreme Court declaration of compliance with this section, otherwise no property in the Colony to pass.

(3.) Before filing any declaration purporting to comply with this Act, the Registrar shall examine the same and satisfy himself of such compliance.

Examination of declaration before filing.

6. WHENEVER a foreign company carrying on business in the Colony has passed resolutions authorising the issue of debentures or additional shares, the company shall reserve for the benefit of the colonial members a part of such issue proportioned to the interests of the colonial members, and shall forthwith cause notice of such reservation to be published and to be delivered in like manner as is hereinbefore provided in the case of reconstruction; and, at any time within two months of such publication, every colonial member may, by writing under his hand delivered by post or otherwise to the

On issue of new shares or debentures, colonial members' proportion to be reserved.

PRIVATE ACT.

AN ACT to grant to certain persons powers and provisions for the Manufacture, Distribution, and Supply of Gas and Electricity.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

WHEREAS Andrew Harriot Henning, James William Wright, William Eltze Victor, and George Francis Pitchford (hereinafter called the undertakers) are desirous of acquiring the rights and powers necessary or desirable for carrying on the business of Gas and Electricity Manufacturers and Generators, including the distribution and supply thereof, for the purposes of heat, light, motive power, or otherwise, in the area comprised within the districts as now defined of the Cottesloe, Buckland Hill, and Peppermint Grove Roads Boards:

Preamble.

And whereas the undertakers have acquired, or are entitled to parts of Cottesloe Suburban Lot 33, and have the right and propose to erect thereon the necessary works for the manufacture and generation of the gas and electricity for the purposes aforesaid:

And whereas it is desirable to grant to the undertakers the rights and privileges hereinafter appearing:

Be

Companies Act—Am Power.

Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, in Council, by the Legislative Council and the Parliament of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, do hereby enact and give authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Cottesloe Lighting and Power (Private) Act, 1899," and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1900.

2. IN the construction of this Act, unless there is anything in the subject or context repugnant thereto, the several words and expressions hereinafter mentioned shall have or include the meaning following, that is to say:—

(a.) The expression "the undertakers" shall mean the said Andrew Harriot Henning, James William Wright, William Eltze Victor, and George Francis Pitchford, their and each of their executors, administrators, and assigns.

(b.) The expression "undertaking" shall mean the making, distribution, and supply of gas and electricity for the purposes of light, heat, motive power, or otherwise within the limits herein mentioned, and the making and constructing of all works connected therewith and all other works by this Act authorised to be executed, and the doing of all things necessary or convenient for the purpose, subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c.) The words "owner" or "occupier" shall respectively mean and include any person or corporation who shall for the time being be the owner or occupier, or have the charge of any street, road, place, or land affected or to be affected by the undertaking.

(d.) The word "street" shall include any street, market-place, court, highway, lane, public road, wharf, thoroughfare, passage, or place within the limits of the Act.

(e.) The expression "works" shall mean all the buildings, erections, works, machinery, plant, and apparatus for the manufacture, generation, distribution, and supply, within the limits of this Act, of gas and electricity, including the necessary pipes, mains, connections, cables, poles, wires, lines, accumulators and lamps, and other apparatus, and all other works connected therewith and incidental thereto or by this Act or in any other way authorised to be constructed or undertaken by the undertakers.

(f.)

Cottesloe Lighting and Power.

- (f.) The expression "gas rate" or "electric rate" shall include any rent to be received or remuneration of any kind to be paid to the undertakers for the supply of gas or electricity, or the letting of gas or electrical apparatus used in connection therewith. "Gas rate."
- (g.) The word "building" shall include all erections whatsoever, and all premises appertaining thereto, and also public and private gardens and enclosed courts and yards. "Building."
- (h.) The expression "local authority" shall mean, within their respective jurisdictions, the Council, Board, or other body having the care or charge of any street. "Local authority."
- (i.) The word "district," in relation to a local authority, shall mean the area within the jurisdiction of such local authority. "District."

3. THE limits of this Act shall extend to and include the whole area within the boundaries of the Roads Board Districts of Cottesloe, Buckland Hill, and Peppermint Grove as defined in the Schedule hereto. Limits of the Act.

4. (1.) SUBJECT to the provisions of this Act, and within the limits thereof, the undertakers or their assigns may carry on the business of gas and electric lighting in all its branches for the purposes of light, heat, motive power, or otherwise, including the erection, construction, laying down, establishment, and fixing of all necessary works, and may erect and construct on the land in the preamble mentioned, or any other land hereafter acquired, all necessary buildings, erections, machinery, furnaces, gasometers, and other plant, and may do and perform all such other acts and things as may be thought necessary for supplying the inhabitants within such limits with gas or electricity, and may supply such gas or electricity upon such terms as shall be agreed upon with the persons supplied therewith. Power to construct works.

(2.) If the undertakers, having agreed in writing with any consumer to supply gas or electricity, fail to supply such gas or electricity as agreed, the consumer aggrieved may, unless such failure is due to some accident, or strike, or some unavoidable cause, or by the execution of necessary repairs or works, recover from the undertakers, by way of damages, a sum not exceeding One pound for every completed day of twenty-four hours during which such failure continues: Provided that the information or complaint is laid within two days of such failure first happening. Penalty on failure to supply.

5. (1.) THE undertakers may break up any street, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under any street, and lay down and place or erect over, along, or across any street Power to break up streets, etc., under superintendence, and to open drains.

Cottesloe Lighting and Power.

street all such works as may be necessary for the distribution and supply of gas or electricity, and from time to time maintain, use, repair, alter, or remove the same; and also may, from time to time, make, repair, alter, or remove any sewers that may be necessary for carrying off the washings and waste liquids which may arise in connection with the works: And may lay, place, or erect any pipe, branch, cable line, or other apparatus into, through, or against any building for the purpose of lighting the same, and may provide and set up all apparatus necessary for securing to any building a proper and complete supply of gas or electricity, and for measuring and ascertaining the extent of such supply: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall authorise or empower the undertakers to lay down or place any pipe, branch, cable, line, or other apparatus into, through, or against any building, or in any land not being a street or dedicated to public use, without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof, except that the undertakers may at any time enter upon any land or building and relay, replace, alter, or repair any existing pipe, branch, cable, line, or other apparatus.

Depth of mains.

(2.) No gas main shall be laid in any street in a trench less than two feet six inches deep where laid in sand, or eighteen inches deep where laid in rock. Any main laid contrary to this provision may be removed by the local authority, at the expense of the undertakers, unless properly relaid after notice

Notice to be served before breaking up streets or opening drains.

6. BEFORE the undertakers proceed to break up any street, sewer, drain, or tunnel, they shall give to the local authority, not less than three clear days' written notice of intention to break up the same, except for the purpose of connecting service pipes or lines to mains, cables, or service lines already laid, in which excepted cases one clear day's written notice shall be sufficient: Provided that in cases of emergency arising from accidents to or defects in the works no notice need be given.

Streets and drains not to be broken up except under superintendence.

7. NO street, sewer, drain, or tunnel shall (except in cases of emergency arising from accidents to or defects in the works, or except in the cases of connections to service mains, cable, or line) be broken up, unless under the superintendence of the local authority, and according to such plan as shall be approved by such local authority, or, in case of any difference, then according to such plan as shall be determined by two Justices: And such Justices may require the undertakers to make such temporary or other works as the said Justices may think necessary for guarding against damage to passengers and traffic, or against any interruption of the drainage during the execution of any works: Provided, always, that if no officer appointed by the local authority shall attend at the time time fixed for and remain during the opening of any such street, sewer, drain, or tunnel, after having notice as aforesaid, or if the local authority shall not propose any plan for breaking up or opening the same, the undertakers may perform the work specified in the notice without such superintendence or plan.

8. WHEN the undertakers open or break up any street, sewer, drain, or tunnel, they shall, with all convenient speed, complete the work, and fill in the ground and re-instate and make good the same, to the satisfaction of the local authority, and carry away all rubbish occasioned by the work, and shall, whilst any street shall be open or broken up, cause the same to be properly guarded, and a light sufficient for the warning of the passengers to be set up and maintained wheresuch work is being done every night during which the same shall be in operation, and shall, when and as required by the local authority, keep the street which has been broken up in good repair for three months after replacing and making good the same.

Streets broken up to be re-instated without delay.

9. IF the undertakers commit, permit, or suffer any act, delay, neglect, or omission contrary to the provisions aforesaid, they shall incur a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for every such offence, and an additional penalty of Forty shillings for each day during which any such neglect, omission, or delay shall continue after notice thereof by the local authority.

Penalty for breaking up without notice, or delay in re-instating.

10. IF any such delay, neglect, or omission as aforesaid take place, the local authority may cause the work so delayed, neglected, or omitted to be executed and performed, and all expenses so incurred shall be repaid to such local authority by the undertakers, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as damages are recoverable under this Act.

In cases of delay other parties may re-instate and recover expenses.

11. THE undertakers shall do as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers by this Act granted, and shall make compensation for any damage which may be done in the execution of such powers.

Undertakers to make compensation for any damage.

12. (1.) IF at any time any local authority shall deem it necessary or expedient to require the undertakers to remove, raise, or sink or otherwise alter the situation of any of the works which shall be laid in or over any street, or to alter the situation or remove any works which shall have been laid in or over any street contrary to any of the provisions of this Act, the undertakers shall, within ten days next after being required so to do by notice in writing, raise or sink or otherwise alter or remove the situation of such works accordingly; and in default it shall be lawful for the local authority to

Power to local authority to alter situation of pipes, etc.

to cause such works to be so removed, raised, or sunk, or the situation thereof otherwise altered. The expense of doing the work aforesaid shall, with respect to any works which shall have been done contrary to any of the provisions of this Act, be paid and borne by the undertakers; and shall, with respect to any other works, be paid and borne by the local authority. All such expenses respectively, by whomsoever the work is done, shall be recoverable in the same manner as damages are recoverable under this Act: Provided that if, in raising or sinking or otherwise altering any of the works, any injury shall be wilfully or negligently done to the same by any person employed by the local authority, compensation shall be made by the local authority to the undertakers for such injury, and the amount of such compensation may be ascertained and recovered in the same manner as damages are recoverable under this Act.

Power to require works to be laid underground.

(2.) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the local authorities may from time to time, by joint order, require the undertakers to lay under any street all works situated over or above such street; and, on receipt of such order, the undertakers shall submit plans and specifications, and an estimate of the cost of such works, and of the necessary alterations of private connections. If such plans, specifications, and estimate are not agreed to by the local authorities, the same shall be referred to and settled by two arbitrators and their umpire, under the Arbitration Act, 1895.

When such plans, specifications, and estimate are agreed or settled, the work shall be carried out by the undertakers, and the cost thereof and of such alterations shall, as to one-third thereof, be paid by the undertakers, and as to the remaining two-thirds, by the local authorities, and until such two-thirds are paid, the same, with interest at Five pounds per centum per annum, shall be a first and paramount charge on the rates, income, property, and assets of the local authorities.

Price of gas to private consumers to be uniform, and for supply to owners and occupiers.

13. (1.) THE price of gas or of electricity respectively shall be uniform throughout the district, having regard to the purposes for and the quantities in which the same are supplied. The undertakers shall supply with gas, at the current price for the time being for the purpose intended, any person who occupies a building situate not more than three hundred feet from any one of the undertakers' mains, and who has signed an agreement with the undertakers as to such supply, and obtained and affixed a meter supplied by the undertakers. Nothing in this section contained shall compel the undertakers to provide any pipes or connections except as hereinafter mentioned, nor to supply or continue the supply of gas or electricity except for lighting purposes, and then only subject to this Act and the agreement (if any) made in relation to such supply.

Cottesloe Lighting and Power.

(2.) The undertakers will, at their own expense, on being required so to do by any occupier within the limits aforesaid, and upon execution of an agreement as aforesaid, lay a service pipe from a main in any street up to the boundary of such street nearest to the building of such applicant, but not further from such main than the width of the street in which such main is laid.

Undertakers to lay pipes to boundaries.

14. IN the absence of any special contract with the local authority, the price to be charged by the undertakers to such local authority for all gas or electric light supplied to it shall be less, by ten per centum, than the price charged for the time being to private consumers for lighting purposes.

Price of gas to local authority.

15. NO meter for ascertaining the quantity of gas or electricity supplied, nor any fittings therefor, shall be subject to distress for rent, or be taken in execution under any process of any Court of law or equity, nor be affected by any adjudication or other proceeding in bankruptcy of any person in possession thereof.

Meters and gas fittings exempt from distress, etc.

16. (1.) UNTIL otherwise fixed, as herein provided, the maximum price at which gas and electricity shall be sold shall not exceed Fifteen shillings per One thousand cubic feet for gas, and One shilling per unit for electric light.

Charge for supply of gas and electricity.

(2.) At the expiration of seven years from the 1st January, 1900, and thereafter on the expiration of seven years from any award, as hereinafter mentioned, the local authorities may, if the maximum price for gas and electricity be unreasonable, give notice to the undertakers requesting a reduction in the maximum price, and stating the reduction required and the reasons therefor, and, if the local authorities and undertakers agree, the maximum price or prices so agreed to shall stand in lieu of the prices aforesaid; but if they do not agree as to the maximum price or prices to be so charged, the question in dispute shall be referred to two arbitrators and their umpire, under the Arbitration Act, 1895, and the award of such arbitrators or umpire, fixing the maximum price or prices, shall be conclusive, and such price shall be the maximum price for the period of seven years from the date of the award and thereafter until again fixed by arbitration under this clause.

Alteration of charge by agreement or arbitration.

(3.) The maximum rent on meters shall not exceed Fifteen per centum on the cost price in Cottesloe.

Rent of meters.

(4.) If the undertakers charge and receive more than the maximum price or rent aforesaid, they shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two pounds.

Penalty for excessive charges.

Cottesloe Lighting and Power.

Quality of gas.

17. ALL the gas to be supplied by the undertakers shall be of such minimum quality as to produce from an argand burner, having fifteen holes and a seven-inch chimney, and consuming five cubic feet of gas per hour, a light equal in intensity to the light produced by twelve sperm candles of six in the pound, burning one hundred and twenty grains per hour; and the undertakers shall provide the necessary apparatus for testing the illuminating power of the gas, which apparatus shall at all reasonable times be available for use by the local authority or any of its officers for the purpose of testing such illuminating power.

Incoming tenant not liable to pay arrears of gas rates, etc.

18. IN case any consumer of gas or electricity supplied by the undertakers shall leave the premises where such gas or electricity has been supplied without paying all moneys due from him, the undertakers shall not be entitled to require from the next incoming tenant or occupier of such premises, before supplying him with gas or electricity, the payment of the arrears left unpaid by the former tenant, except where such incoming tenant or occupier has undertaken with the former tenant or occupier to pay or be liable for such arrears.

Power for local authority to appoint inspector of meters.

19. A LOCAL authority may appoint any qualified person who shall have at all times a right, in company with the engineer or other proper officer of the undertakers, or if such engineer or officer shall, during office hours, refuse to attend then, by himself, to inspect and test the meters erected by the undertakers; and any consumer requiring such inspection shall deposit in the hands of the inspector all money appearing to be due by such consumer to the undertakers on any account delivered, together with the cost of inspection; and in case such deposit shall be found to be in excess of the sum actually due to the undertakers, such excess shall be returned to the consumer with the cost of inspection, otherwise such deposit, together with half the cost of inspection, shall be paid to the undertakers, and the other half of the cost of inspection retained by the local authority.

Officers of undertakers may enter buildings for ascertaining quantity of gas consumed.

20. THE manager or any other servant of the undertakers duly appointed for the purpose may at all reasonable times, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9 p.m., enter any building or place supplied with gas or electricity by the undertakers and inspect the meters, pipes, burners, or other apparatus upon such premises; and if any person shall hinder such servant, after he has produced his written authority, signed by the undertakers, their manager, engineer, or secretary, from entering and making such inspection within the hours aforesaid, such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay to the undertakers a sum not exceeding Five pounds.

Cottesloe Lighting and Power.

21. IF any person supplied by the undertakers with gas or electricity by meter or otherwise, or with a meter, or with pipes, burners, lamps, or any other fittings or apparatus, shall fail or neglect to pay all moneys due for gas or electricity supplied, or for the rent or price of such meter, pipes, burners, lamps, or other fittings or apparatus respectively for the space of forty-eight hours next after a demand of the amount due, indorsed with a copy of this section, and signed by or on behalf of the undertakers, shall have been served upon some person at the building or premises so supplied, or if such building or premises are apparently unoccupied, shall have been left on such building or premises; the undertakers may stop the supply of gas or electricity from entering the premises by cutting off the service pipes or connections, or by such other means as the undertakers shall think fit, and may recover all moneys due as aforesaid, together with the costs of such cutting off and removal, in the same manner as any damages or sums of money, for the recovery of which no special provision is made, are recoverable under this Act.

Recovery of gas or electricity rate and meter rent.

22. IN all cases in which the undertakers cut off or discontinue the supply of gas or electricity from or to any building or premises, they, by their agents or workmen, after giving previous notice to the occupier, may enter such building or premises between the hours of nine in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, and remove and carry away any plant or apparatus or other property of the undertakers: Provided, however, that all damages to property occasioned by such removal as aforesaid, shall be made good by and at the expense of the undertakers.

Power to take away pipes, etc., when supply of gas or electricity discontinued.

23. EVERY person who shall lay or cause to be laid any pipe or wire to communicate with any pipe, cable, or wire belonging to the undertakers, without their consent, or shall wilfully or by negligence injure any part of the works, or shall alter the index to any meter or prevent any meter from duly registering the quantity of gas or electricity supplied, or who, in case the gas or electricity supplied by the undertakers is not ascertained by meter, shall use any lamp or burner other than such as has been provided or approved of by the undertakers, or shall keep the lights burning for a longer time than he has contracted to pay for, or shall otherwise improperly use such gas or electricity, or shall in any other manner act contrary to the contract made or implied between such person and the undertakers, shall, without prejudice to any other right or remedy for the protection of the undertakers or the punishment of the offender, forfeit and pay to the undertakers a sum not exceeding Five pounds for every such offence, and also a sum not exceeding Forty shillings for every day such offence shall continue; and the undertakers may take or cut off the gas or electricity from the building and Undue use of gas or electricity.

Penalty for improperly using the gas of the undertakers.

and premises of the person so offending, notwithstanding any contract which may have been previously entered into, and which may be then in existence: And, in addition, the undertakers may recover the amount of any damage sustained by them by or through any such wrongful act, neglect, default, or injury in the same manner in which damages are made recoverable by this Act.

Penalty for wilfully damaging pipes, etc.

24. EVERY person who shall wilfully remove, destroy, or damage any part or portion of the works or other property of the undertakers, or shall wilfully extinguish any of the public lamps or lights, or waste or improperly use any of the gas supplied by the undertakers, shall for each such offence forfeit and pay to the undertakers any sum not exceeding Five pounds, in addition to the amount of damage done.

Damages for accidentally damaging works, etc.

25. EVERY person who shall carelessly or accidentally break, throw down, or damage any of the works the property of the undertakers or under their control, shall pay such sum of money and such costs by way of satisfaction to the undertakers for the damage done as any two Justices shall think reasonable, and the undertakers may recover the same in the same manner as damages are made recoverable by this Act.

Fittings not to be connected with mains without previous consent.

26. NO person shall fit up or keep fitted up any apparatus or fitting whereby gas or electricity shall be obtained from any part of the works belonging to the undertakers without the consent in writing of the undertakers first obtained for that purpose; and any person committing a breach of this section shall forfeit and pay to the undertakers a sum not exceeding Five pounds for every such offence, and a further sum not exceeding Forty shillings for every day during which such offence shall continue.

Costs of distress.

27. ANY Justice who shall adjudge, order, or direct the recovery or payment of any money by or to the undertakers, either by way of penalty or damages or otherwise, may order that the costs of the proceedings for the recovery of the same shall be paid by the person or persons liable to pay the same money, and such costs shall be ascertained and included in the warrant of distress for the recovery of such money.

Penalty on company for causing water to be fouled.

28. IF the undertakers shall at any time wilfully or negligently cause or suffer to be brought or to flow into any river, stream, brook, creek, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, water-way, feeder, pond, spring-head, or well, or into any drain communicating therewith, any washings or other substance produced in the making or supplying gas, or shall wilfully do any act connected with the making or supplying of gas, whereby the water along the sea beach or the water in

in any river, stream, brook, creek, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, water-way, feeder, pond, spring-head, well, water-pipe, or water-course shall be fouled, the undertakers shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding Fifty pounds.

29. THE said penalty shall be recovered, with full costs of suit, before any two or more Justices in a summary way, or in any Court of competent jurisdiction by Her Majesty, or by the local authority, or by any person into whose water such washings or other substance shall be conveyed or shall flow, or whose water shall be fouled by any such act as aforesaid; but such penalty shall not be recoverable unless it be sued for during the continuance of the offence, or within six months after it shall have ceased.

Penalty to be sued for within six months.

30. IN addition to the said penalty the undertakers shall forfeit any sum not exceeding the sum of Five pounds (to be recovered in the like manner) for each day during which such offence continues after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when notice shall have been served on the undertakers on behalf of Her Majesty, or by the local authority, or by any person into whose water such washings or other substance shall be brought or shall flow, or whose water shall be fouled thereby.

Daily penalty for continuance of the offence.

31. WHENEVER any gas or electricity shall escape from any part of the works, the undertakers shall, immediately after receiving notice thereof in writing, take all necessary steps to prevent such escape; and in case the undertakers shall not, within two clear days next after service of such notice, effectually prevent such escape, and wholly remove the cause of complaint, the undertakers shall forfeit and pay the sum of Five pounds for each day during which such escape shall continue to take place.

Daily penalty during escape of gas after notice to the undertakers.

32. WHENEVER any water within the limits of this Act mentioned shall be fouled by the gas of the undertakers, they shall forfeit to the person whose water shall be fouled, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding Ten pounds, and a further sum not exceeding Five pounds for each day during which the offence shall continue after the expiration of two clear days from the service of notice of such offence.

Penalty if water fouled with gas.

33. FOR the purpose of ascertaining whether such water is so fouled, the person to whom the water shall belong, or on whose premises it is, or the local authority may dig and examine the works of the undertakers in or under any street, provided that such person or local authority, before proceeding to so dig and examine, shall give to the undertakers twenty-four hours' notice of time at which such digging or examination is to take place; and the undertakers

Power to examine gas pipes to ascertain the cause of fouling, and notice to be given.

undertakers shall, subject to the next section of this Act, have the like obligation of re-instating the street and guarding against accidents, and be subject to the same penalties for unnecessary delay or any nonfeasance or misfeasance therein as are hereinbefore provided with respect to streets broken up for the purpose of laying its pipes.

Expense of examination to abide result.

34. IF upon any such examination it shall appear that such water has been so fouled as aforesaid, the expense of the digging and examination, and of the repair of the street or place disturbed in any such examination, shall be paid by the undertakers; but if upon such examination it shall appear that the water has not been so fouled by the undertakers, the person or local authority causing such examination to be made shall pay all such expenses, and shall also make good to the undertakers any injury which may be occasioned to the works by such examination.

How expenses to be ascertained.

35. THE amount of the expense of every such examination and repairs, and of any injury done to the works shall, in case of any dispute about the same, together with the costs of ascertaining and recovering the same, be ascertained and recovered in the same manner as damages for the ascertaining and recovery whereof no special provision is made are to be ascertained and recovered.

No creditor of the undertakers allowed to remove pipes, etc., laid in streets or buildings.

36. NO special or simple contract creditor of the undertakers shall, by or under any law, title, or pretence whatever, levy or seize in execution, or in any way attempt to recover payment of any sum of money due to him by taking and removing any of the works of the undertakers laid, placed, or fixed in, under, upon, or through any street within the limits of this Act, or in any building or premises not being in the occupation of the undertakers.

Licensing of plumbers and engineers.

37. NO person other than a plumber or engineer licensed by the undertakers shall fix, alter, repair, or interfere with any main, pipe, cable, line, fitting, meter, or other apparatus connected with the works; and the undertakers may, with the approval of the local authorities or a joint committee thereof, make by-laws for licensing competent plumbers or engineers, and for cancelling licenses, and for fining licensed plumbers or engineers for breach of any by-law. Any person other than a licensed plumber or engineer acting or permitting any act contrary to this section, and any licensed plumber or engineer acting or permitting any act contrary to any by-law, shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction, forfeit and pay to the undertakers a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

38. NOTHING in this Act contained shall prevent the undertakers from being liable to an indictment for nuisance or to any other legal proceedings to which they may be liable, or shall be deemed to exempt the undertakers from the provisions of any Act relating to the public health.

Undertakers may be indicted for nuisance.

Not exempt from provisions of Public Health Act.

39. IT shall be lawful for the local authorities, at any time after the first day of January, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, to jointly purchase all the land, works, assets, and property of and belonging to the undertakers and used in connection with the matters aforesaid, upon giving to the undertakers six calendar months' notice in writing of such intention so to do, and at such price and upon such terms and conditions as shall or may be mutually agreed upon between the undertakers and the local authorities; but in case of any dispute or disagreement arising between the undertakers and the local authorities respecting such purchase as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for either party to require that it shall be left to arbitration to determine what amount of purchase money shall be paid, and in such event each party shall name one person; and if such two persons cannot agree upon the amount to be paid, the same shall be referred to the umpirage of some third person to be appointed by such two first-named persons previously to their entering upon the arbitration; and the determination of such arbitrators or umpire, as the case may be, shall be binding and conclusive on the said parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Power to compulsorily purchase the works of the undertakers.

40. NOTHING in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to affect any right, title, or interest of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors.

Saving clause of Her Majesty's rights.

41. WHERE any damage is done to the works or property of the undertakers, and any damages are awarded to the undertakers, and where any penalty for an offence is directed by this Act to be paid to the undertakers, such damages or penalty respectively shall be paid to the undertakers for their own use.

Application of damages and penalties directed to be paid to the undertakers.

42. ONE moiety of all penalties imposed or recovered under this Act, where the application is not otherwise provided for, shall be paid to the informer, and the other moiety to the local authority.

Application of other penalties.

43. (1.) ALL informations and complaints in respect of offences under this Act shall be heard and determined, and except as is herein otherwise provided, all moneys, costs, and damages, and expenses not exceeding Twenty pounds, made payable or recoverable hereby, may be recovered in a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

44. THIS Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others within the said Colony of Western Australia, without being specially pleaded.

Application of Interpretation Act, 1898.

45. SECTIONS C, F, G, and H of the Second Schedule to the Interpretation Act, 1898, shall be incorporated herewith.

Appeal.

46. ANY person aggrieved by any conviction or order of (including any order dismissing any information, complaint, or proceeding by) a Court of summary jurisdiction under this Act may, if the penalty imposed or sum awarded exceeds Two pounds, or in case of a dismissal, if the penalty which might be imposed or the sum which might be awarded exceeds Two pounds, appeal from such conviction or order to the Supreme Court.

Every such appeal shall be subject to the provisions of Part IX. of the Police Act, 1892, and of any Act amending such provisions.

When works to be commenced and completed.

47. (1.) THE undertakers shall, within nine months from the 1st January, 1900, commence, and shall on or before the expiration of eighteen months from such commencement, unless prevented by the act of God or some other unforeseen or inevitable act or event, have completely laid all mains shown upon the plan deposited by the undertakers and situate within one mile from the said Cottesloe Suburban Lot 33.

(2.) The local authorities may extend the times provided by this section.

In default this Act to become void after declaration by Supreme Court.

(3.) If the provisions of this section are not complied with within the times or extended times aforesaid, the local authorities may, within one month from the expiration of such times, petition the Supreme Court by action for a declaration that such provisions have not been complied with, and on such a declaration being made in such action, this Act shall cease and determine.

Forfeiture of deposit.

(4.) The money deposited by the undertakers with the Colonial Treasurer, in accordance with the Joint Standing Orders relating to Private Bills, shall be held by the Colonial Treasurer until completion of the work aforesaid, and thereupon be returned to the undertakers; provided that if a declaration as aforesaid be made by

PRIVATE ACT.

AN ACT to authorise William Dalgety Moore, or his assigns, to lay down Water Mains and Pipes, and to do all other necessary Acts for the Supply of Water throughout the Roads Board Districts of Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill.

[Assented to, 16th December, 1899.]

WHEREAS William Dalgety Moore, of Fremantle, merchant, is now duly seised and possessed of, or otherwise well entitled to, certain hereditaments situate at Claremont, being portion of Swan Location 699, and in respect of which he is duly registered as the proprietor under the Transfer of Land Act, 1893; Preamble.

And whereas there are erected upon the said land waterworks known as "The Osborne Waterworks," which are now used for the purpose of supplying water throughout parts of the surrounding districts;

And

63° VICTORIÆ, PRIVATE ACT.

Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply.

And whereas the Roads Board Districts of Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill are within the area which it is desired to supply by the said waterworks ;

And whereas the Roads Boards of the said districts are not within the application of the Water Works Act, 1889, and have no power to authorise the said William Dalgety Moore to extend the supply of water within the said districts ;

And whereas the said William Dalgety Moore, his heirs and assigns, desire to have conferred upon him and them rights, powers, and privileges to enable him to supply the said water throughout the said districts: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title of Act. 1. THIS Act may be cited as "The Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply (Private) Act, 1899."

Interpretation clause. 2. IN the construction of this Act, unless there is anything in the subject or context repugnant thereto, the several words and expressions hereinafter mentioned shall have or include the meanings following, that is to say,— "Proprietor." (a.) The expression "the proprietor" shall mean the said William Dalgety Moore, his heirs and assigns.

"Owner" or "Occupier." (b.) The words "owner" or "occupier" shall respectively mean and include any person who shall for the time being be the owner or occupier, or have the charge of any land, street, road, or place affected or to be affected by the waterworks.

"Street." (c.) The word "street" shall include not only streets commonly so called, but also any street, market-place, court, highway, lane, public road, wharf, thoroughfare, or public passage or place within the limits of the Act.

"Waterworks." (d.) The expression "waterworks" shall mean the waterworks and all other works connected therewith by this Act authorised to be constructed.

"Building." (e.) The word "building" shall include places of public worship, places of public amusement, public institutions, public and private offices, dwelling-houses, mills, manufactories, stores, shops, stables, sheds, and other similar erections, with any premises appurtenant thereto, and also public and private gardens and enclosed courts and yards.

(f.)

Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply.

(f.) The expression "local authority" shall mean the Roads Board or other bodies or body having the care and charge of any of the streets or roads within the limits of this Act and for their respective jurisdiction. "Local authority."

(g.) The word "district" in relation to a local authority shall mean the area within the jurisdiction of such local authority. "District."

(h.) The expression "main" includes a pipe. "Main."

3. THE limits of this Act shall extend to and include the area that at the date of its coming into operation is comprised within the districts of the Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Roads Boards. Limits of Act.

4. SUBJECT to the consent of the local authority and to the terms imposed by such consent and to the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the proprietor from time to time— Proprietor may open streets.

(1.) To open and break up the soil of any street within the limits of this Act, and to open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under any such streets, and lay down and place within the same limits mains, conduits, service pipes, and other works for the distribution of water; and from time to time to repair, alter, or remove the same for the purpose aforesaid, and to remove and use all earth and materials in and under such street.

(2.) To lay down any pipe, branch, or other apparatus for the distribution of water from any main or branch pipes into, through, or against any building for the purpose of supplying the same with water, and to provide and set up any such apparatus necessary for securing to any building a proper and complete supply of water, or for measuring and ascertaining the extent of such supply: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorise the proprietor to lay down or place any pipes or other works into, through, or against any building or land not dedicated to public use, without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof, except that the proprietor may at any time enter upon any land for the purpose of laying or placing any new pipe or apparatus in the place of an existing pipe or apparatus in any land wherein any pipe or apparatus shall have been lawfully laid down or placed, or for the purpose of repairing or altering any pipe or apparatus so laid down. Not to enter on private land without consent.

Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply.

Consent of local authority must first be obtained, and plans lodged.

5. IT shall not be lawful for the proprietor to exercise any of the powers or privileges conferred by the preceding section until he shall have first deposited with the local authority a plan or plans setting forth the extent to which, and the manner in which, the proprietor purposes to exercise such powers and the works he proposes to carry out, and unless and until he shall have received the consent in writing of the local authority so to do, which consent may or may not be given, as such local authority in its absolute discretion thinks fit: Provided that in cases of emergency arising from accidents to, or defects in any of the works already laid, such accidents or defects may be repaired without previous notice, so that such notice is given as soon as possible after the beginning of the work, or the necessity for the same has arisen.

No street to be opened unless under superintendence of local authority.

6. NO street, sewer, drain, or tunnel shall, except in case of emergency arising as aforesaid, be opened or broken up except under the superintendence of the local authority or its officer: Provided always, that if no officer of the local authority shall attend at the time fixed for the opening of any such street, road, sewer, drain, or tunnel, after having had notice of the proprietor's intention as aforesaid, or shall refuse or neglect to superintend the operation, the proprietor may, subject to the preceding section, perform the work without the superintendence of the local authority or its officer.

Streets when opened to be repaired.

7. (1.) WHEN the proprietor opens or breaks up any street, sewer, drain, or tunnel, he shall, with all convenient speed, complete the work for which the same shall be opened or broken up, and fill in the ground and re-instate and make good the said street, sewer, drain, or tunnel to the satisfaction of the local authority or its officer, and shall carry away the rubbish occasioned by the work; and shall at all times, whilst any such street shall be opened or broken up, cause the same to be properly guarded, and a light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and maintained every night during which such street shall be continued open or broken up: And the proprietor, after replacing and making good the street so broken up by him, shall keep the same in repair to the satisfaction of the local authority for six months thereafter.

Local authority may require deposit.

(2.) The local authority may require the proprietor, before proceeding to open or break up any street, to deposit with them such reasonable sum of money as they may consider sufficient security for the carrying out by the proprietor of the provisions of this section.

Where breaking up without notice or delay in re-instating expenses occasioned may be recovered.

8. IF the proprietor makes any unnecessary delay in completing any work under the preceding section, or in filling in or re-instating and making good the street, sewer, drain, or tunnel so opened or broken broken up, or in carrying away the rubbish occasioned by the work, or if the proprietor neglect to cause the place where such street has been broken up to be properly guarded and lighted as aforesaid, then and in such case the local authority may cause the work so delayed or neglected to be executed and performed, and the expenses of executing and performing the same shall be repaid to such local authority by the proprietor, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

9. THE proprietor shall do as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers by this Act granted, and shall make compensation for any damage which may be done in the execution of such powers.

Proprietor to make compensation for any damage.

10. IF at any time any local authority shall deem it necessary or expedient to require the proprietor to raise or sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any of the pipes which shall have been laid down contrary to any of the provisions of this Act, or which need to be altered by reason of any adjustment or alteration of the level of any street or part, the proprietor shall, at his own cost and expense, with all convenient speed, after being required so to do by notice in writing, raise or sink or otherwise alter the situation of such pipes according to the notice: And in default of the proprietor so doing, it shall be lawful for the local authority to cause such pipes to be so raised or sunk, or the situation otherwise altered, and the expense of doing the work shall be repaid by the proprietor to the local authority, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to local authority to alter situation of pipes, etc.

11. SUBJECT to the provisions of this Act, as hereinafter contained, the proprietor may from time to time enter into any contract with any person for supplying with water any public building or for providing any persons with, and for the repair of pipes, meters, fittings, or things for the supply of water; and may also from time to time enter into any contract, in writing, with the local authority for supplying such authority with water and all fittings or things necessary for such purpose: Provided always, that the price to be charged by the proprietor for water supplied to any person other than a local authority shall in no case exceed the rate of Two shillings per thousand gallons.

Power of proprietor to enter into contracts for the supply of water.

12. (1.) WHENEVER, and as often as required so to do by any local authority, the proprietor will, with all necessary despatch, lay down in such street or streets, as may be so required, a main for the supply of water to all persons in such street or streets, or within three hundred feet of such main: Provided that no extension shall be required at any one time for a greater distance than four hundred yards from the nearest main at the date of such request.

Proprietor to lay down mains if required by local authority.

63° VICTORIÆ, PRIVATE ACT.

Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply.

(2.) If the proprietor neglects to carry out the terms of such request within a reasonable time, the local authority making such request may, at the cost and expense of the proprietor, lay down such main.

Proprietor bound to supply.

13. THE proprietor shall, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable cause or accident, supply to all persons within the limits of the Act and not in arrears with their payments to the proprietor for water previously supplied, lawfully requiring the same, a constant supply of good and potable water, notwithstanding any contract or agreement to the contrary: Provided always, that the proprietor shall not be liable to supply water to any person or to any premises beyond a distance of three hundred feet from any main.

Supply for public purposes.

14. THE proprietor shall, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable cause or accident, or during necessary repairs, supply all water required by a local authority for watering streets, and also for all other purposes of such local authority at a rate not exceeding one-half of the charge made for the time being to private consumers.

Fire-plugs for public purposes. Pipes to be kept charged with water.

15. THE proprietor shall, at the expense of the local authority, fix and keep in effective order proper fire-plugs in the mains at such distances and at such places as the local authority may consider proper and convenient for the supply of water for extinguishing fires; and the proprietor shall at all times, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable cause or accident, or during necessary repairs, keep charged with water the pipes to which the fire-plugs are fixed, and shall allow all persons at all times, without any charge, to take and use such water for the purpose only of extinguishing fires.

Penalty if proprietor fails to carry out provisions of Act.

16. IF the proprietor does, or fails to do, anything contrary to any of the provisions of sections eleven, twelve, thirteen, and fourteen, he shall forfeit and pay to the person or local authority (as the case may be) a penalty not exceeding Twenty shillings for every day during which said failure, act, or default shall continue.

Communication pipes from main to be laid.

17. THE proprietor, on receiving from the owner or occupier of any building situated within three hundred feet of any main a written request for a supply of water, shall, with all convenient speed, provide and lay down to the edge of the street nearest to such building, and fix in readiness for use and keep in repair, communication pipes and other fittings, and do such other acts as shall be necessary and proper therefor: And if the proprietor shall, for a period of seven days after the receipt of such request as aforesaid, fail or neglect to comply therewith, or shall not keep such pipes and fittings in repair, he shall forfeit forfeit and pay to the person making such request a penalty not exceeding Twenty shillings for every day thereafter during which such neglect shall continue.

18. THE proprietor may let for hire any meter and fittings at such rent as shall be agreed, provided that no such meters or fittings shall be subject to distress for rent or be taken in execution under any process of any court of law or equity whatever, nor be affected by any adjudication or other proceedings in bankruptcy or sequestration: Provided always, that the charge to be made by the proprietor for the hire of any such meters or fittings shall in no case exceed fifteen per cent. on the cost price fixed in Cottesloe of such meter or fittings.

Power to proprietor to let meters.

19. THE proprietor or his servant may, at all reasonable times, enter any building or place supplied with water in order to inspect the meters, pipes, or other apparatus therein, for regulating the supply of water, and for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of water consumed or supplied.

Proprietor may enter buildings to ascertain quantity of water consumed.

20. IN all cases in which the proprietor is authorised to cut off the supply of water from any building or premises, the proprietor, his manager, agent, or workmen, after giving reasonable notice to the occupier, may enter such building or premises, and remove and carry away any pipe, meter, fittings, or other apparatus, the property of the proprietor: Provided that no damage whatever shall be occasioned by such removal to such building, save so far as may be necessarily incidental thereto.

Power to take away pipes when supply discontinued.

21. IF any person shall lay or cause to be laid any pipe to communicate with any pipe belonging to the proprietor without his consent, or shall wilfully or by culpable negligence injure any pipe, meter, or other apparatus belonging to the proprietor, or shall alter the index to any meter, or prevent any meter from duly registering the quantity of water supplied, or shall in any manner improperly use or dispose of any water contrary to the terms of this contract with the proprietor, then and in any such case the proprietor may, notwithstanding any contract, cut off the supply of water from the building and premises (if any) occupied by the person guilty of any such act, without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the proprietor.

Right to cut off supply in certain cases.

22. NO person shall fit up or affix, or keep fitted up or affixed, any apparatus, tap, stand-pipe, or fitting whereby water shall be obtained from any main or pipe belonging to the proprietor, without the consent in writing of the proprietor.

No connection with mains to be made without consent of proprietor.

Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply.

Penalty for breaking valves, etc.

23. EVERY person who shall be guilty of any act or neglect contrary to the provisions of either of the two preceding sections shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay to the proprietor for every such offence a penalty not exceeding Five pounds, besides the amount of damage to which the proprietor may be put in respect thereof, as well for the value of the water wasted as in repairing such fittings or other parts of the works, and the amount of such damage shall be ascertained, determined, and recovered in the same manner and time as any forfeited penalty.

Pipes, etc., not subject to seizure, etc.

24. NO judgment or other special or simple contract creditor of the proprietor shall, by or under any law, title, or pretence whatever, levy, seize in execution, or in any way attempt to recover payment of any sum of money due to him from the proprietor by taking and removing any part of the waterworks whatever necessary or incidental to the pumping, storing, distribution, and supply of water within the limits of this Act, save and except so far as any such creditor shall be authorised by order of the Court to receive and manage such works by way of equitable execution.

How penalties recoverable.

25. (1.) ALL forfeitures, damages, and expenses, and other sums of money by this Act made payable to or recoverable by the proprietor or local authority or person where the amount sought to be recovered does not exceed Twenty pounds, may be recovered in a Court of summary jurisdiction.

(2.) Where the amount payable or recoverable shall exceed Twenty pounds, the same shall be recoverable by action or proceeding in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

(3.) Every penalty imposed by this Act may be proceeded for and enforced, either against the person actually committing any breach of such Act, or the person in whose employment he is, or on whose behalf he is acting.

Application of Interpretation Act,
1898.

26. (1.) PARAGRAPHS C, F, and G of the second schedule of the Interpretation Act, 1898, shall be incorporated herewith.

Appeal.

(2.) Any person aggrieved by any conviction or order of (including any order dismissing any information, complaint, or proceeding by) a Court of summary jurisdiction under this Act may, if the penalty imposed or sum awarded exceeds Two pounds, or, in case of a dismissal, if the penalty which might be imposed or the sum which might be awarded exceeds Two pounds, appeal from such conviction or order to the Supreme Court.

Every

Peppermint Grove, Cottesloe, and Buckland Hill Water Supply.

Every such appeal shall be subject to the provisions of Part IX. of the Police Act, 1892, and of any Act amending such provisions.

27. NOTHING in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to affect any right, title, or interest of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors.

Nothing herein contained to affect Her Majesty.

28. IF the proprietor, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable cause or accident, neglects or fails at any time for a period of thirty days—

If proprietor fails to carry out this Act it may be declared void.

- (1.) To supply good and potable water at a sufficient pressure to any person lawfully requiring the same, or entitled thereto; or
- (2.) To proceed to, and with reasonable despatch, carry out any terms or any request under section nine or section ten;

and such default continues for a longer period of sixty days after written notice thereof by any local authority, such local authority may apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof for an order declaring this Act shall cease, and in such case, upon proof of the matters aforesaid, the Court or a Judge thereof shall declare this Act to have ceased, and thereupon the same shall cease and determine: Provided that no such application shall be made more than thirty days after the expiration of the period when the right to make the same first arose.

29. NOTHING in this Act contained shall confer upon or vest in the proprietor any exclusive right to supply water within the limits of this Act, nor in any way prejudice or affect the right of any local authority or any body corporate or other person in any district affected by this Act to obtain a supply of water from elsewhere, or to entitle the proprietor to claim any compensation, should similar rights and privileges be conferred upon any other person; and as regards all such matters, the rights of the local authorities shall be in all respects the same as if this Act had not been passed; and the local authority may themselves lay or grant to any other person the right to lay mains and pipes above, below, or alongside those of the proprietor.

Not to affect right to obtain supply of water elsewhere or create vested interests in proprietor.

30. NOTHING in this Act contained shall in any manner prejudice or affect the right of the Government, or any Board authorised by the Government, to establish and carry on waterworks or to distribute and supply water within the limits of the Act, nor entitle the proprietor to any compensation whatever by reason of any such matters.

Government may construct water-works without compensating proprietor.

31. THE sum of money deposited by the proprietor, in pursuance of the Joint Standing Orders of the Houses of Parliament relating to Private Bills, shall be held by the Colonial Treasurer until he has been satisfied that the estimated expense has, after the passing of this Act, been expended by the proprietor, whereupon the same shall be returned to the proprietor.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent
to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.

IMPERIAL ACTS OF PARLIAMENT

ADOPTED AND UNREPEALED.

NOTE.—With the exception of those relating to Usury, all Imperial Statutes of a general nature in force in England on 1st June, 1829 (10 Geo. IV.), prevail here to the extent to which they are applicable.

Since that date many Imperial Statutes have been followed word by word, and enacted by the Colonial Legislature. The subjoined table does not deal with these, but is an attempt to give a complete list of such Imperial Statutes as have been from time to time adopted by mere reference.

The practice and procedure of the Supreme Court are governed by the Rules framed in 1888, and amendments, under the provisions of 24 Vict., No. 15, sec. 31. Where no rule applies, the Imperial practice is followed.
